NCAA INFRACTIONS REPORT

The NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions issued a decision dated March 6, 2015 in which the committee found Syracuse University responsible for certain violations of NCAA legislation.

The specific infractions, largely arising out of conduct from the past decade that the University voluntarily self-reported to the NCAA, regard: (a) impermissible extra benefits in the form of money, food, or transportation provided to certain student-athletes on the men's basketball, women's basketball, and football teams by a non-employee representative of the University's athletics interests; (b) unethical conduct committed by three football student-athletes and a part-time tutor regarding the student-athletes' involvement in an internship for academic credit at the part-time tutor's place of full-time employment; (c) the former director of basketball operations and a former receptionist's unethical conduct when they engaged in academic fraud with a former men's basketball student-athlete; (d) a former tutor and a former receptionist's provision of impermissible academic extra benefits to three former men's basketball student-athletes; (e) although testing and enforcement occurred, the University's failure to follow its written drug testing procedures for student-athletes; (f) the men's basketball staff's provision of more than two complimentary admissions on several occasions; (g) the failure of three athletics department staff members to report outside income or benefits to the University's chancellor; (h) the participation of former student-athletes in approximately 12 promotional activities without completing the promotion activity forms, and one former student-athlete fundraising for a charitable organization when the funds actually went to a commercial entity; (i) the participation of a former women's basketball student-athlete in an organized basketball game outside of intercollegiate competition; (j) the provision of impermissible transportation by two institutional employees to one former men's basketball student-athlete and one former football student-athlete; (k) the head basketball coach's failure to promote an atmosphere of compliance within his program or to monitor the activities of those who reported directly and indirectly to him; and (l) the University's failure to exercise control and monitor the conduct and administration of its athletics programs.

In the decision, the Committee on Infractions imposed a period of five years probation on the University from March 6, 2015 through March 5, 2020. Additional information regarding the decision and the penalties imposed are available upon request.

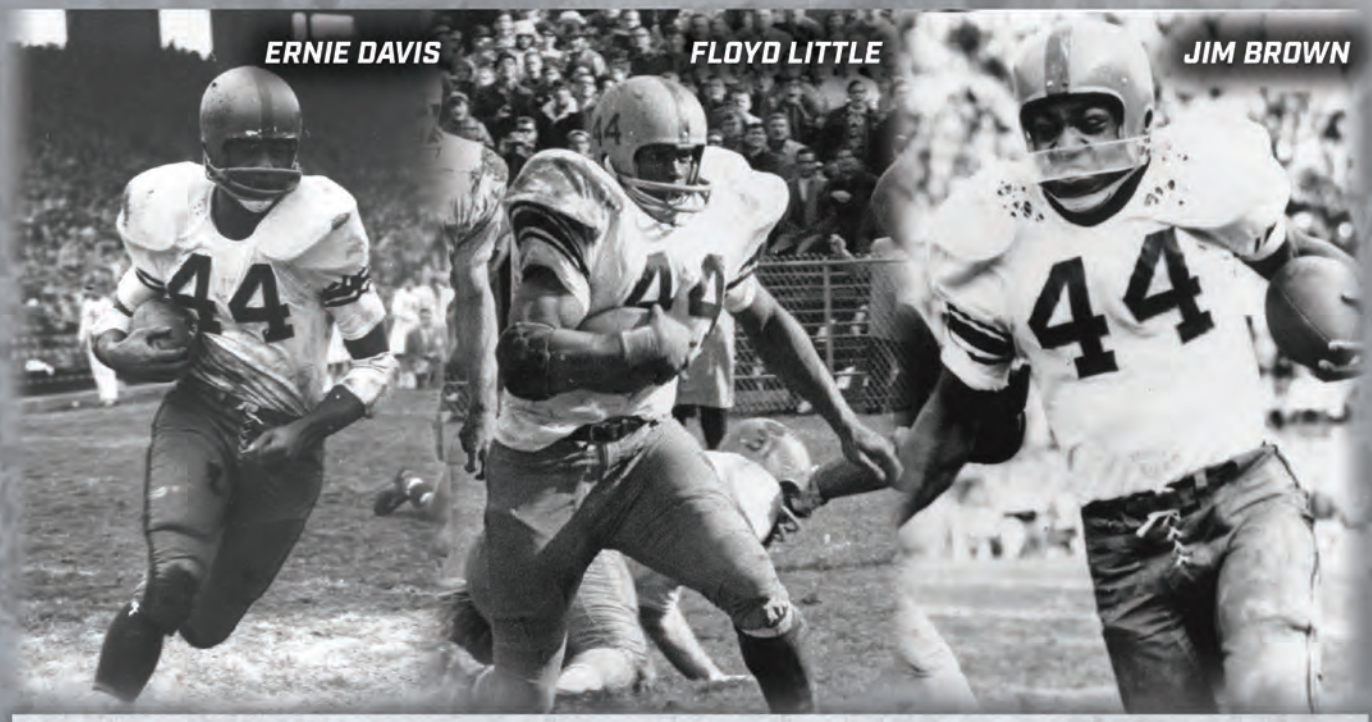
1959 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 2019 season marks the 60th anniversary of Syracuse's 1959 national championship team. Unbeaten and untied, the 1959 Orange capped an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of consensus National Coach of the Year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led an Orange offense that averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino, halfback Gerhard Schwedes and tackle Bob Yates earned All-America honors.

THE LEGEND OF 44



The running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that excellence has revolved around one jersey number — 44. Retired in 2005, it is one of the most storied numbers associated with any college football program. Three players who have donned No. 44 are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game. Overall, 25 players have worn the historic jersey.

1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER:

In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until the voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But, an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On Dec. 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time an African-American was honored as college football's best player, even though they had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking, and a Cotton Bowl showdown with Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Gerhard Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis led the squad in rushing again with 877 yards and scored 10 more touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis paced Syracuse on the ground for a third time in 1961, rushing for 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he ran for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored Syracuse's first touchdown, as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami (Fla.), 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second first-team All-America honor, Davis was then rewarded with the 1961 Heisman Trophy. President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

"Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his SU backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for Davis after Washington selected him with the first overall pick in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of Syracuse's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was posthumously inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. In 2008, "The Express," a motion picture about Davis' life, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including the retirement of his No. 44 jersey, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, building Ernie Davis Hall and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic Heisman victory with an event at the New York Historical Society Museum in 2011.

Forty-nine Orange have been named to at least one major All-America first team a total of 61 times. Center J.A. (Joe) Alexander and halfback Floyd Little were three-time, first-team honorees.

During Syracuse's 129-year football history, more than 100 Orange players have been named All-Americans. Bill Horr became the program's first in 1907 when the legendary Walter Camp selected Horr to his "Second Eleven." Placekicker Andre Szmyt and defensive back Andre Cisco are Syracuse's most recent honorees. In 2018, Szmyt was recognized by 14 selectors and became the ninth unanimous All-American in team history. The first Orange true freshman to be rewarded with All-America status, Cisco was voted one of the nation's top safeties last season.

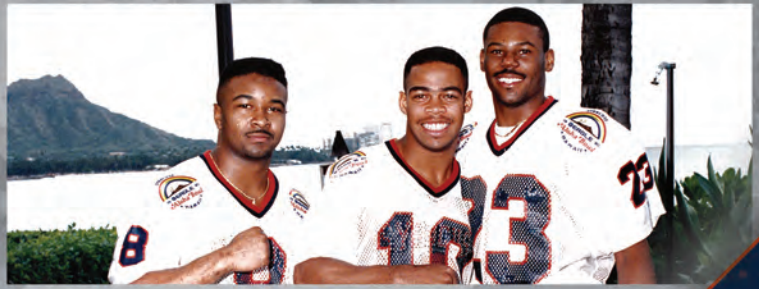
BOWL TRADITION

Syracuse is 16-9-1 in its 26 bowl appearances and has won six of its last seven postseason games, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl. From 1989-96, the Orange won seven consecutive bowl games, the seventh-longest streak in the history of college football. Syracuse has played in 17 different bowl games. The program's .635 winning percentage ranks sixth all-time among schools with at least 15 bowl appearances.

NEW YEAR'S SIX

During its illustrious history, Syracuse has earned invitations to all six games that make up the College Football Playoff – the Rose, Sugar, Orange, Fiesta, Peach and Cotton Bowls.



THE LOUD HOUSE

One of the "Seven Wonders" of the college athletics world, the Dome was the first stadium of its kind built in the Northeast. Since it opened in 1980, more than 9.5 million fans have passed through the building's gates to watch Syracuse football. In 2018, the University announced a $118 million investment in the facility to create a new stadium experience. The upcoming renovations, which include a new fixed roof and center-hung scoreboard, will transform the Dome into one of the finest facilities in all of sports.

"There's no place like the Dome. It's the loudest place. Nobody liked coming to play us there. You can talk to any of the guys in the NFL right now who played there and they'll tell you. The Dome was the worst place to come to play."

– Dwight Freeney –
All-American & Super Bowl Champion

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

The Ensley Athletic Center and Iocolano-Petty Football Complex stand as symbols of Syracuse University's commitment to providing an exceptional student-athlete experience. Named in honor of three-sport letterwinner Cliff Ensley, the 87,000-square foot Ensley Athletic Center offers a full-sized, indoor, FieldTurf practice field identical to the Dome. The Iocolano-Petty Football Complex embodies the long and storied tradition of Syracuse football. It features a Dome theater, state-of-the-art player lounge, athletic training and player recovery facilities, a locker room, dining facility, and multiple displays honoring the program's all-time greats.

Student-Athlete Academic Development

The Stevenson Educational Center, located in Manley Field House, is home to the Syracuse Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. The center features a computer lab, tutor rooms, career development suite and meeting rooms for both day and evening study-table sessions.

The educational center team is involved in additional activities designed to enhance academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester to aid in the transition from high school to college. Career-planning programs assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the academic development staff help them enter the work force or explore opportunities for graduate school.

One of those programs is the "S Project," which is designed to provide student-athletes with proactive and continuing education. Through the program, student-athletes develop the skills necessary to excel in the classroom, maximize their athletic ability and prepare them for post-collegiate success. The curriculum is centered on four areas – career readiness, financial education, healthy relationships, and wellness and personal development.

Staff members focus on the enhancement of academic performance through the development of study and communication skills, goal-setting, stress and time management, and individual tutoring and mentoring. Academic performance is monitored to ensure NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference and Syracuse University eligibility rules are met and that academic progress is being made toward graduation.

SERVING THE COMMUNITY

Giving back to the local community is integral to the development of the overall student-athlete. Through the 'Cuse Cares program, Syracuse coaches and student-athletes log thousands of community service hours each year. The Orange football team has been a leader in that regard, earning multiple awards for service. Last season, linebacker Kielan Whitner was named to the prestigious Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his commitment to volunteerism. In March 2018, former punter Rob Long and the Syracuse chapter of Uplifting Athletes received the University's Orange Circle Award, which honors members of the SU community who have done extraordinary things in the service of others. Football also won the 2016-17 'Cuse Cares Award for community engagement, which included team members' participation in Syracuse's annual St. Baldrick's Day, Beads of Courage, Building Men and additional volunteer programs.

ACC TOP SIX FOR SERVICE

Presented annually to six student-athletes at each member institution, the ACC Top Six for Service Award recognizes those who demonstrate outstanding dedication to community service and outreach programs.

In 2018-19, offensive lineman Sam Heckel and linebacker Kielan Whitner were among Syracuse's six award winners. The president of the Syracuse chapter of Uplifting Athletes, Heckel was a finalist for the organization's Rare Disease Champion Award, which recognizes those who make a positive and lasting impact on the rare-disease community. Whitner was one of the 11 FBS members of the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. Among Whitner's many service activities were two mission trips to Haiti to build orphanages and distribute free medical care.

THIS IS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Syracuse University is a private, international research university with distinctive academics, diversely unique offerings and an undeniable spirit. Located in the geographic heart of New York state, with a global footprint and nearly 150 years of history, Syracuse offers a quintessential college experience, as well as innovative online learning environments.

The scope of Syracuse University is a testament to its strengths. The University offers a choice of more than 200 majors and 100 minors through its 13 schools and colleges and 18 online degree programs. Syracuse has more than 15,000 undergraduates and 7,500 graduate students, more than a quarter of a million alumni in 160 countries, and a student population from all 50 states and 123 countries.

Dedicated to preparing its students for a rapidly changing world, Syracuse University consistently ranks among the highest quality international study programs in the country. With seven overseas centers and more than 100 programs within 60 countries, nearly half of Syracuse students study abroad at some point during their academic careers. As a Carnegie classification Research 1 institution, the University offers students hands-on opportunities to conduct research in their fields.

Syracuse has built a reputation as the best university for veterans and military-connected students, who make up more than five percent of the student body. Recently ranked the No. 1 private school for veterans by the Military Times, the University will open the National Veterans Resource Center (NVRC), a state-of-the-art facility, in 2020. The NVRC will be dedicated to advancing the social, economic, and wellness concerns of the nation's veterans and their families and will serve as the center of veteran life on campus, in the local community, and across Central New York.

SYRACUSE, N.Y.
THE SALT CITY

Located in the heart of New York state, the city of Syracuse and its nearby environs offer a blend of city life and scenic countryside escapes. Among its many attractions, the city hosts an opera company, museums, art houses and a professional theater. Historic Armory Square in downtown Syracuse is filled with restaurants, pubs, and boutique hotel and shopping opportunities, along with the hands-on Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology. To experience some of the unique sites the city has to offer, visitors can travel the Connective Corridor, a three-mile urban design project linking Syracuse University with the city's cultural attractions.

Beyond the city, the area features abundant county and regional parks. The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Beaver Lake Nature Center, Onondaga Lake Park and Baltimore Woods Nature Preserve offer plenty of recreation and entertainment opportunities.

Syracuse is also home to Destiny USA – a 2.4 million square-foot destination shopping complex. Destiny USA underwent an 850,000 square-foot expansion in 2012 that combines full-priced and value retail with fine dining and entertainment venues. It's the sixth-largest shopping center in the United States and features nearly 250 tenants.

Residents and visitors enjoy the region's four seasons, which allow for various outdoor sports, including cross-country and downhill skiing, snowmobiling, biking, fishing, hiking and canoeing. In addition, more than 40 golf courses are located throughout the greater Syracuse area. For sports enthusiasts, the city is home to the Syracuse Mets, the Triple-A affiliate for the New York Mets, and the Syracuse Crunch AHL hockey team.

A yearly end-of-summer celebration with exhibitions, food and entertainment, the Great New York State Fair draws hundreds of thousands of visitors each year. The area also hosts many other festivals, including the Jamesville Balloon Fest, Taste of Syracuse, New York Blues Fest and the Syracuse Arts & Crafts Festival.

In recognition of the area's many assets, U.S. News & World Report ranked Syracuse No. 28 on its 2017 list of the "100 Best Places to Live in the United States."

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with all Orange student-athletes and Coach Dino Babers MUST be arranged through the Syracuse Athletic Communications Department. Contact Mike Morrison, Football SID, via email at mdmorris@syr.edu or by calling (315) 443-2608. Please give as much advance notice as possible when requesting interviews.

Select players are available for media interviews following practice on Tuesdays. Requests for player interviews must be received by 1 p.m. on Monday afternoons. Locker rooms and team areas are private and not open to media.

Personal phone numbers will not be distributed to media and student-athletes should not be contacted directly by phone, email or social media to arrange interviews or answer questions.

HEAD COACH DINO BABERS NEWS CONFERENCE

Orange head coach Dino Babers will meet with the media on Mondays at 11:30 a.m. during the season in the Ferguson Auditorium located in the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex.

The entire news conference is streamed on the Syracuse Athletics Facebook page and archived for on-demand viewing on the Syracuse Orange YouTube channel.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password at collegepressbox.com/password.

CUSE.COM

Cuse.com is the ultimate source for Syracuse Athletics information. The website includes student-athlete and coaching staff biographies, up-to-the minute coverage of Orange news, game notes press conference quotes, rosters, schedules and results, and video content via Cuse TV. Live in-game statistics and other details are available on the football page during games.

CUSE TV

Cuse TV is Syracuse's multimedia package hosted by Cuse.com and YouTube. Cuse TV offers exclusive, comprehensive coverage of Syracuse Athletics. It features live and archived content, including complete game webcasts, highlights, interviews, press conferences, features and the radio and television productions of the Syracuse Sports Network from Learfield IMG College and ACC Network Extra.

ACC NETWORK

Launching in August 2019, the ACC Network (ACCN) is a collaboration between the ACC and ESPN that brings together unparalleled content from one of the most competitive conferences in the country with the highest quality, most innovative production partner in the sports industry.

ACCN offers live ACC sports and related studio programming 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Approximately 450 live televised events, including 40 regular-season football games, 150 men's and women's basketball games, and 200 other regular-season competitions and tournament games from across the conference's 27 sponsored sports will be televised annually. The network lineup also includes a complement of news and information shows, plus original programming. Together, ACCN's television and digital platforms will feature more than 1,300 ACC events in its first year. Fans will be able to access content on a range of devices, including via the ESPN App on computers, tablets, mobile phones and TV-connected devices.

Visit GetACCN.com for the latest updates regarding distribution of the network, including an up-to-date list of providers that have carriage agreements. ACC fans are encouraged to contact their television provider to request that it carry ACCN as part of its channel lineup.

THEACC.COM/MEDIA

The Atlantic Coast Conference's official website, theACC.com, is the most complete source for ACC football information. The media section of theACC.com is dedicated to the specific needs of media members. It includes access to the ACC PhotoShelter, downloads of ACC and school logos, as well as headshots of players and coaches from select sports. An individual account is required to access the site. Go to theACC.com/media to register.

ACC VIDEO CLIP SERVICE

Broadcast media outlets are able to access ACC highlights and press conference excerpts via the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS) throughout the entire 2019-20 sports calendar. Video content is only available for download in a digital file format that can be accessed exclusively on the AVCS. To register for this complimentary service, contact Slim Vollinger, Director of ACC Advanced Media, at svollinger@theacc.org or call (336) 369-1207.

CREDENTIALS AND SCOUTING PASSES

Season and individual game requests for working press credentials for media or professional scouts should be made online via the PressPass media credential system. Please visit www.SportsSystems.com/Syracuse to apply for credentials. Requests should be made at least two weeks prior to the game. Communication regarding your request will be made via email. Please contact the Syracuse University Athletic Communications Department with additional questions.

Visiting team media should contact the opposing team's athletic communications office to be placed on their official credential list.

Passes not picked up in advance will be available at the Will Call window located at Gate B of the Dome three hours before kickoff. Gameday requests will not be honored.

PARKING

Parking for media in the WEST Lots (Standart West and Henry) across the street from the Dome is limited. Passes are issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials. Additional parking for media is available at Manley Field House in the SOUTH MANLEY Lot. A media shuttle runs from there to the Dome beginning approximately three hours prior to kickoff. Return service is available for approximately two hours after the conclusion of the game.

PRESS BOX

All media work from the press box located on the third level of the Dome. Media should enter the building through Stadium Control and take the elevator or stairs to the Upper Concourse then proceed to the right. The press box is on the left directly under Section 301. The press box opens three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Syracuse reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes and who are shooting for editorial use only. Photographers must have an individual game photo credential or Dome photo button.

There is a field-level work area for photographers located in the Driver's Village VIP Lounge next to the ambulance tunnel. There is also limited photographer work space in the press box.

RADIO

Syracuse hosts both home and visiting network radio in booths in the press box. Radio and ISDN lines are available for non-conference visiting radio broadcasts for a fee. Radio lines for Atlantic Coast Conference games are made available in accordance with conference guidelines. Requests for lines should be made to Syracuse IMG Sports Marketing by calling (315) 445-2500.

TELEVISION

News stations covering Orange football games are permitted to shoot from field level outside the team bench areas. Individuals must have an individual game photo credential or Dome photo button to obtain access.

INTERNET ACCESS

The Dome press box is equipped with wireless internet for use by media members. Network information is available in the press box on gameday.

SERVICES

Final statistics are available approximately 20 minutes after the conclusion of the game. Quotes from both head coaches and select student-athletes from each team will be distributed in the press box and are available on Syracuse's official website (Cuse.com) approximately one hour after the game ends.

A full meal is served prior to kickoff. There is continuous beverage service throughout the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Syracuse locker room is closed to the media following games, both at home and on the road. Coach Dino Babers will hold his news conference in the Driver's Village VIP Lounge located on the Service Level of the Dome near Stadium Control.

Following the conclusion of Coach Babers' news conference, select student-athletes will be brought to the Driver's Village VIP Lounge to meet with media representatives. Requests for specific student-athletes will be collected during the fourth quarter of each game.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL

SEASON PREVIEW

2019

Spurred on by his "Orange Is The New Fast" mantra, head coach Dino Babers has constructed a program which now earns regular mention in national college football discussions. Syracuse was never faster than it was in 2018 when it went 10-3, won the Camping World Bowl, and appeared in the final national rankings for the first time since 2001.

Syracuse more than doubled its win total from 2017. Its six-win jump was only equaled by Florida and Baylor in the Power-Five. Babers' crew forced a virtual rewrite of the Orange record book on offense and asserted themselves as a defensive force.

The quest for a second straight bowl berth includes pairings with seven teams who earned bowl invitations last year. This season's 12 Orange foes combined for an 83-69 (.557) mark in 2018.

The season starts with non-conference road encounters at Liberty (Aug. 31) and Big Ten foe Maryland (Sept. 7). Syracuse's Sept. 14 home opener against defending national champion Clemson is already one of the most-anticipated Dome games in recent memory.

Home non-conference tilts with Western Michigan (Sept. 21) and Holy Cross (Sept. 28) follow before the page turns full-time to ACC play.

Syracuse goes to NC State (Oct. 10) and plays host to Pittsburgh (Oct. 18) in games already scheduled for ESPN. A matchup at Florida State (Oct. 26) preceeds Boston College's Dome appearance on Nov. 2. The Orange play at Duke (Nov. 16) and Louisville (Nov. 23) before the regular season closes in Syracuse against Wake Forest (Nov. 30).

Here's a position-by-position look at the 2019 Orange:

Senior Moe Neal enters the 2019 season with 1,714 yards rushing on 315 career carries. His 5.44 yards-per-carry average stands fifth on the program's all-time record list.

QUARTERBACKS

Starters Returning: 0 • Lettermen Returning: 2

How do you replace one of the most prolific quarterbacks in Syracuse history? The man who set or equaled 25 school records? There's only one Eric Dungey, but the Orange coaches have confidence the offense will work just fine with another player at the controls.

Redshirt sophomore Tommy DeVito has successfully served his apprenticeship and now gets to operate the "Orange Is The New Fast" machine. He came off the bench in 2018 to lead Syracuse to victories against Florida State and North Carolina and saw the field in eight games overall. Hopes are high for DeVito, who earned preseason All-ACC Third Team recognition from Athlon and Lindy's preview magazines.

Clayton Welch, who transferred to Syracuse from Butte College (Calif.) prior to the 2017 campaign, was the third-string signal-caller last fall. He saw plenty of work during spring drills and enters his redshirt senior season as the primary backup.

Rex Culpepper, a redshirt junior, has already left an imprint on the program for his resilience. After a 2017 season in which he completed 24-of-34 passes for 280 yards and two scores in a start against Boston College, Culpepper was diagnosed with testicular cancer. He underwent chemotherapy treatments and returned to the team in time for the 2018 campaign. Culpepper has contributed on special teams in addition to his work under center.

New to the Orange is freshman David Summers from St. Joseph High School (Conn.). The 2018 Connecticut High School Coaches Association Player of the Year, Summers guided the Cadets to a 25-2 record and two state championships over his two seasons there. He passed for 5,858 yards and 88 touchdowns in those 27 outings.

RUNNING BACKS

Starters Returning: 1 • Lettermen Returning: 3

While the Orange air attack may attract the most attention, a potent running game is just as critical in Babers' scheme. His crop of ball carries may include the most dynamite he's had during his Syracuse tenure.

Senior Moe Neal returns as the starter. Neal is coming off a season in which he accumulated 869 yards rushing and five touchdowns. Neal ran for at least 50 yards in eight out of 13 games. He had six carries of 25+ yards, including a 68-yard dash versus Louisville.

Syracuse's ground game got a shot in the arm for the Camping World Bowl when Oklahoma transfer Abdul Adams suited up for the first time. Adams, who is a redshirt junior, scored twice against West Virginia in his Syracuse debut and now looks forward to a full season of work.

Sophomore Jarveon Howard jumped into the rotation as a rookie and scored seven touchdowns. He had success when called upon, including back-to-back efforts of 69 yards and 55 yards in wins versus Wagner and Florida State, respectively.

Redshirt sophomore Markenzy Pierre and senior Otto Zaccardo are two more roster members with experience. Both have contributed on special teams during their careers.

Freshman Jawhar Jordan is a newcomer to watch. A native of Farmingdale, N.Y., Jordan rushed for 3,501 yards and 48 touchdowns in his scholastic career at Hamilton High School (Ariz.). He had 56 yards rushing in Syracuse's "Spring Football Saturday" scrimmage after enrolling in January.

Syracuse employs a more traditional tailback-fullback set at times and junior bulldozer Chris Elmore has been a great fit at 6-feet tall and 295 pounds. The projected starter at tight end, Elmore has three career rushing touchdowns.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Starters Returning: 3 • Lettermen Returning: 5

Does the man make the scheme, or does the scheme make the man? Here are the pass-catching leaders for Babers' first three years at Syracuse:

- 2016: Amba Etta-Tawo, 94 receptions
- 2017: Steve Ishmael, 105 receptions
- 2018: Sean Riley, 64 receptions

Regardless, it's safe to say there will be plenty of footballs available to catch in 2019.

Riley, a senior manning the slot position, totaled 1,424 all-purpose yards last fall. He caught balls in every game but one and topped 100 yards receiving three times. With 83 career receptions, Riley enters 2019 as the ACC active leader in catches.

Nykeim Johnson, another weapon in the slot, hauled in 41 passes as a sophomore in 2018. He's listed as Riley's primary backup and will receive plenty of opportunities in four-receiver sets. Three of Johnson's four touchdown catches last season covered at least 40 yards.

Inside receiver Courtney Jackson was the only wideout signed in the Class of 2019. He enrolled in January and caught a touchdown during the "Spring Football Saturday" scrimmage.

Sophomore Taj Harris returns as one of the Orange's starting outside receivers. Harris set Syracuse rookie records for both catches (40) and yards (565) in 2018.

Harris will be ably supported by redshirt sophomore Sharod Johnson, who is listed as the backup at both outside receiver positions.

Redshirt junior Trishton Jackson, a Michigan State transfer who made his SU debut in the Camping World Bowl and scored a touchdown, is projected to line up opposite Harris.

Redshirt sophomore Cameron Jordan is the only other returning letterwinner in the group. He's expected to compete for time at outside receiver.

The Orange's 2018 leader with 36.5 knockdown blocks, Airon Servais has started every game at center the past two seasons.

TIGHT ENDS

Starters Returning: 0 • Lettermen Returning: 2

Versatile junior Chris Elmore is the front-runner to take over for Ravian Pierce as Syracuse's top tight end. Elmore missed most of spring practice due to injury, but made three starts last fall. He is a punishing blocker and made the first reception of his career versus West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl.

Junior Aaron Hackett, a two-time letterwinner, is the most experienced of Syracuse's traditional tight ends. Hackett played in all 13 games and was with the first string twice during 2018. Three of his four receptions came in the Camping World Bowl. He also caught a touchdown in the Pittsburgh game. Hackett was a significant contributor on special teams, as well.

Redshirt junior Jesse Conners, a transfer from Holy Cross, missed all of last season with an injury. A native of Pittsford, New York, Conners has his sights set on earning playing time this fall.

The Orange recruited freshman Luke Benson from Pennsylvania scholastic power Central Bucks West. Rated the No. 69 tight end in his class, four of Benson's 12 receptions as a high school senior went for touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Starters Returning: 2 • Lettermen Returning: 6

While skill-position players may attract the most attention, Syracuse's return to the national stage has been accelerated by its play in the trenches.

The unit has been hit hard by departures – tackles Koda Martin and Cody Conway both signed NFL contracts and a third starter, guard Aaron Roberts, completed his collegiate eligibility, too. The cupboard, however, is not bare.

Adams has logged 33 career starts and more than 2,400 snaps the past three seasons. Servais has started all 25 games the last two years and topped the 2018 squad with 36.5 knockdowns. Heckel made 12 starts at left guard in 2017 and then served as the offensive line's "Sixth Man" a year ago.

A pair of younger players are slated to take over for Martin and Conway at the tackle positions. January enrollee Anthony Red is listed as the preseason starter at right tackle, while redshirt freshman Carlos Vettorello enters fall camp as the starter on the left side. Vettorello played in two games last season while redshirting.

Two transfers are expected to challenge Red and Vettorello for playing time. Redshirt senior Ryan Alexander joins the Orange after playing 33 contests, mostly at right tackle, for South Alabama from 2016-18. Left tackle Darius Tisdale was part of an 11-0 Lackawanna Community College squad and comes to Syracuse as a redshirt sophomore.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Starters Returning: 3 • Lettermen Returning: 7

Syracuse defensive coordinator Brian Ward dialed up the pressure on opposing quarterbacks in 2018 and the additional heat paid dividends. After the unit averaged 1.3 sacks per game in each of Ward's first two years, the group logged 3.3 per outing, which ranked sixth in the FBS. The assault came from every direction as no less than 12 different defenders recorded sacks.

The primary responsible for the production are back. Defensive ends Kendall Coleman and Alton Robinson gave opposing teams fits with 10 sacks each. Three of Coleman's takedowns came in the Camping World Bowl against West Virginia. Robinson, who earned All-ACC Second Team honors, had 17.5 tackles for loss. Both are entering their senior campaigns, as is McKinley Williams, who emerged to started nine games at nose tackle last year. Williams slides over to defensive tackle in 2019 to replace Chris Slayton, who was drafted by the New York Giants.

Redshirt junior Josh Black, who made four starts last fall, is slated to be the team's first-string nose tackle. Black played in 11 outings last season and tallied 14 tackles.

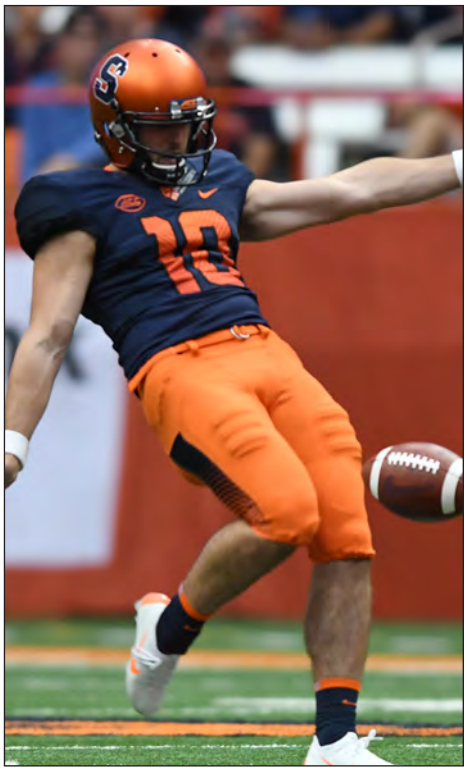
The defensive line has depth in the form of senior Kenneth Ruff, redshirt senior Brandon Berry and junior Kingsley Jonathan. Ruff, a defensive tackle, played his best at the end of last season, tallying 14 of his 19 stops in the last five games. Jonathan spelled Coleman and Robinson last season and totaled five sacks to rank third on the Orange.

Redshirt senior defensive end Jake Pickard has been held back by injuries during his career. This fall may be his time to break out.

Another redshirt senior, Shaq Grosvenor, has an opportunity to crack the rotation inside. He enters fall camp as the second-string nose tackle.

The most seasoned member of Syracuse's linebacking corps, senior Andrew Armstrong is charted as the starter on the weakside.

Redshirt senior cornerback Christopher Fredrick has started 31 consecutive games dating back to 2016.



A two-time All-ACC selection, punter Sterling Hofrichter led the conference with 26 punts downed inside the 20-yard line in 2018.

LINEBACKERS

Starters Returning: 0 • Lettermen Returning: 4

For the second straight season, Syracuse is losing its top two tacklers, both from the linebacker position. This time around it's Ryan Guthrie (107 tackles, 16.5 tackles for loss) and Kielan Whitner (100 tackles) who have departed following stellar senior campaigns. Guthrie was an All-ACC Second Team selection and Whitner was a semifinalist for the Wuerffel Trophy and the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award.

Thanks to a talent-laden secondary, the Orange will once again employ a great deal of nickel in 2019.

Three-year letterwinner Andrew Armstrong, a senior, finished with 45 total stops, an interception, and two fumble recoveries in 13 games in 2018. He's the projected successor to Whitner on the weakside after ending up sixth on the squad in tackles. Next to him will likely be senior Lakiem Williams, who competed in seven contests last fall. Williams honed his skills as an important contributor for Syracuse's special teams cover units, while learning the middle linebacker position under Guthrie.

Sophomore Juan Wallace is expected to challenge Williams for snaps at middle linebacker. The IMG Academy (Fla.) product was a special teams regular as a true freshman last season.

Fellow IMG Academy graduate Mikel Jones is the only true freshman listed on the preseason defensive depth chart. Jones enrolled in January and will serve as Armstrong's primary backup.

Outside linebacker Tyrell Richards, a redshirt sophomore, was utilized as a pass-rushing defensive end in 2018 and had three sacks.

Redshirt sophomore Kadeem Trotter and redshirt freshman Tre Allison are also in the mix, as are true freshmen Lee Kpogba and Geoff Cantin-Arku.

SECONDARY

Starters Returning: 5 • Lettermen Returning: 11

With five starters and 11 lettermen returning, the defensive backfield may be the team's strongest unit, and they played a big part in Syracuse's resurgence last season.

The Orange almost tripled their output of takeaways from 2017, jumping from 12 to 31. The Orange improved from four interceptions to 18.

Newcomer Andre Cisco, now a sophomore, keyed the effort. Cisco was the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year after tying for the FBS lead in interceptions with seven. His 18 passes defended were a Syracuse record for a true freshman. Cisco will once again hold down the free safety spot.

At strong safety, Evan Foster has started the last 25 games for the Orange. Foster's 86 total tackles ranked third on the team in 2018.

One cornerback spot should remain in the capable hands of redshirt senior Christopher Fredrick. He owns the program's longest active streak of consecutive starts with 31. A year ago, he contributed three interceptions and 56 tackles.

Senior Scoop Bradshaw, a two-year starter, is back in the mix and will get a look behind Fredrick.

Redshirt sophomore Ifeatu Melifonwu sits atop the preseason depth chart at corner opposite Fredrick, while sophomore Trill Williams is Syracuse's leading nickelback. Melifonwu displayed his talents with six pass breakups last fall. Williams totaled 31 tackles. Observers can also expect to see senior Carl Jones, redshirt junior Devon Clarke, junior Allen Stritzinger and redshirt sophomore Eric Coley roaming the secondary.

The most veteran "veteran" on the roster is Antwan Cordy, who enters his sixth season with the program. Injuries held Cordy back in 2016 and 2017. He was a first-string regular at safety in 2015 and nickelback in 2018.

SPECIALISTS

Starters Returning: 3 • Lettermen Returning: 4

Syracuse's special teams may be as solid as they've been in decades.

It would tough to top the rookie season Andre Szymt turned in with the Orange. Szymt won the Lou Groza Award and was a unanimous All-American in 2018. He led the NCAA in field goals (30), points per game (11.6) and was second in total points with 151. Szymt made 88.2 percent of his attempts, including all three of his tries from 50 yards and out.

Redshirt senior Sterling Hofrichter is back for his fourth season as the Orange's starting punter. A two-time All-ACC selection, Hofrichter ranks third in career punting average (42.9) at Syracuse.

Hofrichter has also capably handled kickoff duties. In 2018, 61 of his 101 kicks went into the end zone for touchbacks.

Last season, sophomore Aaron Bolinsky took over long-snapping chores after Matt Keller was injured on Sept. 29 at Clemson. Bolinsky handled things over the next seven contests and the Syracuse punting operation didn't skip a beat.

The final returning letterwinner on special teams is redshirt junior Nolan Cooney. In addition to being a solid backup punter, Cooney was Szymt's holder, a role he is expected to reprise in 2019.

All-purpose standout Sean Riley proved to be a key weapon during last season's 10-win campaign. Riley finished second nationally in punt return average (16.4) and enters his senior year ranked second in career kickoff returns (100) and kickoff return yards (2,174) at Syracuse behind only Qadry Ismail (105 returns for 2,290 yards).

Overall, the Orange led the ACC in kick return defense (18.3), net punting average (39.3) and finished third in punt return average (14.8).

DINO BABERS

Head Coach • Fourth Season • Career Record: 55-35 (.611)

A proven winner and respected mentor, Dino Babers was named the 30th head football coach at Syracuse University on Dec. 5, 2015. He owns a 55-35 (.611) career record and boasts more than 30 years of experience in the profession.

Known for his innovative, ultra-fast offense, Babers is in his fourth season on the Syracuse sideline. His tenure has featured record-setting production, as well as a return to prominence for the program after a 10-3 campaign in 2018.

Since his arrival on campus, Babers has reshaped the culture of Orange football by fostering an atmosphere of fairness, family and accountability. An adherence to those core values has allowed Syracuse's assistant coaches, staff and student-athletes to reach their full potential.

In December 2018, Syracuse Director of Athletics John Wildhack ensured the growth of the Orange would continue under Babers by announcing a contract extension that keeps the veteran coach at the helm of the program well into the future.

GROWING THE ORANGE

Babers planted the seeds of Syracuse's revival during his first season in 2016. The Orange knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time in four years, toppling ACC Coastal champion Virginia Tech at the Dome. Additionally, he commanded an offense that set or tied more than 40 school records, including new season standards for pass completions (332) and passing yards (3,855).

Babers' second campaign also featured a signature win, as Syracuse handed 2017 College Football Playoff semifinalist Clemson its only defeat of the regular season. The Orange topped the second-ranked Tigers, 27-24. The triumph was on par with the Orange's historic upset of No. 1 Nebraska more than 30 years prior and captured the attention of the nation.

Those flashes of success proved to be harbingers of what was to come in 2018, as Babers guided the Orange to the seventh double-digit win season in program history. The Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Team of the Year, Syracuse went from four wins to 10 and and posted a 6-2 conference record to finish second to national champion Clemson in the ACC Atlantic Division. The six-win increase matched the 1987 squad for the second-largest improvement from one year to the next in team history, and equaled Florida and Baylor for the best turnaround by a Power-Five team from 2017 to 2018.

The Orange opened the season with four straight wins and ended it with triumphs in six of their last seven games. Their 6-1 closing stretch included a 34-18 victory over West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl, the Orange's first postseason appearance since 2013. Along the way, Syracuse protected its home field by going 6-0 in the Dome, returned to the national polls for the first time in 17 years, and made its debut in the College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings.

Syracuse rose to as high as No. 12 in all three polls during the week of Nov. 11, the program's highest ranking since 1998, and closed the season at No. 15 in the final AP and Amway Coaches polls.

For his efforts, Babers was named the AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year, the third time in seven seasons he was voted the top coach in the region by his peers in the American Football Coaches Association. A finalist for three 2018 national coach of the year awards, Babers received co-ACC Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press and was selected as the ECAC Coach of the Year.

Babers' vision for all three phases working together fueled the breakthrough. The Orange featured an electrifying offense, a tenacious defense and superb special teams. Offensively, the Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg) and set the school records for most plays (1,063) and most points scored (523). They tied the all-time program mark with 62 total touchdowns, including a record 38 rushing scores. In 13 games, Syracuse scored 50+ points a school-record five times and topped 40 points on eight occasions.

Syracuse's opportunistic defense served as the perfect complement to the team's high-flying offense. The Orange ranked in the top 10 nationally in five defensive categories: turnovers gained (3rd - 31), interceptions (5th - 18), fumbles recovered (5th - 13), sacks (6th - 3.31 per game) and third-down defense (7th - .286). They also totaled a school-record 43 sacks.

A special teams unit led by All-ACC punter Sterling Hofrichter and unanimous All-American and Lou Groza Award-winning kicker Andre Szmyt completed the trifecta.

Szmyt, who led the NCAA in nearly every kicking category, and safety Andre Cisco, who tied for the national lead in interceptions, were the third and fourth Orange players, respectively, to earn All-America honors under Babers. To put that achievement perspective, Syracuse had one All-American in the 14 years prior to Babers' arrival.

Receivers Amba Etta-Tawo and Steve Ishmael were Babers' first two Orange All-Americans. Quarterback Eric Dungey and receiver Ervin Philips are additional examples of players who flourished with Babers' guidance.

In 2016, Etta-Tawo left an indelible stamp on the program. He set 10 school receiving records in his one year with the Orange. He was an All-ACC First Team choice and was named to four All-America teams.

The following season, Ishmael picked up where Etta-Tawo left off. Ishmael ranked second in the FBS in receptions per game (8.8) and catches (105). He also finished in the top 10 in receiving yards per game (4th - 112.2) and total receiving yardage (7th - 1,347). Like Etta-Tawo, Ishmael was an All-ACC First Team choice and an All-American, earning recognition from nine outlets, including four NCAA consensus selectors (Walter Camp Football Foundation, FWAA, Sporting News, Associated Press).

Dino Babers and the Orange celebrated their Camping World Bowl victory at the Syracuse-Pitt men's basketball game in January 2019.

Syracuse has recorded three of the top four season total-offense figures in team history under Dino Babers.

Philips caught 179 of his school-record 223 passes in the two seasons he played for Babers. In 2017, Philips and Ishmael combined for an ACC-record 194 catches to close their careers ranked No. 1 and No. 2 on the program's all-time receptions list.

A four-year starter who played three of his collegiate seasons for Babers, Dungey finished his Orange career as the holder of 25 school records. Among the most prominent are the all-time Syracuse marks for passing yards (9,340) and total offense (11,333 yards).

Overall, 18 of Babers' Syracuse pupils have earned All-ACC honors with five – Ishmael, Etta-Tawo, Hofrichter, Cisco and Szmyt – being named to the first team.

Fifteen of his former Orange players have gone on to sign NFL contracts, including Dungey and draft choices Zaire Franklin and Chris Slayton.

MAKING THE FALCONS FAST

Babers took over the Bowling Green program in 2014 and led the Falcons to an 18-9 record in his two years there, including victories over three Big Ten teams (Indiana - 2014; Maryland, Purdue - 2015). The Falcons went 8-6 in Babers' first season and captured the MAC East Division championship with a 5-3 league mark. Bowling Green lost the MAC title game to Northern Illinois, but rebounded for a 33-28 win versus South Alabama in the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl, BGSU's first bowl victory since 2004.

In 2015, Bowling Green was 10-3 under Babers and 7-1 against MAC competition to win the MAC East once again. The Falcons got the better of MAC West champion Northern Illinois in the league title game to win BGSU's second conference championship in three seasons. Babers presided over one of the most explosive offenses in the country, as the Falcons ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st - 389), total offense (4th - 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th - 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th - .502) and scoring (6th - 42.2 ppg).

Babers mentored 17 All-MAC performers at BGSU, including 11 in 2015. Falcons quarterback Matt Johnson was the recipient of the 2015 MAC Vern Smith Leadership Award winner, presented to the conference's top football player, and earned MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors. In addition, Johnson finished second nationally in passing yards (4,946), touchdown passes (46) and fifth in passing yards per game (353.3). He set the MAC single-season record for touchdown passes and eclipsed Ben Roethlisberger's conference record for the most passing yards in a season.

Another of Babers' charges – Roger Lewis – also had a standout 2015 campaign. Lewis, now an NFL receiver for the Tennessee Titans, finished second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown catches (16) and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3). He became the first Falcon since 1994 to earn All-America honors from the Associated Press (third team) and received second-team honors from the FWAA.

EXCELLENCE AT EASTERN ILLINOIS

Babers excelled in his first head-coaching position, leading Eastern Illinois to a 19-7 record in two seasons, including a 14-1 mark against Ohio Valley Conference foes. His 2012 and 2013 Panther teams won the conference championship and earned FCS playoff berths. For his work, Babers was named the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year after both seasons.

In 2013, the Panthers finished 12-2, including an 8-0 conference record, and reached the FCS quarterfinals. The Panthers were ranked as high as No. 2 in the polls and led the nation in total yards (589.5) and points per game (48.2). EIU averaged 372.4 yards passing per contest and 217.1 yards a game rushing on its way to outscoring its opponents, 636-270. The offense was diverse with four different receivers totaling at least 700 yards and eight touchdowns apiece, and two running backs who combined for 2,539 rushing yards.

One of those receivers was 2012 Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Erik Lora, who set league single-season records with 136 receptions and 1,664 receiving yards. Lora followed up his stellar season with 123 catches for 1,544 yards and a conference-record 19 touchdowns in 2013.

Upon his arrival at EIU in 2012, Babers took a Panthers team that had finished last in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2011 and led them to a first-place finish with a 6-1 league mark. It was just the fourth time in OVC history that a team went from worst to first in the span of a season.

THE $138 MILLION MAN

The cornerstone of Babers' Eastern Illinois teams was quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, who won the Walter Payton Award (FCS Heisman Trophy) after throwing for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns as a senior in 2013. Garoppolo, now the starter for the San Francisco 49ers, passed for 8,873 yards and 84 scores in his two seasons with Babers to transform himself into a second-round draft pick. After spending his first three NFL seasons with the New England Patriots, Garoppolo was traded to the 49ers in 2017. He signed a $137.5 contract with San Francisco in February 2018, making him one of the league's highest-paid players.

PROFESSIONAL BUILDING BLOCKS

Prior to taking the helm at Eastern Illinois, Babers spent four seasons at Baylor in various capacities. Before that, he worked for four years at UCLA as assistant head coach, running backs coach and wide receivers coach.

A native of San Diego, California, Babers has also made assistant coaching stops at Pittsburgh, Texas A&M, Arizona, San Diego State, Purdue, Northern Arizona, UNLV and Eastern Illinois. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Hawaii in 1984. Babers spent the next two seasons in a similar position at Arizona State before landing his first full-time job at Eastern Illinois in 1987.

Babers' time at both Texas A&M and Arizona included stints as offensive coordinator. In 1998, he directed an Arizona attack that ranked in the top 20 in scoring offense (15th) and total offense (18th). The Wildcats were 12-1 that season and finished fourth in both polls.

Babers has coached or recruited more than 60 NFL players, including 31 draft picks, three Pro Bowlers (Lance Briggs, Matt Slater, Josh Gordon) and 2000 All-Pro selection Az-Zahir Hakim.

Thirteen of his protégés have been picked in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft, including six in the first two rounds. Arizona running back Trung Canidate was the first-round choice of the St. Louis Rams in 2000. Wide receivers Brian Alford (Purdue), Will Blackwell (San Diego State), Dennis Northcutt (Arizona), Josh Gordon (Baylor) and Jimmy Garoppolo were selected in the second round.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Hawaii with a bachelor's degree in education, Babers started at three different positions (outside linebacker, strong safety, running back) for the Warriors during his collegiate career, while earning All-Western Athletic Conference Academic honors. As a senior, he served as Hawaii's special teams captain and was the squad's leading rusher.

Babers tried out for the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League before an injury in training camp ended his playing career.

Babers, who received his master's degree in education administration and supervision from Arizona State in 1987, and his wife, Susan, have four daughters – Breeahnah, Tasha, Jazzmin and Paris. Jazzmin was a member of the Texas A&M volleyball team from 2012-16. She is married to former Orange offensive lineman Koda Martin. Breeahnah married Vincent Palmieri in June 2018.

JUSTIN LUSTIG

Assistant Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator/Outside Receivers • Third Season

A 2018 Broyles Award nominee as the nation's top assistant coach, Justin Lustig was promoted to assistant head coach by Dino Babers in February 2019.

Lustig is in his third season with the Orange and his second season as the program's special teams coordinator and outside receivers coach. He served as Syracuse's special teams coordinator and running backs coach in 2017.

During his career, Lustig has developed 46 all-conference players. He has worked on the staffs of five teams that reached the NCAA playoffs and coached in three bowl games. He also spent one season as a head coach, winning Division II national coach of the year honors at Edinboro (Pa.) University in 2016.

Since arriving at Syracuse, Lustig's kicking and return teams have ranked among the best in college football. Syracuse led the ACC in net punting in each of Lustig's first two seasons and finished 10th nationally (41.3) in the statistic in 2017. The 2017 Orange also ranked fourth in the country in punt return defense (2.67 ypr) and set school season records for fewest opponent punt returns (9) and fewest punt return yards allowed (24). Additionally, Syracuse was No. 1 in the conference in kickoff coverage (42.7 net avg.).

In 2018, Lustig's dominant special teams helped propel the Orange to a 10-3 record. His units contributed two touchdowns (1 punt return, 1 blocked punt return) and the Orange finished sixth overall (No. 2 among Power-Five teams) in ESPN's special teams efficiency ratings. In addition to leading the ACC for the second year in a row in net punting (39.3 avg.), Syracuse topped the conference in kickoff return yardage defense (18.3 ypr) and ranked among the top three in the league in four more special teams categories.

Lustig has coached five All-ACC players at Syracuse, including four specialists. Chief among them is Andre Szmyt, who captured the 2018 Lou Groza Award as the nation's best placekicker. The third freshman to ever win the award and a unanimous All-American, Szmyt made an ACC-record 30 field goals and became the second kicker to lead the FBS in scoring (11.6 ppg).

Punter Sterling Hofrichter and return man Sean Riley have also excelled under Lustig's guidance. Hofrichter earned All-ACC First Team honors in 2018 and Riley took home third-team, all-league honors last season after ranking second nationally in punt return average (16.4).

Specialists aren't the only ones who have benefited from Lustig's teaching. In his first year as Syracuse's outside receivers coach, Lustig oversaw the development of Jamal Custis, who signed as a free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs following a breakout 2018 campaign in which he more than tripled his career receiving totals.

Before joining the Orange, Lustig was the head coach at Edinboro University where he was named the 2016 D2Football.com Coach of the Year. Lustig inherited an 0-11 team and led the Fighting Scots to a 9-2 record in his only year at the helm. The turnaround was the largest in Division II football history. Along with his national coach of the year award, Lustig was voted the Don Hansen Football Gazette Super Region One co-Coach of the Year and the Pennsylvania State Athletics Conference (PSAC) West Coach of the Year.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Edinboro, Lustig made assistant coaching stops at five schools, including four Division I institutions. His most notable achievements came at Ball State where he was the special teams coordinator and running backs coach from 2011-15. The Cardinals played in the 2012 Beef O'Brady's Bowl and the 2014 GoDaddy Bowl during Lustig's time in Muncie, Indiana.

In 2015, the Cardinals ranked among the top four in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in every special teams category. The previous season, kicker Scott Secor was named the MAC Special Teams Player of the Year and a Groza Award semifinalist. Lustig also coached All-MAC First Team return man Eric Patterson and third-team All-MAC running back Jahwan Edwards.

After starting his coaching career as an assistant at Division III Christopher Newport from 2001-02, Lustig moved on to Villanova in 2003 as the Wildcats' cornerbacks coach. He returned to Christopher Newport for the 2004 and 2005 seasons, serving as special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach. His four-year tenure with the Captains featured a USA South Atlantic Conference co-championship and three NCAA Division III playoff berths.

Lustig served as special teams coordinator and running backs coach at Eastern Illinois in 2006. He spent three years with the Panthers, helping EIU to two FCS playoff appearances and coaching three 1,000-yard rushers.

Following his stint at Eastern Illinois, Lustig worked for two seasons at Louisiana-Lafayette as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

A 1996 graduate of Pennsylvania's Cathedral Prep, Lustig played collegiately at Bucknell. He was a four-year starter at defensive back for the Bison and captained the team as a senior. In 1997, Lustig and his teammates enjoyed the most successful season in school history, finishing with a 10-1 overall record.

Lustig earned his bachelor's degree in English and history from Bucknell in 2000. He also received his master's degree in human resource management from George Washington University in 2005.

Lustig and his wife, Beth Ann, have two sons, Samuel and Henry.

MIKE LYNCH

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs • Fourth Season

A versatile coach who has taught every position on offense, Mike Lynch was elevated to offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 2018. He is in his eighth season working with Dino Babers and his fourth year at Syracuse.

In his first season as sole offensive coordinator, Lynch directed a Syracuse attack that propelled the program to its first double-digit win season in 17 years and the No. 15 final ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 and Amway Coaches polls. Behind record-setting quarterback Eric Dungey, the Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg) in 2018 and set the school records for most plays (1,063) and most points (523) in a season. Additionally, the Orange tied the all-time program mark with 62 total touchdowns, including a record 38 rushing scores. After the season, Lynch pupil Dontae Strickland signed as a free agent with the Arizona Cardinals.

Prior to his current appointment, Lynch served as the Orange's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for two seasons where he laid the foundation for the program's breakout 2018 campaign. In 2017, the Orange were third in the ACC in total offense (456.3 ypg) and second in passing (294.8 ypg). Lynch's work with the offensive line paved the way for four 500+ total offense games. Thee Orange also increased their rushing output by more than 40 yards per contest from 2016. Offensive tackle Jamar McGloster, now a member of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers, was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game following the season and signed a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers.

Lynch's first season at Syracuse marked the dawn of a new era for the program. The transition from a run-based scheme to the up-tempo spread favored by Babers and Lynch resulted in more than 40 school records being set in 2016. Among them were new season standards for completions (332) passing yards (3,855). The play of Lynch's offensive line was critical to the production. The Orange front five protected a collection of quarterbacks who ranked 11th nationally in passing at 321.3 yards per game.

Lynch joined the Syracuse staff in January 2016 after helping run one of the most explosive offenses in college football under Babers at Bowling Green. As the co-offensive coordinator, as well as the offensive line and running backs coach for the Falcons in 2015, Bowling Green ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st - 389), total offense (4th - 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th - 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th - .502) and scoring offense (6th - 42.2 ppg). The unit powered the Falcons to the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title and an appearance in the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl.

Lynch's tutelage helped produce seven 2015 All-MAC selections on offense, including linemen Alex Huettel (second team) and Jacob Bennett (second team), and running back Travis Greene (first team). Huettel earned All-America honors from Phil Steele and was selected to participate in the 2016 East-West Shrine Game.

Before adding co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach to his duties, Lynch served as Bowling Green's running backs coach in 2014. That season, he mentored the trio of Greene, Fred Coppet and Andre Givens. The threesome combined for 2,192 yards and 26 touchdowns on the ground to help the Falcons capture the MAC East Division crown and win the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Lynch was an assistant coach from 2005-13 at Eastern Illinois. He spent his final two years at EIU as the running backs coach under Babers, mentoring two 1,000-yard rushers. All-Ohio Valley Conference honoree Jake Walker ran for 1,133 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2012. The following season, Shepard Little was named to the All-OVC First Team after rushing for 1,551 yards and 15 scores. Little ranked seventh nationally in rushing yardage and posted seven 100-yard games.

Most of Lynch's first six years at EIU were spent coaching the wide receivers. While in that position, he guided the career of 2006 All-American Micah Rucker and led several productive units, including a 2011 Panthers receiving corps that accounted for 20 of the team's 34 touchdowns.

Lynch got his first taste of coaching in 1999 as a restricted earnings coach at Montana. After a year with the Grizzlies, Lynch spent five seasons at Utah State. While with the Aggies, he coached three tight ends who signed with NFL teams. Chris Cooley, a two-time Pro Bowler, was the third-round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 2003 NFL Draft, while J.R. Suguturaga (Miami Dolphins) and Casey Poppinga (Pittsburgh Steelers) both signed free-agent contracts.

A Roseville, California native, Lynch was an offensive lineman for Sierra Junior College before finishing his collegiate career at Montana in 1997 and 1998. The Grizzlies combined to win 16 games with Lynch on the roster and reached the Divsion I-AA (now FCS) playoffs both seasons.

Lynch holds a bachelor's degree from Montana and a master's degree in secondary education from Utah State. He married the former Emily Schilling in June 2011. The couple has two children – Madison and Will.

BRIAN WARD

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers • Fourth Season

An experienced coach who has worked at every level of college football, Brian Ward was named the Orange's defensive coordinator in January 2016 and assumed the role of linebackers coach in 2017.

The rise of Syracuse's defense under Ward has been steady and the play of the unit contributed significantly to the Orange's breakthrough 10-3 campaign in 2018.

For the second year in a row, Syracuse ranked among the nation's best on third down. The Orange held their opponents to a 28.6 percent conversion rate, which ranked seventh in the FBS. Additionally, the Orange finished in the top 10 nationally in turnovers gained (3rd - 31), interceptions (5th - 18), fumbles recovered (5th - 13) and sacks (6th - 3.31 per game). The 31 takeaways helped Syracuse outscore its opponents 111-46 off turnovers, and the Orange's school-record 43 sacks ranked second in the country.

Syracuse's 2018 production marked the continuation of a climb that began in 2017 when Syracuse was one of the country's most improved defensive teams for the majority of the season. From 2016 to 2017, the Orange moved up 69 spots in the final NCAA statistical rankings in third-down defense, finishing 13th nationally at 31.1 percent. Syracuse also surrendered 6.4 fewer points, 28.3 fewer rushing yards and 57.1 fewer total yards per game than it did in 2016, earning Ward a Broyles Award nomination as college football's top assistant coach.

Individually, Ward's teaching helped Syracuse linebackers Parris Bennett, Zaire Franklin and Ryan Guthrie develop into all-conference players. Bennett recorded consecutive 100+ tackle seasons playing in Ward's scheme and signed as a free agent with the Green Bay Packers before retiring from football. Franklin finished his Syracuse career with more than 300 tackles and was selected by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2018 NFL Draft. Guthrie led the ACC in tackles (107) in 2018.

Before joining the Orange, Ward served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Bowling Green in 2015. He oversaw a defense that improved in several statistical categories from the previous year and featured two All-MAC selections at linebacker, including first-team honoree Austin Valdez. Ward also served as Bowling Green's head coach for the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl versus Georgia Southern.

Ward's defensive improvements were a major factor in Bowling Green winning the 2015 Mid-American Conference (MAC) title. The Falcons surrendered 4.6 fewer points and nearly 76 yards less of total offense per game than they did in 2014. In addition, Bowling Green moved up the NCAA statistical rankings in passing defense (up 44 spots), rushing defense (up 20 spots), scoring defense (from 106 to 84) and total defense (from 115 to 86). Bowling Green finished 13th nationally in turnovers gained (27) and eighth in interceptions (20). Valdez was the leader of the unit, racking up 144 tackles and ranking 10th in the FBS in tackles per game (10.3).

From 2012-14, Ward was the defensive coordinator at Western Illinois where he molded the Leathernecks into one of the top defenses in FCS football. Ward's 2013 unit ranked seventh in the nation in total defense (305.3 ypg) and third nationally in passing defense (149.0 ypg). The next year, the Leathernecks put on one of the most impressive defensive displays of the season against Wisconsin running back Melvin Gordon. Western Illinois held the Heisman Trophy finalist to 38 yards on 17 carries (2.2 avg.).

Before joining Western Illinois, Ward was the defensive coordinator at Drake in 2011 where he helped the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and the Pioneer Football League championship.

Ward's other previous coaching stops include: McPherson College (1997, 2007-09), Glendale Community College (1999-2000), Wabash College (2001-04), Missouri Southern State (2005) and North Dakota State (2010). He spent the 2006 season as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Tulsa Union High School in Oklahoma.

A 1997 graduate of McPherson College, Ward served as the head coach of his alma mater for three seasons from 2007-09, compiling a 17-14 (.548) record. In his final season, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-2 mark, the program's first berth in the NAIA national playoffs, and was named CollegeFanz.com Sports Network NAIA Coach of the Year. During his head-coaching tenure, the Bulldogs boasted seven All-Americans, two Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference (KCAC) Players of the Year, seven NAIA Scholar-Athletes and 39 All-KCAC selections.

Ward's additional coaching highlights include being named the 2002 AFCA Division III Assistant Coach of the Year while serving as the assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Wabash College. The Little Giants were undefeated during the 2002 regular season and reached the Division III quarterfinals, while leading the country in interceptions (25) and takeaways (43).

In 2003, Wabash ascended to No. 2 in the national polls. The Little Giants ranked among the top 10 nationally in total defense, rushing defense, and interceptions. In 2004, Ward's secondary set a Wabash season record by allowing just five touchdown passes.

As the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Glendale Community College in 1999 and 2000, Ward was the architect of a Vaqueros defense that helped the program win the 2000 NJCAA national title.

Ward holds a bachelor's degree in history from McPherson and a master's degree in organizational management from the University of Phoenix. He is married to the former Amy Brandseth. The couple have three children – Travis, Ellie and Erin.

MIKE CAVANAUGH

Offensive Line • Second Season

Mike Cavanaugh, who has spent nearly his entire coaching career mentoring offensive linemen, is in his second season as the Orange's offensive line coach. Cavanaugh owns 14 seasons of Power-Five experience and has developed a host of players who have gone on to successful NFL careers.

In addition to his 31 years of collegiate experience, Cavanaugh spent two seasons (1997-98) in the National Football League as an assistant offensive line and quality control coach with the San Diego Chargers.

Cavanaugh's influence was a key factor in the Orange's 2018 success. His work with the front five aided an Orange offense that lifted Syracuse to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory over West Virginia. Syracuse ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg), scored 50+ points a school-record five times and tallied 40+ points in eight out of 13 games. In addition, the Orange scored a school-record 523 points and generated more than 6,000 yards of total offense for the second time in program history.

Cavanaugh's presence paid immediate dividends in the run game. The Orange increased their rushing average by 37.7 yards per game from 2017 to 2018 and tallied a school-record 38 touchdowns on the ground. Two of Cavanaugh's charges – left tackle Cody Conway and right tackle Koda Martin – received 2018 All-ACC honors and signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams.

Before joining the Orange, Cavanaugh served as the offensive line coach from 2015-17 at Nebraska where his units were among the nation's best at protecting the passer. The Cornhuskers ranked in the top 15 in fewest sacks allowed in two of Cavanaugh's three seasons in Lincoln. In 2016, Nebraska surrendered 15 sacks to rank first in the Big Ten and 14th in the country, as the Huskers finished with an 8-4 record and advanced to the Music City Bowl.

The previous season, the Huskers gave up 14 sacks to rank second in the conference and ninth nationally. Cavanaugh's front five helped Nebraska finish in the top three of the Big Ten in scoring offense, passing offense, total offense and third-down percentage. The Huskers also generated 3,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards in the same season for just the third time in program history.

Prior to his Nebraska appointment, Cavanaugh spent 10 seasons (2005-14) as the offensive line coach at Oregon State where the performance of his unit led to record-setting offensive numbers and six bowl appearances. Behind the play of Cavanaugh's group, quarterback Sean Mannion, who completed his career in 2014, set single-season and career Pac-12 records for passing yards. Oregon State's offensive line also cleared the way for several all-conference runners, including Yvenson Bernard and Jacquizz Rodgers, who each produced three 1,000-yard seasons while Cavanaugh was in Corvallis.

Because of the Beavers' success, Cavanaugh's Oregon State players were regularly rewarded for their efforts. Andy Levitre, Jeremy Perry and Isaac Seumalo garnered All-America honors, while 23 of his players earned all-conference recognition. Levitre and Seumalo were among the several Beavers who played for Cavanaugh to be drafted into the NFL.

As the offensive line coach at Hawaii rom 1999-2004, Cavanaugh played a key role in directing some of college football's top offenses. The Warriors ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense three times in Cavanaugh's six seasons. His Hawaii units featured future pros Samson Satele, Adrian Klemm, Kynan Forney and Wayne Hunter, among others.

Before his stint at Hawaii, Cavanaugh made college coaching stops at Ferris State, Sacred Heart, Murray State, Alma College and Wesleyan College (Conn.).

A player at New Haven from 1981-82, Cavanaugh got his coaching start as a graduate assistant at Albany in 1986. That same year, he received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State.

Cavanaugh and his wife, Laurie, have two sons – Blair and Shane. Blair Cavanaugh is in his first season as the Orange's special teams quality control assistant.

RENO FERRI

Tight Ends/Inside Receivers • Fourth Season

A veteran coach with strong recruiting ties to New York, New Jersey and the Mid-Atlantic Region, Reno Ferri is in his fourth year with the Orange. He was named tight ends coach by Dino Babers in January 2016 and began overseeing the inside receivers in 2018.

Ferri's work has helped the Orange produce three of the four highest total offense seasons in program history, including the second 6,000-yard campaign in the Syracuse annals in 2018.

Last year, Ferri's units contributed to a record-setting offense that powered the Orange to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory against West Virginia. Syracuse tallied a program-best 523 points and tied the school record with 62 touchdowns. Ferri protégé Sean Riley led the team with 64 catches and ranked sixth in the ACC in receptions per game (4.9).

In 2017, Ferri's mentorship of tight end Ravian Pierce aided a Syracuse passing attack that ranked second in the ACC at 294.8 yards per game. Pierce caught 29 passes for 263 yards and four touchdowns, the most receptions for an Orange tight end since 2012.

Ferri came to Syracuse after spending the previous five seasons at Towson where he worked with the Tigers running backs, fullbacks and tight ends. He was also the Tigers recruiting coordinator from 2011-15.

In Ferri's three seasons as running backs coach, the Tigers averaged more than 230 yards rushing per game and posted an overall record of 29-10. Towson rushed for at least 200 yards 24 times during that span, topped the 300-yard mark on eight occasions, and went over 400 yards twice. In 2013, the Tigers ran for more than 240 yards per contest en route to a 13-3 record and an appearance in the FCS title game.

Under Ferri's guidance, the Tigers ground attack shattered virtually every school record. His 2013 stable of backs rushed for a school-record 3,830 yards and scored 55 touchdowns. In 2011, Ferri's first year leading the unit, the group averaged 229.9 yards per game, a mark that led the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA).

Individually, Ferri coached four Towson ball carriers who earned All-CAA honors and three FCS All-Americans. In 2013, former Baltimore Ravens running back Terrance West set the FCS season records for rushing yards (2,509) and rushing touchdowns (41). West received first-team All-America honors and was named the CAA Player of the Year.

As a freshman in 2011, West led the FCS with 29 rushing touchdowns, was tabbed the CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year, and captured the Jerry Rice Award as the top freshman in FCS football. West entered the NFL Draft after his junior year and was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the third round. Ferri pupils Tyler Wharton and Emmanuel Holder also earned All-America honors during that time, while Darius Victor was a 2013 freshman All-American and the 2013 CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Prior to his time at Towson, Ferri spent six seasons at Akron. He joined the Zips In 2004 as a graduate assistant coach for offense. The following year, he served as Akron's director of football operations and was part of a Zips staff that guided the team to the 2005 Mid-American Conference (MAC) title and a berth in the Motor City Bowl.

In 2006, Ferri was promoted to wide receivers coach. He worked with Jabari Arthur, who became an all-league performer, as well as freshman All-American David Harvey. Harvey led the MAC and ranked second nationally in kickoff return average (30.0).

In 2007, Ferri was named Akron's running backs coach, a position he held for three years. During that time, he mentored All-MAC selection Bryan Williams and Dennis Kennedy. In 2008, Kennedy ran for 1,321 yards, the third-best season rushing total in Akron history at the time, and set school season records for most rushing touchdowns (17) and most total touchdowns (18).

Ferri was Akron's recruiting coordinator from 2005 to 2009, leading the effort that resulted in Akron landing the No. 1 class in the MAC three years running from 2005-07.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Ferri is a 2000 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy. A three-year letterwinner at running back for the Black Knights, he was a member of the first Army West Point team to compete in Conference USA. As a rookie in 1996, Ferri was part of a nationally-ranked Black Knights squad that was 10-2 and played Auburn in the Independence Bowl.

After earning his bachelor's degree in general management with a minor in systems engineering, Ferri began his coaching career in 2000 as a graduate assistant at West Point.

A first lieutenant in the U.S. Army from May 2000 to March 2002, Ferri served as a fire direction officer and battalion survey officer. He also previously worked as a consultant for British Petroleum. A systems engineer, Ferri and his team designed and implemented a web-based tracking system for BP to monitor the 16,000 vessels responding to the Deep Water Horizon oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico.

Ferri and his wife, Rebekah, have four children – Giana, Zola, Sofie and Reno III.

KIRK MARTIN

Quarterbacks • Second Season

A highly-successful member of the coaching profession, Kirk Martin was named the Orange's quarterbacks coach in February 2018.

In his first season as a college coach, Martin trained Eric Dungey, who racked up 3,622 yards of offense and a school-record 33 touchdowns in 2018. The Orange offense was brilliant with Dungey at the controls, scoring a program-record 523 points and finishing 11th nationally in points per game (40.2) to lift Syracuse to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory over West Virginia. Dungey is currently a quarterback/tight end for the New York Giants.

Martin arrived at Syracuse after starting the football program at Houston's Manvel High School where he turned the Mavericks into a state powerhouse. In 10 seasons at Manvel, Martin posted a 108-25 (.812) record. Overall, he owns a career coaching mark of 115-39 (.747), which includes a two-year stint as the head coach at Alpine (Texas) High School.

Manvel won at least 11 games eight times under Martin. He led the Mavericks to six district titles, eight consecutive playoff appearances (2010-17) and state championship game berths in 2011 and 2017. In 2011, Martin earned Touchdown Club of Houston Coach of the Year honors after guiding Manvel to its first state title-game appearance. In 2017, Martin was named the Texan Live Coach of the Year. He led the Mavericks to a 14-1 record. that season. Their only loss was a 53-49 decision to Highland Park in the Class 5A Division I state championship game.

During Martin's tenure, Manvel produced dozens of players who went on to play college football at the FBS level, including quarterbacks D'Eriq King (Houston), Kyle Trask (Florida), Travaughn Colwell (New Mexico State), Dexter Foreman (Minnesota/Maryland) and his son, Kason Martin (North Texas).

A native of Quitaque, Texas, Martin began his coaching career in 1992 as an assistant coach at Cathedral High School in El Paso. His résumé also includes Texas high school stops as an assistant at Riverside, Alvin, Odessa Permian and Giddings.

In 2004, Martin was named athletic director and head football coach at Alpine High School. He coached two seasons there before being hired in January 2006 to build the Manvel program from scratch. He then spent two years preparing the Mavericks for their first season of competition in 2008.

A tight end and four-year letterwinner for UTEP, Martin holds a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the school and a master's degree in school administration from Sul Ross State.

Martin and his wife, Caren, have four children – Koda Martin, Cory Jo Martin, London Harris and Kason Martin. Koda Martin, London Harris and Kason Martin all played for their father at Manvel and continued their football careers in college. Koda Martin played the 2018 season at Syracuse after starting his career at Texas A&M. He signed a free-agent contract with the NFL's Los Angeles Chargers in April. London Harris is a linebacker at Texas State. Kason Martin is a second-year quarterback at North Texas. Martin's daughter, Cory Jo, is also a college athlete. She is a member of the Mary Hardin-Baylor volleyball team.

KIM McCLOUD

Cornerbacks • Fourth Season

With extensive experience coaching both sides of the football, Kim McCloud joined Dino Babers' staff in January 2016. After spending his first two seasons coaching Syracuse's receivers, McCloud shifted to defense in 2018 to mentor the Orange cornerbacks.

McCloud and Babers have worked together for 10 seasons. Before joining him at Syracuse, McCloud was Babers' defensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois (2012-13) and Bowling Green (2014). In 2015, McCloud was promoted to assistant head coach for the Falcons and coached the team's receivers. He and Babers first formed their working relationship as assistants at Baylor from 2008-10.

In 2018, McCloud coached a collection of corners who helped the Orange generate 18 interceptions – tied for the fifth-highest total in the FBS. The takeaways contributed to a 111-46 advantage in points off turnovers, as Syracuse went 10-3 and scored a 34-18 victory over West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl.

Prior to moving to defense, McCloud produced two All-Americans and three All-ACC performers in his two seasons coaching the Syracuse wide receivers. In 2016, McCloud's influence helped Amba Etta-Tawo become one of college football's breakout stars. Relatively unknown before arriving at Syracuse, Etta-Tawo set 10 school receiving records in his one year with the Orange and was named to four All-America teams.

In 2017, it was Steve Ishmael who took the nation by storm. Ishmael ranked second in the FBS in receptions per game (8.8) and total catches (105). He also finished in the top 10 in receiving yards per game (4th - 112.2) and total receiving yardage (7th - 1,347). Ishmael earned nine separate All-America honors, including second-team recognition from NCAA consensus selectors the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and Sporting News.

Ishmael formed one half of Syracuse's dynamic 2017 receiving duo. Partner Ervin Philips also benefited from McCloud's expertise. Philips caught 179 of his school-record 223 passes in two seasons working with McCloud. A 2017 All-ACC Second Team performer and the Walter Camp Connecticut Player of the Year, Philips ranked in the top 10 nationally in receptions per game as both a junior and senior.

Syracuse wasn't the first program to see its receivers excel under McCloud's direction. In 2015, McCloud's work helped Bowling Green wideouts Roger Lewis (first team), Gehrig Dieter (second team) and Ronnie Moore (third team) earn All-MAC honors. Lewis was an unstoppable force. He ranked second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown receptions (16) and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3) on his way to FWAA (second team) and Associated Press (third team) All-America recognition.

Before his stint coaching the BGSU receivers, McCloud was the architect of the team's hard-hitting defense. His 2014 unit forced 33 turnovers in 14 games (2.4 avg.) to help the Falcons win the Mid-American Conference (MAC) East Division title and defeat South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl. The unit featured former Arizona Cardinals linebacker Gabe Martin, who recorded 115 tackles and led the MAC with 18 tackles for loss.

At Eastern Illinois, McCloud was part of Babers' staff that turned around a struggling Panthers program. After successive 2-9 records before the staff's arrival, Eastern Illinois improved to 7-5 in 2012 and went 12-2 in 2013. The Panthers won the Ohio Valley Conference title and made the FCS playoffs both years, including finishing with the No. 3 national ranking in 2013. McCloud's schemes resulted in a 2013 Panther defense that led the FCS in fumble recoveries (23), gained 37 turnovers, and ranked sixth nationally in turnover margin (+14).

Prior to reuniting with Babers at EIU, McCloud served as an assistant coach at Akron (2011), Baylor (2008-10), Nevada (2000-07) and Idaho (1998-99). At Baylor, McCloud helped the Bears to the 2010 Texas Bowl and coached two All-Big 12 safeties in Byron Lander and Jordan Lake, while also working as the defensive recruiting coordinator.

Before moving to Waco, McCloud was an assistant at Nevada for eight seasons, including seven years as the Wolf Pack's secondary coach. Nevada made three straight bowl appearances and won the 2006 Western Athletic Conference title in McCloud's final three years on the staff. He coached a pair of All-WAC performers at Nevada, including receiver Nichiren Flowers, who ranked second in the WAC with 91 receptions in 2004.

A Los Angeles, California native, McCloud was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Hawaii, earning honorable mention All-WAC honors at defensive back. He signed as a free agent with the San Diego Chargers in 1991 and played two seasons (1991-92) in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Following his playing career, McCloud broke into coaching at Kaiser High School in Honolulu. He worked as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1997, helping the Tigers earn an invitation to the Holiday Bowl.

In 1998, McCloud joined the staff at Idaho as a cornerbacks coach where he helped the Vandals win the Big West Conference and defeat Southern Miss in the Humanitarian Bowl.

A 1991 Hawaii graduate, McCloud and his wife, Renée, are the parents of two children – Kaleb and Rachel.

NICK MONROE

Safeties/Nickelbacks • Fourth Season

Nick Monroe, who has won conference championships at each of his previous coaching stops, is in his fourth year with the Orange. He joined the staff in 2016 and served as Syracuse's secondary coach for two seasons before narrowing his focus to the Orange's safeties and nickelbacks in 2018.

In his first season in his current role, Monroe directed a Syracuse pass defense that ranked fifth nationally in interceptions (18) and helped the Orange finish seventh in the FBS in third-down defense (.286). Monroe's unit was directly responsible for 11 interceptions, including a nation-leading seven by freshman free safety Andre Cisco. The takeaways contributed to a 111-46 advantage in points off turnovers for the Orange, as they went 10-3 and defeated West Virginia in the 2018 Camping World Bowl. Cisco was recognized as one of the top safeties in America. He was voted the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and became the first true freshman in program history to earn All-America honors.

Monroe's initial two Syracuse seasons were spent instilling the program's defensive principles to a developing secondary. In 2017, the work began paying dividends. The Orange defensive backfield aided a unit that ranked 13th nationally in third-down defense (.311), while allowing 6.4 fewer points and 57.1 fewer total yards per game than the previous year.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Monroe worked as the secondary coach at Bowling Green from 2010-15. He consistently produced units that ranked among the nation's best and helped the Falcons capture two Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles and earn four straight bowl invitations. Monroe's guidance also helped turn Jude Adjei-Barimah into a contributor in the National Football League. A defensive back for Bowling Green from 2011-14, Adjei-Barimah played 23 games (eight starts) for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2015-16.

When Monroe arrived at Bowling Green in 2010, he inherited an inexperienced unit that featured four new starters. In two seasons, he molded them into one of the stingiest defensive backfields in the country. Featuring All-MAC performers BooBoo Gates and Cameron Truss, the 2012 Falcons ranked 13th nationally in pass defense (190.1 ypg) to help propel the team to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Military Bowl.

The following season, the Bowling Green secondary was even better. The Falcons finished sixth in the FBS against the pass (170.9 ypg) and Gates earned All-MAC First Team honors for the second year in a row. As a team, Bowling Green won its first conference championship since 1992 and played Pittsburgh in the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

In 2014, Monroe's first season working for Dino Babers, he successfully oversaw the maturation of safety Brian Sutton and the development of two young cornerbacks. Sutton's production skyrocketed from the previous season. He finished second on the team with 102 tackles after making 43 stops the year before. In addition, rookie cornerbacks Nick Johnson and Clint Stephens combined for nine interceptions. The unit also featured Adjei-Barimah, who recorded 82 tackles.

The quartet of Sutton, Johnson, Stephens and Adjei-Barimah was critical to Bowling Green's success, as the Falcons won the 2014 MAC East title and defeated South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

In 2015, Bowling Green posted a 10-4 record, won the MAC title for the second time in three seasons, and earned a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl. Monroe's defensive backfield once again helped the Falcons soar, finishing eighth in the FBS with 20 interceptions, including a team-high six picks by cornerback Alfonso Mack.

Before his stint at Bowling Green, Monroe coached defense for six years at Colgate University. He coached the defensive ends from 2004-05 before moving to secondary coach in 2006. In 2009, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and helped implement a scheme that stymied the opposition. The Raiders led the Patriot League and finished 29th nationally in total defense (308.2 ypg) that year. Colgate was 9-2 and held seven of its opponents to 20 points or less. Monroe also served as the team's recruiting coordinator for five seasons.

In his last three years as the Colgate secondary coach, Monroe mentored four first-team All-Patriot League selections (Uzi Idah, Wayne Moten, Chris Ekpo, Cody Williams) and one second-team honoree (Moten). In addition, defensive back Demitri Diamond was named 2009 Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League titles (2005, 2008) while Monroe was on the staff and made two Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff appearances.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Monroe was the secondary coach in 2002 and 2003 at Allegheny College in Meadville, Pennsylvania. He helped the Gators capture the 2003 North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) championship and earn a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Monroe was a four-year letterwinner at cornerback for St. Cloud State University in Minnesota. He earned his undergraduate degree in marketing from the school in 2001.

Nick and his wife, Nicole, have a son, Wyatt.

VINSON REYNOLDS

Defensive Tackles • Fourth Season

A dynamic recruiter and teacher, Vinson Reynolds was named the Orange's defensive line coach in January 2016 and began coaching the defensive tackles exclusively in 2017.

Reynolds' mentorship of Syracuse's trenchmen has been a primary factor in the program's rapid rise on defense over the last two seasons.

In 2017, Reynolds coached a group of interior linemen who helped the Orange finish 13th nationally in third-down defense (.311). The performance of Reynolds' unit contributed to a Syracuse defense that allowed 6.4 fewer points, 28.3 fewer rushing yards and 57.1 fewer total yards per game than it did in 2016.

The Orange continued its growth in 2018. Syracuse ranked in the top 10 nationally in five defensive categories, including turnovers gained (3rd - 31), fumbles recovered (5th - 13) and sacks (6th - 3.31 per game). The performance helped spur the Orange to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory over West Virginia. Reynolds protégé Chris Slayton shined as the anchor of the front seven. Slayton earned an invitation to the East-West Shrine game and was selected by the New York Giants in the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his time with the Orange, Reynolds has also made his mark on the recruiting trail. Reynolds has used his Midwest connections to open a pipeline to Syracuse from that region, particularly from the state of Michigan. He also served as the primary recruiting coach for ESPN 300 quarterback and New Jersey native Tommy DeVito.

Reynolds joined the Orange after serving as the defensive line coach at Western Michigan from 2013-15. At WMU, he was part of a staff that engineered one of the most impressive turnarounds in FBS history. Reynolds and the WMU coaches transformed the Broncos from a 1-11 team in 2012 into a program that earned consecutive bowl berths in 2014 and 2015. The 2015 Broncos were 8-5 and defeated Middle Tennessee 45-31 in the Bahamas Bowl, the first bowl victory in school history.

In 2014, Reynolds directed a Western Michigan defensive line that recorded 17 of the team's 29 sacks. The unit was part of a Broncos defense that finished third in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in points allowed per game. Reynolds also was recognized for his recruiting prowess that year. Rivals.com named him to its list of the top 10 recruiters from schools outside the Power Five and American Athletic Conference (formerly known as the Big Six). That year Reynolds helped solidify, what was at the time, the website's highest-ranked class (No. 58) in MAC history.

Prior to his three-year stint in Kalamazoo, Reynolds mentored the defensive linemen at Central Michigan where he helped the Chippewas to a win over Western Kentucky in the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. The group included Buffalo Bills defensive end Leterrius Walton, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Before making the move to CMU, Reynolds was the defensive line coach at Central Oklahoma in 2010. He also previously worked as a graduate assistant and defensive quality control coach at Oklahoma State for head coach Mike Gundy. Oklahoma State made appearances in the 2008 Holiday Bowl and 2010 Cotton Bowl while Reynolds was on the OSU staff.

Reynolds started his coaching career in 2006 as the defensive line coach at Division III University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Reynolds has completed two NFL internships. In 2015, he gained critical coaching skills and perspective with the Baltimore Ravens under John Harbaugh. During the summer of 2016, Reynolds worked with head coach Chuck Pagano and the staff of the Indianapolis Colts.

A Detroit, Michigan native, Reynolds played his college football at Northern Illinois from 2000-03. He was named to the All-MAC First Team at defensive end as a senior after totaling 76 tackles, including 15 for a loss, and six sacks.

Reynolds earned his undergraduate degree from Northern Illinois in 2004. He received his master's degree in adult education from Wisconsin-Platteville in 2007.

Reynolds and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons – Eric Coley, Josiah Reynolds and Jeremiah Reynolds. Eric Coley is a redshirt sophomore defensive back for the Orange.

STEVE STANARD

Defensive Ends • Third Season

A veteran coach with more than 30 years of experience, including 20 seasons as a defensive coordinator, Steve Stanard is in his third season as Syracuse's defensive ends coach.

Stanard's work with the Orange's edge rushers has been a key component to Syracuse's rapid defensive rise the last two seasons. In 2017, Stanard mentored a young group of players, including team sack leader Alton Robinson, who helped the Orange rank 13th nationally in third-down defense (.311). The performance of Stanard's crew contributed to a unit that allowed 6.4 fewer points, 28.3 fewer rushing yards and 57.1 fewer total yards per game than it did in 2016.

The 2018 campaign yielded even better results. Syracuse ranked in the top 10 nationally in five statistical categories, including sacks per game (6th - 3.31). Robinson developed into a All-ACC Second Team performer and combined with position-mate Kendall Coleman to produce 20 sacks – the most of any ACC duo. Both players led the conference and tied for eighth nationally in sacks per game (0.83).

Overall, Stanard's unit was responsible for 29 of Syracuse's school-record 43 sacks to help the Orange to a 10-3 record and the 2018 Camping World Bowl Championship.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff, Stanard served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wyoming under head coach Craig Bohl from 2014-16. Stanard also worked for Bohl in 2012 and 2013 as the linebackers coach at North Dakota State. During Stanard's two years with the Bison, NDSU went 29-1 and captured consecutive FCS national titles. In addition to his successful FCS playoff runs at NDSU, Stanard's postseason experience includes six bowl games and an NAIA national playoff appearance.

Stanard's Wyoming defenses featured three players who earned All-Mountain West honors – defensive end Eddie Yarbrough, safety Andrew Wingard and linebacker Lucas Wacha. Wingard was named to the FWAA Freshman All-America First Team in 2015. The next year, Stanard protégé Logan Wilson led all conference rookies in tackles per game (6.7) and was voted the 2016 Mountain West Freshman of the Year. Stanard's unit helped Wyoming to a berth in the 2016 Mountain West title game and to an appearance in the Poinsettia Bowl opposite BYU. The Cowboys ranked third nationally with five defensive touchdowns and were 10th in the country in takeaways (27).

At NDSU, Stanard's work with the linebackers contributed to the Bison boasting the nation's top-ranked scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013. NDSU allowed 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per contest the following year. In 2013, the Bison also ranked third in the FCS in total defense (255.9 ypg), second in passing efficiency defense (97.59 rating), third in rushing defense (91.3 ypg) and eighth in passing defense (164.6 ypg). That season, Stanard coached Grant Olson, who was named a third-team All-American by the Associated Press.

In 2012, not only did the Bison lead the FCS in scoring defense, but NDSU was No. 1 in total defense (234.5 ypg) and first downs allowed per game (12.7).

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes running defenses at five schools in addition to Wyoming. He spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07), three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the defensive coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95).

In addition to his two decades as a coordinator, Stanard served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008. He coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers from 1997-99 at New Mexico State before being named the Aggies' defensive coordinator in 2000.

Highlights from Stanard's previous stops include Tulane, where the Green Wave led Conference USA in passing defense in two out of his three seasons there. At Colorado State, he helped the Rams to two bowl appearances, coached four defenders to All-Mountain West First or Second Team honors, and another 24 to All-MW Honorable Mention recognition.

At New Mexico State, Stanard mentored linebackers Dwayne Taylor and Jimmy Cottrell. Taylor was a three-time all-conference selection. Taylor went on to play in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders and Montreal Alouettes.

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, under legendary head coach Tom Osborne. A linebacker for the Huskers from 1984-87, Stanard saw Nebraska earn seven bowl invitations during his time in Lincoln as both a coach and student-athlete.

After a three-year stint with the Huskers, Stanard received his first full-time job in 1991 coaching at Nebraska Wesleyan. He served as the school's defensive coordinator, and later, head coach and assistant athletic director.

Stanard earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989. He received his master's degree in business administration from the school in 1995.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children – Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

SEAN EDINGER

Assistant AD/Athletic Performance • Fourth Season

Sean Edinger is in his fourth year as the football program's assistant athletics director for athletic performance. Appointed to the position in January 2016, Edinger is responsible for designing programs to increase the conditioning, speed, strength and agility of Syracuse's football student-athletes.

Edinger's work has led to dramatically improved results in the team's performance testing. In February 2019, a total of 17 Orange players ran sub-4.6 in the 40-yard dash, compared to four when Edinger first arrived. The team's strength gains have been equally impressive. Thirty-five players squatted at least 500 pounds in 2019, up from 14 Edinger's first year. On the bench press, 18 were able to lift more than 350 pounds compared to 10 in 2016.

Syracuse's increased strength and speed have translated onto the football field, as the Orange recorded their first 10-win season in 17 years in 2018.

Prior to joining the Orange, Edinger served as the director of strength and conditioning at Bowling Green for two seasons, overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for BGSU's 18 sports. Edinger previously held a similar position at Eastern Illinois from June 2012 until 2014 when he accompanied Dino Babers to Bowling Green.

Before his stint at Eastern Illinois, Edinger was the head strength coach at Central Missouri. Edinger was directly responsible for all aspects of the Mules strength and conditioning program. He also previously worked as the head strength coach for football and volleyball at Haskell Indian Nations University in Lawrence, Kansas in 2008.

A graduate assistant at Missouri for two seasons, Edinger worked with the Tigers volleyball and tennis teams. He also assisted with the football strength and conditioning program, helping players prepare for pro days and professional combines.

Edinger has trained a host of collegiate standouts and players who have gone on to play professional football. Since Edinger got to Syracuse, 15 Orange players have signed NFL contracts, including draft picks Zaire Franklin and Chris Slayton.

At Central Missouri, Edinger worked with quarterback Eric Czerniewski, who won the 2010 Harlon Hill Trophy as the top player in Division II football. Edinger's stint at Eastern Illinois included coaching current San Francisco 49ers quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo and record-setting receiver Erik Lora. NFL receivers Gehrig Dieter, Roger Lewis, linebacker Gabe Martin and 2015 Mid-American Conference (MAC) Player of the Year Matt Johnson are just of few of Edinger's successful Bowling Green protégés.

Edinger is a 2006 graduate of the University of Kansas. He earned his master's degree from Missouri in 2008. Edinger is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Sports Performance certification. A member of the U.S. National Karate Team for five years, Edinger has more than 30 years of experience in the martial arts.

Sean Edinger and Dino Babers have worked together since 2012 when Babers was hired as the head coach at Eastern Illinois.

KEITH CATON

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Keith Caton joined the Orange staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in January 2018. Caton came to Syracuse after serving as the director of athletic performance for football at Indiana from 2016-17.

Caton has worked 15 bowl games in his career, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl in his first season with the Orange.

Overall, Caton has 19 years of experience in the profession with additional stops at Baylor (2012-15), Western Kentucky (2011-12), Missouri (2005-10), Elon (2003-04), Auburn (2001-03) and Southern Miss (1999-2001).

Prior to his arrival in Bloomington, Caton was Baylor's director of football athletic performance. The Bears posted a 40-12 record in his four seasons, including three straight 10-win campaigns.

At Western Kentucky, Caton worked with football and led all aspects of the strength and conditioning programs for baseball and track & field.

Caton was named assistant strength and conditioning director at Missouri in August 2005. In addition, he served as the director of the Mizzou Performance Club. He assisted with football and led the design and implementation of the strength and conditioning programs for baseball and wrestling.

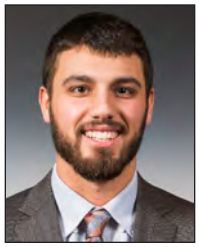
In January 2004, Caton was promoted to head strength and conditioning coach at Elon, where he oversaw the development of all varsity sports.

Caton graduated from Auburn with an educational specialist degree in 2003. While there, he assisted with football, baseball, softball and oversaw equestrian.

A four-year player for Southern Miss from 1995-99, Caton helped the Golden Eagles to two bowl appearances. He remained at the school after his playing days as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant from June 1999 to May 2001. Caton received his undergraduate degree in exercise physiology from Southern Miss in 1999. He earned his master's degree in coaching and sports administration in 2001.

In 2016, Caton was awarded the title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), the highest honor in the profession. He is SCCC certified and also holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Sports Performance certification.

A Mobile, Alabama native, Caton and his wife, Adriene, have three children – Kade, Weslie and Kole.



DAVID SCORZELLI

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

David Scorzelli has been a member of the Syracuse football strength and conditioning staff since 2016. He was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in February 2018 after serving as an intern for the program for two seasons.

Prior to joining the Orange, Scorzelli was a speed/strength and conditioning intern for Coastal Carolina in 2015. There he worked with Chanticleer football, men's basketball and volleyball student-athletes. Scorzelli educated them on appropriate training, exercise techniques and assisted them with recovery modalities.

A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Scorzelli graduated from Harding University with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports sciences. In 2019, Scorzelli received his SCCC certification from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa).

SEAN TETER

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Sean Teter was named an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in February 2018. He came to Syracuse after serving as the head strength and conditioning coordinator at Central Missouri for six years.

At Central Missouri, Teter was responsible for implementing the strength and conditioning programs for all 17 of the Mules intercollegiate athletic programs. He directly supervised football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's golf, wrestling and bowling.

Teter worked with two national championship teams during his stint in Warrensburg. The Mules men's basketball team captured the NCAA Division II title in 2014 and the Jennies women's soccer team won it all in 2017.

Teter joined the Central Missouri staff in December of 2010 as a graduate assistant in strength and conditioning before leading the department.

Prior to working at Central Missouri, Teter was a strength and conditioning intern at MidAmerica Nazarene University in Olathe, Kan.

A two-year football letterman at Butler Community College, Teter transferred to Kansas and earned his bachelor's degree in sports science from the school in 2010. He graduated from Central Missouri with a master's degree in physical education in 2016.

Teter is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Sports Performance certification.

DAN WEBB

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

A strength and conditioning intern during the 2018 season, Dan Webb was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in the spring of 2019.

Webb previously worked as the director of strength and conditioning for the Akron football program from 2012-14. He spent the 2011 season as a graduate assistant for the Zips.

From 2008-10, Webb was a member of the strength and conditioning staff at Michigan, serving one year as an intern and two seasons as an assistant coach. During that time he worked with student-athletes from multiple sports, including football, men's ice hockey and wrestling.

Prior to joining the Akron staff in 2011, Webb was on staff at Strength In Motion in Syracuse. In that role, he taught proper Olympic lifting techniques, nutrition and customized training programs. Among the athletes he trained were select members of the Orange men's basketball team.

Webb has a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and fitness development from SUNY Cortland and a master's degree in sport science and coaching from Akron. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

BRAD WITTKE

Director of Operations

Brad Wittke was named Syracuse's director of football operations in January of 2016 after serving in the same capacity for head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green in 2015.

Wittke is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Orange program, including budget management, capital projects, travel, meals and the team calendar. He has a role in most non-coaching decisions and serves as director for the Dino Babers Summer Football Camp series.

In December 2018, Wittke was in charge of logistics for Syracuse's appearance in the Camping World Bowl. He oversaw all details and arrangements for the players, staff, student staff and staff families when the team shifted its operations from Syracuse to Orlando, Fla. for the final week of game preparation. Those responsibilities included coordinating travel, hotel accommodations, meals, practices and the team's participation in bowl-sponsored events.

For more than a year, Wittke worked closely with Nike to design the uniforms the Orange will debut in 2019. Together, Wittke and Nike conducted extensive research to create a design that combines the rich history of Syracuse football with Nike's advanced performance technology to ensure the Orange are outfitted with the best uniforms and apparel available.

During Wittke's tenure, he has led several major projects to enhance Syracuse's football facilities. Wittke oversaw the upgrades made to the surfaces of the Ben Schwartzwalder and Maury Katz Practice Fields. He also led the redesign of multiple areas utilized by the Orange players and staff, including the player lounge, Ferguson Auditorium, parts of the Michael M. Bill '58 Locker Room, the weight room and the Ensley Athletic Center.

Wittke's stint at Bowling Green marked his return to the college ranks after three seasons in the front office of the Arena Football League's Pittsburgh Power. Before joining the Power, Wittke gained collegiate team operations experience at both Eastern Illinois and Arizona State.

While at Arizona State, Wittke served as an operations assistant for the men's basketball program. His responsibilities included film exchange, high school relations, recruiting travel and other duties.

At Eastern Illinois, Wittke was a graduate assistant for New Student Programs. Late in his time there, Wittke became a football scouting assistant where he aided in film analysis of future opponents and self scouting. Wittke also worked as an intern for PlayNextLevel.com while in Charleston.

Wittke began his Arena Football League tenure as an operations assistant with the Power shortly after the conclusion of the 2011 season. He assisted on all projects related to football operations, gameday experience and player personnel. He also coordinated travel and player accommodations.

The following year, Wittke was promoted to director of player personnel. He oversaw all decisions related to the recruitment and signing of players from July 2012 through the 2014 season. In that position, Wittke expanded the organization's scouting and recruitment initiatives and retooled a roster that improved by 11 wins from 2013 to 2014.

A 2009 Arizona State graduate with a degree in management, Wittke holds a master's degree in sport administration from Eastern Illinois.

Wittke and his wife, Jane, reside in Clay. They are expecting their first child in July 2019.

Wittke's father, Roy, is the Orange football program's director of player development.

ROY WITTKE

Director of Player Development

A fixture in college football for four decades, Roy Wittke was named Syracuse's director of player development in January 2016. Wittke acts as the liaison between the program and various University personnel, including the Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. He oversees the team's community outreach programs and serves as advisor to the Syracuse University chapter of Uplifting Athletes.

During Wittke's tenure, the Orange received AFCA Academic Honorable Mention status each season until the AFCA discontinued the recognition in 2018. Additionally, the team earned the 2016-17 'Cuse Cares Award for its outstanding commitment to community service. Uplifting Athletes was also recognized during the 2017-18 academic year, winning the University's Orange Circle Award for extraordinary service to others. On an individual level, linebacker Kielan Whitner was voted to the 2018 AFCA Allstate Good Works Team for his dedication to community service and enriching the lives of others. Syracuse also boasted finalists for the Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Award in both 2018 (Zack Mahoney) and 2019 (Sam Heckel). Whitner, Heckel and Mahoney all received the ACC's Top Six for Service Award.

Prior to joining the Orange, Wittke was Bowling Green's recruiting coordinator (2015) and director of operations (2014) under head coach Dino Babers.

Before making the transition from coach to administrator, Wittke spent 33 years on the sidelines. He coached 19 seasons at Eastern Illinois, 17 of which were spent as the offensive coordinator in two separate stints for head coach Bob Spoo.

As the architect of the Panthers offense from 1990-2002, Wittke helped EIU win 82 games and make five FCS playoff appearances. He is best known for developing former Dallas Cowboys Pro Bowl quarterback Tony Romo during that period. Under Wittke's direction, Romo was named Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year three times and captured the 2002 Walter Payton Award as the best player in Division I-AA. Wittke was honored as the AFCA Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year in Romo's senior season of 2002, as the Panthers ranked fourth in the nation in scoring (35.3 ppg) and fifth in total offense (452.6 ypg).

Wittke coached 14 players who earned All-America honors and numerous all-league selections in both the Ohio Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference during his first stint at EIU. In addition, three of his offensive units ranked among the top five in EIU single-season history for both total offense and scoring.

After the 2002 season, Wittke worked as the offensive coordinator at Arkansas from 2003-05. He spent one season each at Arizona State (2006) and Northern Illinois (2007). In 2003, he helped the Razorbacks to the Independence Bowl. Wittke coached in the 2006 Hawaii Bowl with Arizona State.

Wittke returned to Eastern Illinois as offensive coordinator in 2008. His second go around with the Panthers included tutoring another NFL quarterback – Jimmy Garoppolo. The second-round pick of the New England Patriots in 2014, Garoppolo earned Ohio Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year honors in 2010 despite only eight starts. He continued his development under Wittke in 2011 and, like Romo, eventually went on to win the Walter Payton Award as the top FCS player as a senior in 2014.

After the 2011 season, Wittke made the move to administration, serving as EIU's director of operations under Babers from 2012-13.

In addition to his stops at Eastern Illinois, Arkansas and Northern Illinois, Wittke's coaching résumé includes stints at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1979-81), Montana State (1982-84) and Central Missouri State (1985-89).

Wittke is a 1982 graduate of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He and his wife, Patty, have three children – sons Brad and Jeff, and daughter Bekah. Brad Wittke is Syracuse's director of football operations.

KRAMER COOK

Director of Recruiting Operations

Kramer Cook was promoted to director of recruiting operations in October 2018. Cook joined the Orange staff as a recruiting quality control assistant in November 2016 and served as Syracuse's assistant director of recruiting before assuming his current position.

Together, Cook and Director of Player Personnel Landan Salem are in charge of Syracuse's efforts to identify and attract the nation's top football prospects.

Before his arrival in Central New York, Cook served as the football recruiting and technology analyst at Coastal Carolina. He was elevated to that position in July 2016 after working as the Chanticleers' senior recruiting and technology intern for a year. In those roles, Cook coordinated the program's on-campus recruiting efforts, managed official visits for prospective student-athletes, and gave tours to recruits and their families. Additionally, he implemented a comprehensive training program for incoming freshmen to aid their development as student-athletes. He also oversaw the social media content for the Chanticleers' Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat accounts.

Prior to his time at Coastal Carolina, Cook was a graduate assistant coach at Robert Morris University in Chicago. From 2013-14, he worked with the team's defensive line and kickers. Cook also assisted in the development of rush schemes and game plans for the Eagles, who boasted the top-ranked rushing defense in the NAIA in 2014 (75.8 ypg). Cook organized the scout team offense each week and served as the team's head of recruitment for all junior-college prospects.

Cook graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in coaching. In addition, he holds two graduate degrees from Robert Morris, one in sport administration and the other in business administration.

LANDAN SALEM

Director of Player Personnel

Landan Salem is in his second season as Syracuse's director of player personnel. Salem works closely with Director of Recruiting Operations Kramer Cook to execute recruiting strategies designed to attract the nation's top prospects.

Salem came to Syracuse from Florida Atlantic, where he served as the program's pro liaison and director of player personnel in 2017. During his one season with the Owls, Florida Atlantic finished 11-3, won the Conference USA title and defeated Akron in the Boca Raton Bowl.

In addition to Florida Atlantic, Salem's previous college experience includes stops at NC State, Pittsburgh, Michigan State and Illinois.

Prior to a brief stint as the assistant director of player personnel at NC State, Salem served as Pittsburgh's director of video scouting and summer camps from 2015-16. He oversaw the player evaluation process for the Panthers and facilitated the recruiting schedule for coaches. In 2014, Salem worked as a recruiting assistant at Michigan State. He spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons at Illinois as a player personnel and special teams assistant.

Salem gained NFL experience in the summer of 2013 as an operations intern with the Indianapolis Colts. He also interned with the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League in 2011.

A 2014 graduate of Illinois, Salem holds a bachelor's degree in agricultural finance.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

KATIE BERARDI

Administrative Assistant for Dino Babers

Katie Berardi became the administrative assistant for head coach Dino Babers in August 2016. She is the primary liaison between Babers and Syracuse University staff, faculty, administration, the business community and the general public.

Prior to her current appointment, Berardi worked as the football program's office coordinator from 2007-16. She managed the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provided administrative support to assistant coaches, the director of player development, the assistant athletics director for athletic performance and the director of football operations. Berardi also served as a liaison with NFL scouting departments and the NCAA Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Berardi is a Syracuse University alumna. She received her bachelor's degree from the school in 2006.

Katie and her husband, John, reside in Jamesville with their son, Giovanni.

LAURENE PORILLO

Administrative Specialist for Recruiting

As the administrative specialist for football recruiting, Laurene Porillo supports the coaching staff in its efforts to attract the best possible talent to Syracuse University. She helps maintain the recruiting database and assists in the coordination of official and unofficial visits. Porillo also serves as the liaison with incoming student-athletes and their families during the admissions process.

Porillo, who joined the football staff in 2003, received her associate's degree from SUNY Canton. Prior to joining the football office, Porillo held various administrative positions in the legal, business and real estate fields.

She and her husband, Nick, reside in Liverpool. They have two children, Matthew and Meghan.

SARA SCHIAVONE

Office Coordinator

Sara Schiavone joined the football administrative staff as office coordinator in September 2016. In her role, she manages the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provides administrative support to the assistant coaches and the director of player development.

Schiavone started in the Syracuse Department of Athletics in 2012. She worked as a tutor, instructional assistant, and front-desk assistant for Student-Athlete Support Services prior to her current appointment.

Schiavone is a South Carolina alumna. She earned her bachelor's degree in 2010 and her Master of Public Health degree in 2012.

COREY CARPENTER

Quality Control (Recruiting)

Corey Carpenter joined the Orange staff as a recruiting quality control assistant in March 2018. Carpenter aids in the program's efforts to identify and attract the nation's top high-school prospects.

Carpenter's previous experience includes an 11-month stint from March 2015 to February 2016 as a recruiting assistant for the Louisville football program. Carpenter's duties for the Cardinals included evaluating film of prospects, organizing and maintaining the program's recruiting database, planning Junior Days and creating itineraries for official visits.

In addition to his work with the Cardinals, Carpenter previously coached high school football at two Louisville-area high schools. He was the quarterbacks coach from 2013-14 at DuPont Manual High School. In 2016 and 2017, he served as the offensive coordinator for Waggener High School where he directed an offense that averaged more than 30 points a game during his two seasons.

A standout quarterback in high school, Carpenter received a scholarship to attend Lindsey Wilson College. He played one season for the Blue Raiders before injuring his shoulder.

Carpenter graduated with a bachelor's degree in sport administration from Louisville in 2015.

BLAIR CAVANAUGH

Quality Control (Special Teams)

Blair Cavanaugh joined the Orange staff in February 2019. The son of Syracuse offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh, Blair is in his first season as the Orange's quality control coach for special teams.

Before coming to Syracuse, Cavanaugh was a graduate assistant at Ball State from 2017-18. He helped coach the Cardinals wide receivers, including 2018 All-MAC selections Riley Miller and Justin Hall. Cavanaugh also made a brief stop at Nebraska as an offensive staff volunteer.

Cavanaugh played his college football at Portland State and Oregon State. A wide receiver, Cavanaugh began his career with Oregon State and was a member of OSU's 2012 Alamo Bowl and 2013 Hawaii Bowl teams. In 2012, he was named Oregon State's Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year. Cavanaugh played his final two seasons at Portland State and helped the Vikings to the 2015 FCS playoffs.

Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Portland State in 2016.

DAVID GETTIS

Quality Control (Offense)

Former NFL receiver David Gettis is in his second year as a quality control coach for the Orange. Gettis played two seasons for the Carolina Panthers and also spent time with the Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers during his pro career.

A collegiate standout at Baylor from 2006-09, Gettis was tutored by Syracuse head coach Dino Babers for two seasons when Babers was Baylor's wide receivers coach.

Gettis finished his college career ranked seventh at Baylor in career receiving yards (1,555), tied for eighth all-time in receptions (116) and eighth in career kick return average (22.7).

A 2009 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention choice, Gettis was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft. He played a combined 17 games for the Panthers from 2010-12. As a rookie in 2010, he tallied 37 receptions for 508 yards and a team-high three touchdown catches. He also returned eight kickoffs for 145 yards.

In 2015, Gettis returned to Baylor to complete his undergraduate degree and spent the 2015 football season as a student coach for the Bears. He worked as a graduate assistant on Coach Jim Grobe's Baylor staff the following year.

Gettis received his first full-time coaching job in 2017, serving as the wide receivers coach for the University of Texas Permian Basin.

A native of Los Angeles, California, Gettis holds a bachelor's degree in health, kinesiology and leisure studies from Baylor.

TRAVIS GREENE

Graduate Assistant (Offense)

The all-time leading rusher at Bowling Green, Travis Greene is in second season as a graduate assistant at Syracuse. Greene joined the Orange in February 2018 as an offensive quality control coach before shifting to his current position.

Greene played three seasons at running back for Bowling Green. He rushed for a school-record 3,852 yards, including 1,299 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior captain in 2015 to help the Falcons capture the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title in their second year under Dino Babers. Greene previously set the Bowling Green single-season rushing record with 1,594 yards in 2013.

A two-time All-MAC selection, Greene helped the Falcons to two conference titles, three MAC championship game appearances, and a victory in the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl. He was voted MVP of the 2015 league championship game after running for a career-high 183 yards and two touchdowns versus Northern Illinois.

Greene signed with the Washington Redskins as an undrafted free agent in May 2016. He was also briefly a member of the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Redblacks.

Greene received his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Bowling Green in 2015. He is pursuing a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

Greene's brother, Trent, is a defensive graduate assistant for the Orange.

TRENT GREENE

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

A team captain and two-time All-MAC selection at linebacker for Bowling Green, Trent Greene is in his third season as a defensive graduate assistant for the Orange.

Greene played three seasons at Bowling Green and totaled 248 career tackles, including 127 in 2015 to help BGSU capture the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title in its second year under Dino Babers. The following season, Greene paced the Falcons with 111 stops and ranked fourth in the conference in tackles per game (9.3).

A 2016 nominee for the Burlsworth Trophy, awarded to the best player in college football who began his career as a walk-on, Greene earned his undergraduate degree from BGSU in December 2016. He is pursuing a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

Greene's brother, Travis, is an offensive graduate assistant for the Orange.

JOHN GUNTER

Quality Control (Recruiting)

John Gunter joined the Orange recruiting staff in August 2017 as a senior intern and was elevated to the position of recruiting quality control assistant in February 2018. Gunter assists the recruiting staff in attracting the best possible talent to Syracuse.

As an undergraduate, Gunter was a manager for the Coastal Carolina football program. In that role, he aided in identifying skilled, academically-qualified student-athletes for the Chanticleers. His duties included assisting in the preparation and execution of official and unofficial visits, organizing recruiting databases, and assisting with the program's social media efforts.

A native of Warwick, Rhode Island, Gunter graduated from Coastal Carolina in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science.

TIM McAULIFFE

Graduate Assistant (Offense)

A four-year starter and 2016 All-MAC selection for Bowling Green, Tim McAuliffe is in his second season as a graduate assistant at Syracuse.

McAuliffe started 49 career games at center for the Falcons from 2014-17 and helped lead BGSU to two conference titles, three Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship game appearances, and a victory in the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

In 2015, McAuliffe started 13 games and blocked for an offense that set the school records for points scored (591) and touchdowns (82). The Falcons finished the season 10-4 and captured the MAC title in their second year under Dino Babers.

A native of Lemont, Illinois, McAuliffe graduated with a bachelor's degree in communication and minor in entrepreneurship sales from Bowling Green. He is pursuing a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

DAVID ORLOFF

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

David Orloff is in his second season as a graduate assistant for the Orange. Orloff came to Syracuse in February 2018 as a defensive quality control coach before shifting to his current position.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff, Orloff served as a defensive and special teams graduate assistant at UNLV from 2015-17. He was an undergraduate assistant coach at San Jose State from 2010-14.

During his time at UNLV, Orloff worked as the defensive coordinator for the 2017 New Era Bowl, an all-star game featuring a mix of Japanese and American-born football players and coaches.

Orloff's responsibilities for the Rebels included scripting defensive practice periods, organizing the scout team offense and special teams units, and breaking down film.

Orloff earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from San Jose State in 2015. He holds a master's degree in special education from UNLV and is pursuing a second master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

BRYAN SHEPHERD

Quality Control (Defense)

Bryan Shepherd, who served as cornerbacks coach for North Dakota State's 2017 FCS national championship team, is in his second season as a quality control coach at Syracuse.

A 2015 NDSU graduate, Shepherd served on the coaching staff at his alma mater for two seasons. He worked as a defensive assistant in 2016 and was promoted to full-time cornerbacks coach in February 2017.

In first season on the staff, Shepherd worked with NDSU's defensive backs, in addition to coordinating the scout team offense and special teams. In 2017, Shepherd mentored a collection of cornerbacks who helped the Bison rank first nationally in total defense (237.4 ypg), second in passing efficiency defense (93.12) and third in interceptions (22). Overall, NDSU went 14-1 and defeated James Madison to win its sixth FCS national title.

Before joining the coaching staff, Shepherd was a defensive back for the Bison's first three FCS national championship teams from 2011 to 2013. He went on to play for the Washington Redskins in the 2014 preseason as an undrafted free agent. In 2015, he spent time with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

A native of Olathe, Kansas, Shepherd attended the University of Nebraska Omaha for two years before transferring to North Dakota State. He earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from NDSU in 2015.

AUSTIN BEEHNER

Director of Video Operations

Austin Beehner returned to the Syracuse football staff as the director of video operations in March 2013. He previously served as a video operations intern for the Orange during the spring of 2012, while completing his undergraduate degree in sport management at SUNY Cortland.

As the director of video operations, Beehner is responsible for managing the internal video network, preparing game and practice film for coaches and student-athletes, supervising interns, and managing a staff of student camera operators.

Prior to returning to Syracuse, Beehner was the football video operations assistant at Ohio State from June 2012 through the end of the football season. He recorded, imported and edited game and practice film, managed the department's student assistants, and provided technical support for coaches and student-athletes. He also helped produce opponent breakdowns and self-scouting films for the Buckeyes.

In his first stint at Syracuse, Beehner was responsible for gathering and editing game and practice film. He also produced individual highlight films for student-athletes and the 2012 senior banquet video.

BRITNEY CLARKE

Assistant Director/ Student-Athlete Academic Development

Britney Clarke joined Syracuse's Student-Athlete Academic Development staff as an academic coordinator in 2015. She was promoted to assistant director in 2018.

Clarke monitors and tracks the initial and continuing eligibility of football student-athletes and works with the Orange women's tennis team. She assists in all aspects of academic support, including arranging tutors, academic monitoring and reporting, advising and orientations. She is responsible for keeping coaches informed of student-athletes' academic progress, the APR and eligibility concerns. In addition, Clarke works with other Student-Athlete Academic Development staff members to implement life-skills programming.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Clarke was an academic counselor at Arizona from 2013-15. While with the Wildcats, she worked with the women's track & field and gymnastics teams, ensuring those 100-125 student-athletes met NCAA eligibility requirements.

Before being promoted to full-time, Clarke completed an internship from May to July 2013 in the Arizona Academic Services Department. In that role, she developed a campus-level transitions course for freshmen student-athletes. The course focused on identifying transferrable skills and expanding upon their identities as athletes.

Clarke began her academic counseling career as a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin from July 2012 to May 2013.

A 2012 University of Miami graduate, Clarke was a multi-event athlete for the Hurricanes track & field team for four seasons. She competed in both the pentathlon and heptathlon, finishing eighth in the pentathlon at the ACC Indoor Track & Field Championship as a senior.

Clarke received her bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from Miami. She earned her master's degree in higher education from Arizona in 2015.

JUSTIN DiTOLLA

Assistant AD/Compliance

Justin DiTolla was appointed assistant athletic director for compliance at Syracuse University in August 2017. He serves as the compliance liaison for the football and softball programs.

DiTolla is responsible for the day-to-day compliance operations of both teams to ensure adherence to NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference and University rules and regulations. In addition, he is responsible for the comprehensive rules education program for coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff and other University officials.

Before coming to Syracuse, DiTolla served as the assistant director of compliance at UCLA from September 2013 to July 2017. There he worked with the football, softball, men's volleyball, women's water polo, and men's & women's golf programs. He implemented agents and amateurism programming to ensure student-athletes maintained their eligibility while exploring professional careers in sports. He also oversaw the transfer process for all incoming and outgoing student-athletes.

DiTolla began his career as a compliance intern at Oregon from October 2011 to September 2013. He earned his undergraduate degree in business with an emphasis on finance from the University of San Diego in 2011. He was a member of the 2007 USD football team that earned a share of the Pioneer League title.

Assistant Athletic Trainer

A graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Orange from 2013-15, Brandon Hall rejoined the Syracuse Sports Medicine Department full-time in October 2016. He assists Head Athletic Trainer for Football Tim Pike with the daily healthcare management of football student-athletes.

During his time as a graduate assistant for the Orange, Hall aided in the daily operations of the training room and care of Syracuse's football, men's lacrosse and field hockey student-athletes.

A University of New Hampshire graduate with a bachelor's degree in athletic training, Hall holds a master's degree in exercise science from Syracuse. His first full-time athletic training position was as an assistant at William & Mary during the 2015-16 academic year, covering baseball, track & field and cross country.

Hall has volunteered his services at the Boston Marathon and the Sentara Hospital Half Marathon during his career. He is a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES). A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), Hall is also certified in first aid, CPR, AED and SASTM.

JENNIFER LOCEY

Academic & Tutorial Coordinator

Jennifer Locey has been a member of Syracuse's Student-Athlete Academic Development staff as an academic coordinator since April 2017. She tracks and monitors the initial and continuing eligibility of football student-athletes and serves as the tutorial coordinator for the department.

In her role as academic coordinator, Locey assists in all areas of academic support including: academic monitoring and reporting, advising, and orientations. She is responsible for keeping coaches informed of student-athletes' academic progress, the team APR and eligibility concerns.

As tutorial coordinator, Locey hires, trains and supervises a staff of roughly 100 tutors and instructional assistants. She also schedules and maintains all tutorial appointments for the department.

Locey came to Syracuse after working as a learning specialist and tutorial coordinator at Ole Miss. Prior to that, she served as an assistant academic advisor for football and men's golf at Central Florida.

Locey received her bachelor's and master's degrees – both in education – from the University of Miami in 2014 and 2015, respectively.

MIKE MORRISON

Assistant Director/Athletic Communications

Mike Morrison rejoined the Syracuse Athletic Communications staff in August 2005 and became the primary media contact for the football program in 2015. Since he began overseeing the football media relations operation, Morrison has successfully promoted five All-Americans, including 2018 Lou Groza Award winner Andre Szmyt.

In addition to football, Morrison has worked with the Orange men's lacrosse, men's soccer, women's basketball and softball teams during his career. In 2011, Morrison was part of the media relations staff that was recognized by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) with "Super 11" status for excellence in sports information.

Prior to his full-time appointment, Morrison worked in the Syracuse office as a student assistant and intern from 2002-04. During the 2004-05 academic year, he was the assistant sports information director at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. At GW, Morrison served as the media coordinator for the 2004 Atlantic 10 Men's Soccer Championship and 2005 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship.

A graduate of Ithaca College, Morrison received his bachelor's degree in sports information and communication from the school in 2002. He earned his master's degree in public relations from Syracuse University in 2003.

Morrison's publications work has been recognized by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 2008 Syracuse men's soccer media guide was voted eighth nationally. In addition, Morrison served on the group's membership services committee for five years.

Morrison has worked several NCAA championship events during his tenure, including the 2002, 2010 and 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals at the Dome, and the 2008, 2009 and 2013 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships.

Morrison resides in Liverpool with his wife, Cheri, and their sons, Kellan and Sean.

TIM PIKE

Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Tim Pike was named head athletic trainer for the Syracuse football program in 2017. He manages all phases of athletic training for the Orange, including treatment of injuries, rehabilitation and game coverage.

Pike has 12 seasons of college football experience. He most recently served as the head athletic trainer at Marshall from 2014-2016 before joining the Orange.

At Marshall, Pike oversaw a sports medicine staff of nine full-time employees. His primary sport assignment was football where he coordinated all athletic training aspects for the Thundering Herd.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Pike spent seven seasons as the head athletic trainer for football at Eastern Kentucky. In addition to working with the Colonels' football team, Pike supervised EKU's athletic training graduate assistants and managed secondary insurance needs for all student-athletes.

Pike got his start in athletic training as a student athletic trainer at Kentucky, covering men's soccer, baseball and assisting with football, from 1998-2001. He also served as a graduate assistant at North Carolina from 2001-03.

Outside of collegiate athletics, Pike's experience includes providing athletic training services and working as a clinical supervisor. While in Kentucky, he lent his expertise to area high schools, St. Catharine College and the Lexington Horsemen indoor football team.

A noted speaker, Pike has presented on numerous topics at athletic training conventions and symposiums during his career. He holds several professional certifications and memberships.

Pike earned his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Kentucky in 2001. He received his master's degree in exercise and sport science with an emphasis on athletic training from North Carolina in 2003.

Pike and his wife, Kelli, have two sons – Kaleb and Kamden.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL

2018 REVIEW

2019

FEELING THE RUSH

• Syracuse was much improved on the ground in 2018, scoring 38 rushing touchdowns and totaling 2,590 rushing yards (199.2 ypg).
• The 38 rushing scores more than doubled the Orange's 2017 total (16) and were the most in program history. Syracuse averaged 161.5 yards on the ground in 2017, a figure exceeded by 37.7 yards per game in 2018.
• QB Eric Dungey tallied 15 rushing touchdowns, which tied him for third among FBS quarterbacks with Ohio's Nathan Rourke and Georgia Southern's Shai Werts.

SACK EXCHANGE

• Syracuse averaged 3.3 sacks per game, which was sixth nationally and second in the ACC to Clemson (3.6).
• The Orange tallied a school-record 43 sacks to eclipse the previous season-high mark of 41 established in 1985.
• DE Alton Robinson and DE Kendall Coleman tied for second in the league with 10 sacks apiece. The duo's 20 combined sacks topped the conference for the most by a set of teammates.
• Twelve Orange defenders were credited with at least one sack.
• Coleman's three sacks against West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl tied the Syracuse postseason record.

LEAVING HIS MARK

• QB Eric Dungey departed Syracuse as one of the most statistically accomplished players in program history, holding outright or sharing 25 team records (see below).
• Against West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl, Dungey broke one of the most significant records in program history by becoming Syracuse's all-time leading passer. He threw for 303 yards against the Mountaineers to finish with 9,340 career passing yards.

Head coach Dino Babers and the Orange engineered a breakthrough season in 2018, as Syracuse finished with a 10-3 overall record and the No. 15 ranking in the final Associated Press Top 25 and Amway Coaches polls.

The Orange started Babers' third season at the helm with four straight victories. After consecutive losses in the middle of the season, Syracuse surged to the finish line, winning six of its last seven, including a 34-18 triumph over West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl.

Among the highlights was Syracuse's perfect record (6-0) at the Dome, which included a 51-41 win over then-No. 22 NC State that propelled the Orange into the national polls.

PK Andre Szmyt and DB Andre Cisco were recognized as All-Americans and Syracuse boasted 11 All-ACC performers.

GOING DOUBLE DIGITS

• Syracuse's victory versus West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl secured the seventh 10-win season in the history of the program and the first since the 2001 campaign.
• Double-digit victory seasons are more common for head coach Dino Babers, who has won at least 10 games in three of his first seven years as a college football boss.
• The Orange's 2018 victory total snapped the second-longest drought without a 10-win season among current ACC teams (17 seasons). Virginia has the longest drought at 29 seasons. The last time the Cavaliers won 10 games was in 1989 under Coach George Welsh.

TURNING THINGS AROUND

• Syracuse more than doubled its win total from a season ago, which was one of the biggest turnarounds in the FBS during the 2018 season.
• Georgia Southern, who also won 10 games, but had just two wins in 2017, led the nation with an increase of eight more victories than it had the previous year.
• Syracuse, Florida and Baylor were the only Power-Five programs to win six more games than they did in 2017.
• The only similar one-year turnaround in Syracuse football's modern era (since 1946) occurred from 1986 to 1987. During Syracuse's magical 1987 season, Syracuse was 11-0-1 and led the NCAA in most games improved (6) following a 5-6 campaign in 1986.

POINTS-A-PLENTY

• The Orange ranked 11th nationally (second in the ACC) in scoring offense at 40.2 points per game. It was the third-best figure in team history. Syracuse also set a new record for points scored (523) in a season.
• Syracuse scored at least 50 points in five of its 13 games. That's the most 50-point games in one campaign in program history, surpassing the mark set by the 1904 team, which achieved the feat on four occasions.
• Over the last two seasons, the Orange have six 50+ point games, tied with Clemson for the second-most of any ACC team during that span.
• The Orange tallied eight 40+ point games, another school record.
• Syracuse scored 62 total touchdowns to match the 1998 squad for the most in program history.

SZMYT WINS LOU GROZA AWARD

• PK Andre Szmyt became the first Syracuse player to win the Lou Groza Award as the nation's best kicker. He was also voted the ninth unanimous All-American in program history.
• Szmyt was the third freshman to win the Groza Award, joining Arizona State's Thomas Weber (2007) and Florida State's Roberto Aguayo (2013).
• Szmyt made an ACC-record 30-of-34 field goals and a school-record 61 PATs.
• Szmyt finished second in the nation with 151 points, which is a Syracuse record, and the third-best scoring total by a kicker in NCAA history.
• At 11.6 points per game, Szmyt won the national scoring title. He was the second kicker in NCAA history to lead the country in points per contest. The first was Boise State's Tyler Jones in 2004.

THE 'CISCO KID'

• ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year DB Andre Cisco tied Boston College's Hamp Cheevers for the FBS lead with seven interceptions, the most of any freshman. In addition, Cisco was second in the ACC behind Virginia's Bryce Hall (1.9) in passes defended at 1.4 per game.
• Cisco's 18 passes defended (7 INT, 11 PBU) matched Texas Tech's Adrian Frye (5 INT, 13 PBU) for the national rookie lead and were a Syracuse true-freshman record.
• Cisco was the lone true freshman to receive Walter Camp All-America honors (second team) and the first Syracuse freshman to earn All-America plaudits from one of the five NCAA consensus selectors.

Strong safety Evan Foster (left) led the Orange secondary for the second year in a row with 86 tackles in 2018. He enters his senior season as Syracuse's active leader with 158 career stops. Defensive end Kendall Coleman (right) logged at least two sacks in three different games last season. He tied Florida State's Brian Burns and teammate Alton Robinson for the ACC lead in sacks per game (0.83).

WAGNER	10
SYRACUSE	62

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Quarterback Eric Dungey was 23-of-32 for 218 yards and tied the school record with five touchdown passes in Syracuse's dominating 62-10 victory over Wagner (1-1). Dungey connected with eight different receivers in the contest. The Orange (2-0) held the Seahawks to 41 yards rushing on 41 carries (1.0 avg.). Syracuse's 45 points in the opening two quarters equaled the team record for most points in a half set first against Colgate in 1959 and tied in 1998 versus Miami (Fla.).

FLORIDA STATE	7
SYRACUSE	30

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Orange (3-0, 1-0 ACC) scored 24 points in the second half and cruised to a 30-7 victory over Florida State (1-2, 0-2 ACC). The win broke Syracuse's 10-game losing streak to the Seminoles and marked the team's first victory in the series since 1966. Backup quarterback Tommy DeVito replaced starter Eric Dungey late in the first half and completed 11-of-16 passes for 144 yards and a touchdown. DeVito also scored a 3-yard touchdown. The Orange defense sacked FSU quarterback Deondre Francois four times, including two by defensive end Kendall Coleman. Syracuse held the Seminoles to 62 yards rushing on 23 carries (2.7 avg.) and limited them to 1-for-14 (.071) on third down. Syracuse dominated time of possession (36:53 to 23:07) and outgained Florida State, 441-240. Linebacker Kielan Whitner tallied a team-high 11 tackles for the Orange.

SYRACUSE	3
NOTRE DAME	36

BRONX, N.Y. – In front of a soldout crowd of 48,104 spectators, Notre Dame (11-0) tallied the game's first 36 points and defeated the Orange (8-3) by the score of 36-3 at Yankee Stadium. The loss was only the second in nine games for Syracuse at the home of the Bronx Bombers. The Orange's only points came courtesy of kicker Andre Szmyt, who booted his ACC-record 28th field goal of the season with 10 seconds remaining. The Irish intercepted the Orange three times, including two picks by Alohi Gilman. Tommy DeVito replaced Eric Dungey at quarterback after Dungey was forced to leave the game in the first quarter with an injury. DeVito completed 14-of-31 passes for 105 yards. His favorite target was Taj Harris, who had five catches for 78 yards. Notre Dame quarterback Ian Book was 23-for-37 for 292 yards and two touchdowns through the air. The loss ended Syracuse's four-game winning streak.

Eric Dungey was responsible for all six Syracuse touchdowns in the regular-season finale at Boston College, including three TD passes.

The Orange's 38-14 win over West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl marked Syracuse's fourth consecutive bowl victory dating back to 2010.

Abdul Adams made his Orange debut versus West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl and scored a pair of rushing touchdowns.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL

HISTORY

2019

Coached by Bobby Winston, the 1890 Syracuse football team was the first Orange squad to play a full season. The team posted a 7-4 record.

1889
On Nov. 23, Syracuse traveled to Rochester for its first intercollegiate football game. Wearing pink and blue uniforms, Syracuse lost 36-0 to finish the season 0-1.

1890
Orange was adopted as the school color and Syracuse's athletic teams are henceforth known as "Orange" or "Orangemen." Bobby Winston became the program's first head coach. The Orange defeated the Syracuse Athletic Association 14-0 in the season opener for their first football victory en route to a 7-4 record.

1891
Stephen Crane, author of the Civil War classic "Red Badge of Courage," was a member of a Syracuse squad that went 4-7.

1892
The only season in Syracuse football history with no wins when at least two games were played. The Orange went 0-8-1 under coach Jordan C. Wells.

1893
Without an official coach, the Orange finished the season with a 4-9-1 record. The team posted triumphs against Syracuse High School, Hamilton College, Onondaga Academy and Cazenovia.

1894
In his only season as Syracuse's head coach, George H. Bond led the Orange to a 6-5 record.

1895
The Orange secured their first real home field as Syracuse went from playing in parks throughout the city to playing at The Oval, which was a space located behind the Hall of Languages. The Orange recorded their first victory against rival Colgate, winning by the score of 4-0.

1896
The Orange played their first opponent from outside New York state, losing to Williams College, 24-6.

1897
The Colgate "Hoodoo" was born when a newspaper reporter sympathetic to the Raiders' cause tackled an Orange player who was on his way to scoring the winning touchdown. The game ended in a 6-6 tie.

1898
The Orange posted an 8-2-1 record, outscoring their opponents 192-69 under the direction of head coach Frank E. Wade.

1899
Syracuse finished 4-4 in the final season of head coach Frank E. Wade's three-year tenure.

1900
Edwin Sweetland, a Cornell grad, was hired as head football coach and to start the crew program. He guided the Orange to a 7-2-1 record, including six shutouts. Sweetland later coached against Syracuse as the head coach at Colgate.

1901
Success builds for the program, as the Orange closed the season with a 7-1 record. The lone loss came against Lafayette, 5-0.

1902
A 23-0 shutout of rival Colgate was an important win for the Orange, as they cruised to a 6-2-1 record. Other big victories were against the Onondaga Indians, Amherst and Williams.

1903
The program gained momentum as its budget increased to $5,500. Jason B. Parish and Ancil D. Brown served as co-coaches and led the Orange to a 5-4 record.

1904
In Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' first season as head coach, Syracuse finished 6-3. In a victory against Manhattan, the Orange put 144 points on the board, a team record that still stands.

1905
The Orange recorded six shutouts and finished the season with an overall record of 8-3 in Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' second and final year at the helm.

1906
Head coach Frank J. (Buck) O'Neill was hired. He piloted the Orange to a 6-3 record in the team's last season at The Oval. On Nov. 17, the Orange handed Lafayette its only loss of the year, 12-4.

1907
The Orange opened Archbold Stadium, a 20,000-seat venue, with a 28-0 victory against Hobart. The stadium provided the Orange with one of the finest facilities of its time. Once called the "Eighth Wonder of the World," Archbold was just the third concrete stadium built in the United States. A 22-0 win against Hamilton on Oct. 26 was the program's 100th win. Marquis (Bill) Horr became the program's first All-American when he was named to Walter Camp's "Second Eleven."

1908
Howard Jones was hired as head coach. The Orange posted a 6-3-1 record and along the way played their first Western Conference (now Big Ten) opponent, beating Michigan 28-4. Bill Horr became the first Syracuse player to be named a first-team All-American when he was recognized by Walter Camp for the second year in a row.

1909

1910
In its 22nd season of intercollegiate football, Syracuse finished 5-4-1. T.A.D. Jones ended his two-year tenure as head coach with a 9-9-2 overall mark. Caspar Whitney included center Harry Hartman and tackle Rudy Probst on his "Honor List" in Outing Magazine. Taking into account the opinions of both Eastern and Western coaches, Whitney's selections were considered a more accurate representation of the nation's top players than many of the Eastern-centric All-America teams compiled at the time.

1911
First-year head coach C. DeForest Cummings led the Orange to a 5-3-2 season, including a 6-0 shutout of Ohio State and a 12-11 upset of Pop Warner's Carlisle team that featured the legendary Jim Thorpe. End A. Harry Kallett earned Walter Camp Third Team All-America honors. Rudy Probst and quarterback Preston Fogg were named to Caspar Whitney's "Honor List."

1912
After opening the season with a 12-0 victory against in-state rival Hobart, Syracuse was 4-5 in C. DeForest Cummings' last season as head coach. Rudy Probst received All-America honors for the third time, earning "Second Eleven" kudos from Walter Camp.

1913
Buck O'Neill, who led the program to a winning season in 1907, returned to coach the Orange. He guided Syracuse to six wins, its best total since 1908.

1914
The Orange opened the year 2-0 and posted a 5-3-2 overall record. Among the victories was an 81-0 rout of Hamilton, the third-largest margin of victory in program history. Guard Harold White and halfbacks Tam Rose and Marcus Wilkinson garnered "Honor List" plaudits from Caspar Whitney.

1915
Syracuse's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. Syracuse was invited to the Rose Bowl to play Washington, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the program's travel budget. Guards Christopher Schlacter and Harold White were both named All-Americans.

1916
In his only season, head coach William Hollenback led Syracuse to a 5-4 record. The Orange scored more than 50 points in three of their five victories, including a 73-0 shutout of Ohio University.

1917
All-America tackle Alfred Cobb captained the Orange gridders to an 8-1-1 record. Syracuse closed the year with six consecutive wins.

1918
The Orange were 5-1 with four shutouts in Buck O'Neill's penultimate season as head coach. Joe Alexander earned the first of his three consecutive first-team All-America awards. Louis Usher, Joe Schwarzer and Willard Ackley also received All-America recognition.

1919
All-American Joe Alexander and the Orange finished 8-3 in the last year of Buck O'Neill's tenure as head coach. O'Neill was the Syracuse sideline leader for a total of eight seasons (1906-07, 1913-15, 1917-19).

1920
Team captain Joe Alexander received All-America honors for the third straight year. He and first-year head coach John Meehan guided the Orange to a 6-2-1 record. Alexander was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. Tackle Bertrand Gulick turned in the first of his two All-America campaigns.

1921
Syracuse recorded its ninth straight winning season. Led by All-American Bertrand Gulick, the Orange went 7-2. Gifford Zimmerman was the first player in team history to wear the fabled No. 44. The number remained in circulation until it was retired in 2005, but was not worn after 1998.

1922
Third-year coach John Meehan led the Orange to a 6-1-2 record. The team's only loss was a 21-14 decision to Pittsburgh. The season saw the beginning of the Penn State series, which started with a scoreless tie in a game played at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Roy Simmons Sr. was the squad's quarterback, marking the start of a relationship between the Simmons family and Syracuse University Athletics that continues to this day. After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing teams, as well as served as an assistant football coach. Roy Simmons Jr. was Syracuse's men's lacrosse coach from 1971 through 1998, taking the reins of the program from his father when he retired in 1970. Roy Simmons III is the men's lacrosse team's current director of operations. Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf earned second-team All-America honors at tackle.

1923
All-America end Evander (Pete) MacRae was part of an Orange defense that allowed only 19 points and posted seven shutouts. Syracuse went 8-1 with its only loss a 16-7 defeat against rival Colgate.

1924
The Orange won eight games (8-2-1 overall) for the second consecutive year and defeated Boston College for the 200th victory in program history on Oct. 18. Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf was named an All-American for the third time.

1925
Clarence Thomas became the first quarterback to wear the storied No. 44. He led the team to an 8-1-1 record in C.W.P. Reynolds' first year as head coach. The defense posted a school-record six consecutive shutouts. Vic Hanson was an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1926
Behind Vic Hanson, the Orange outscored their opponents 225-59 on their way to a 7-2-1 record. Hanson earned All-America honors again and captained the basketball team during the winter months. Hanson is the only athlete enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

1927
In his first year as head coach, Lew Andreas led Syracuse to four straight wins to start the season and a 5-3-2 overall record.

1928
After a 3-0 start, the Orange finished the year with a 4-4-1 mark. The team scored a season-high 58 points in a win against Johns Hopkins on Oct. 13.

1929
Lew Andreas, who was Syracuse's basketball coach from 1924 through 1950, completed his three-year stint as football coach by guiding the Orange to a 6-3 season. Syracuse played the first night game in the East, beating Hobart, 77-0.

1930
Vic Hanson returned to Syracuse to coach the Orange after playing briefly in the New York Yankees farm system, highlighting his multi-faceted athletic ability. The Orange went 5-2-2 in Hanson's first year and end George Ellert was named an All-American.

1931
Syracuse outscored its foes 238-56 en route to a 7-1-1 season that featured seven straight wins to start the year.

1932
A 4-4-1 season included the program's 250th victory, a 27-6 win against Oglethorpe on Nov. 5.

1933
After a 3-0 start that included dominant wins against Clarkson and Ohio Wesleyan, Syracuse closed the year with a 4-4 record under fourth-year head coach Vic Hanson.

1934
All-America tackle James Steen led the Orange to a 6-2 record. Syracuse's six victories included back-to-back shutouts of Penn State and Michigan State.

1935
The Orange won six games for the second year in a row and finished the season 6-1-1. Senior guard Ed Jontos became Syracuse's first pro football draft pick when he was selected 45th overall by the New York Giants in the 1936 NFL Draft.

1936
The Orange defeated Clarkson to start the season, but lost their final seven games. Vic Hanson concluded his Syracuse coaching tenure with a seven-year record of 33-21-5.

1937
Ossie Solem succeeded Vic Hanson as head coach and led the team to a 5-2-1 record. After starting 3-0, Syracuse made its first appearance in the Associated Press college football poll, debuting at No. 17 on Oct. 18 after defeating Cornell.

1938
Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led Syracuse to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell and a 5-3 overall record. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary announcer Marty Glickman, and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh was also a star for the Orange on the basketball court. His basketball jersey was retired in February 2005.

1939
Syracuse went 3-3-2 and won its last two games. The defense set a team record, holding opponents to a 33.3 percent completion rate on forward passes.

1940
The Orange beat NYU 47-13 on Oct. 12. The game was played at Yankee Stadium in the Bronx in front of 8,000 people. The victory was part of a 3-4-1 campaign for fourth-year coach Ossie Solem.

1941
The Orange posted a 5-2-1 record and returned to the national rankings, checking in at No. 18 in the AP poll after a 27-20 triumph at Wisconsin. The Syracuse special teams unit set the school record for most punt return yards (662).

1942
Winning the first five games of the season, the Orange were ranked as high as 15th in the AP poll and went on to finish with a 6-3 record.

1943
Syracuse University suspended intercollegiate sports due to World War II.

1944
The Orange concluded the year with a 2-4-1 record, including playing a game against Boston College at historic Fenway Park.

1945
Ossie Solem ended his eight-year Syracuse coaching stint, guiding the Orange to a 1-6 record. He finished with a 30-27-6 overall coaching mark.

1946
Future College Football Hall of Famer Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn served as Orange head coach and went 4-5 in his only year at the helm. Munn later coached at Michigan State. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

Legendary running back Jim Brown was voted the program's first unanimous All-American as a senior in 1956.

Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with khaki moleskin pants. He led Syracuse to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the second and final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange amassed a 1-8 record. The team's only win was a 13-9 season-opening victory against Niagara.

1949
Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach after five consecutive losing seasons. Schwartwalder won four games in his first year, including a 35-7 triumph over rival Colgate.

1950
A 5-5 season featured a four-game winning streak in the middle of the year. Avatus Stone set the school record (since tied) by intercepting three passes in a 27-7 win versus Penn State.

1951
Syracuse enjoyed its first winning season since 1942, logging a 5-4 mark. The Syracuse defense forced a school-record nine turnovers against Lafayette. Off the field, Howard Jones and Buck O'Neill were the first individuals associated with the program to be inducted into the College Football Hall Fame.

1952
Tackles Bob Fleck and Bill Skyinskus earned All-America honors, leading Syracuse to a 7-2 record and its first bowl appearance. Syracuse lost to Alabama 61-6 in the Orange Bowl. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame center Jim Ringo concluded his three-year Orange career.

1953
Bob Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season in charge.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down the preseason depth chart, was issued jersey No. 44. His name was Jim Brown. Syracuse finished 4-4 and won three of its last four games.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined, allowing 35 completions on 95 pass attempts – still team records for the fewest season completions and attempts by the opposition. Jim Brown earned All-America honors in his second season and the Orange finished with a 5-3 record. They were ranked as high as No. 18 in the AP poll.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular-season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored a then NCAA-record 43 points in Syracuse's 61-7 victory. The Orange completed the regular season 7-1, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost 28-27 to TCU. Brown broke the Syracuse single-season rushing record with 986 yards and became the first unanimous All-American in school history. Brown went on to a Hall of Fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by the Browns in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
All-America end Dick Lasse led Syracuse to a 5-3-1 record. The Orange recorded the 350th win in program history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano, a future Major League Baseball umpire, earned All-America honors, leading the Orange to an 8-2 record. The defense recorded four shutouts and allowed just 59 points during the season. Syracuse lost to No. 5 Oklahoma 21-6 in the Orange Bowl.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied and national champions, the Orange capped an 11-0 season with their first bowl win, a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest year on the gridiron, pulverizing foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games (19.3 ypg). On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards a game. The team featured five All-Americans, including guard Roger Davis, who was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Halfback Ernie Davis earned one of his two first-team All-America honors for the 7-2 Orange. Syracuse spent two weeks ranked No. 1 in the UPI poll. The team won its first five games to extend its school-record winning streak to 16 games before a home loss to Pittsburgh on Oct. 29 ended the run. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

1961
Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's career rushing record and led the Orange to an 8-3 season, capped by a Liberty Bowl win against Miami (Fla.). Davis, who was later enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame, was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft. He died of leukemia less than two years later.

1962
The Orange began the year 1-3, but recovered to finish 5-5. End Walt Sweeney was a first-round selection by the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the 1963 draft.

1963
The Orange won seven of their last eight contests to finish 12th in the UPI poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey began his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Ben Schwartzwalder (right) retired as head coach after the 1973 season. He guided the program to a 153-91-3 record and the 1959 national championship.

Sophomore halfback Floyd Little, who was recruited to Syracuse by Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors from three selectors in his first season. Center Pat Killorin also received All-America accolades. The team went 7-4 and made an appearance in the Sugar Bowl, losing to LSU, 13-10. The program celebrated its 400th win – a 38-6 victory against Kansas – on Sept. 26.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Pat Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-3 record. Syracuse was 19th in the final UPI poll and won five of its last six games. Little led the nation in all-purpose yards (1,990), punt return average (23.5) and touchdowns scored (19).

1966
Halfback Floyd Little and fullback Larry Csonka, the greatest one-two running punch in Orange history, powered the team to an 8-3 record and a Gator Bowl berth. Little set a Syracuse bowl-game record with 216 yards rushing, while Csonka added 114 in an 18-12 loss to Tennessee. Little, Csonka and tackle Gary Bugenhagen earned All-America honors. Little was selected by the Denver Broncos with the sixth pick in the 1967 NFL/AFL Draft.

1967
Larry Csonka earned All-America honors for the second year in a row after rushing for 1,127 yards and eight touchdowns to propel Syracuse to an 8-2 record. The Miami Dolphins selected Csonka, who went on to be enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, with the eighth pick in the 1968 NFL/AFL Draft.

1968
The Orange rose to No. 10 in the national polls and finished with a 6-4 record. Defensive halfback Anthony Kyasky, defensive end Lou Gubitosa and defensive tackle Art Thoms earned All-America honors. Thoms was the 22nd overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 1969 NFL/AFL Draft.

1969
The Orange were 5-5 with back-to-back shutouts of Arizona and Navy in November. Against Penn State, Greg Allen set the single-game record for most individual punt return yards with 172.

1970
Facing a boycott by a group of African-American student-athletes, Syracuse was outscored 100-29 in its first three games, but rebounded to win six of the next seven games. The "Syracuse Eight," as the group was called by the media, sat out the season calling for the equal treatment of players and a diverse coaching staff. On the field, All-America defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann led the Orange to a 6-4 record.

1971
All-America defensive back Tommy Myers intercepted a Syracuse single-season record eight passes during a 5-5-1 campaign in which a 28-24 win against West Virginia gave the program its 450th victory.

1972
The Syracuse streak of 22 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end. The Orange lost at West Virginia in the season finale to finish 5-6. Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann was the 10th overall pick in the 1973 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

1973
Ben Schwartzwalder retired after a 2-9 season. Schwartzwalder led the Orange to a 153-91-3 record in 25 years as head coach. He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982. Guard Dave Lapham was voted an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1974
Syracuse began Frank Maloney's seven-year coaching tenure with a 23-15 triumph against Oregon State, but lost nine of its last 10 to close season 2-9.

1975
All-American Ray Preston led the Orange to a 6-5 record and was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game. Preston enjoyed a nine-year (1976-84) NFL career as a linebacker for the San Diego Chargers.

1976
After a 3-8 campaign, Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American Tim Moresco played in the last American Bowl. He intercepted a pass for the victorious North squad.

1977
Syracuse posted its second winning season under Frank Maloney, going 6-5, including four consecutive victories to end the year.

1978
Joe Morris set the school freshman rushing record with 1,001 yards. It was a performance that included a then-school season record four consecutive 100-yard games. In the final game at Archbold Stadium, Morris ran for 203 yards to power the Orange to a 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy. Syracuse bid farewell to Archbold having compiled a 261-104-20 record at the facility.

1979
With the razing of Archbold Stadium and the construction of the Dome, Syracuse spent the entire season on the road, playing "home" games in the Meadowlands, Buffalo and Ithaca. Despite the obstacles, the Orange went 7-5 and defeated McNeese State in the Independence Bowl with future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins leading the way. Monk was the 18th overall selection in the 1980 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

1980
The dawn of a new era began on Sept. 20 with the opening of the Dome. Joe Morris scored four touchdowns and racked up 300 all-purpose yards as the Orange christened their new home with a 36-24 win against Miami (Ohio). An all-time Syracuse record-crowd of 50,564 witnessed the event. The Orange were 5-6 in Frank Maloney's last year as head coach.

1981
Down-easterner Dick MacPherson arrived on the scene, replacing Frank Maloney as head coach. MacPherson guided the Orange to a 4-6-1 mark in his first year, including consecutive wins against Boston College and West Virginia to end the season. Running back Joe Morris concluded his career as Syracuse's all-time leading rusher. He and kicker Gary Anderson both earned All-America honors.

1982
Ben Schwartzwalder, the winningest coach in Syracuse football history, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. On the field, defensive tackle Michael Charles was named a first-team All-American for the 2-9 Orange.

1983
The Orange turned in their first winning season since 1979, going 6-5 in Dick MacPherson's third year as head coach. In addition, Syracuse hit a program milestone by winning its 500th game, 14-7, against Navy.

1984
Syracuse native Tim Green earned the first of two consecutive first-team All-America certificates at defensive tackle. Green and his teammates grabbed the nation's attention with a 17-9 home victory against No. 1 Nebraska during a 6-5 season.

1985
Syracuse began a run of seven bowl appearances in eight seasons, earning a spot opposite Maryland in the Cherry Bowl. Syracuse lost to the Terps 35-18 to close the year with a 7-5 record. Defensive tackle Tim Green was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row. Green, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001, was the 17th overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

1986
After an 0-4 start, the Orange won five of their final seven games to set the stage for a remarkable 1987 season.

1987
Dick MacPherson's bunch ended the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 record and earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl, Syracuse's first New Year's Day bowl bid since 1965. Auburn's Win Lyle kicked a last-second field goal to force a 16-16 tie, the first deadlock in Sugar Bowl history. Consensus All-American Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but won several other player of the year awards. Nose guard Ted Gregory was also a consensus All-American. MacPherson was the consensus pick for national coach of the year and the Orange finished No. 4 in both polls.

The 1990 Orange earned the program's fourth consecutive bowl berth and defeated Arizona 28-0 in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Syracuse put together consecutive double-digit win seasons for the first time, capping a 10-2 campaign with a decisive 23-10 victory against LSU in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Defensive back Markus Paul was named a first-team All-American by four selectors (AP, FWAA, Sporting News, Football News).

1989
Syracuse football observed its 100th birthday and earned a third straight bowl invitation. This time John Biskup hit a last-minute field goal to edge Georgia 19-18 in the Peach Bowl to cap an 8-4 season. Center John Flannery and wide receiver Rob Moore earned first-team All-America recognition. Moore entered his name in the 1990 NFL Supplemental Draft and was selected first overall by the New York Jets.

1990
The Orange finished the regular season with a 6-4-2 record and garnered an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. Syracuse put the finishing touches on its third straight bowl win by shutting out Arizona, 28-0. The Wildcats had not been blanked in 20 seasons (214 games), the second-longest streak in NCAA history at the time. Center John Flannery was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Assistant coach Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach when MacPherson left to coach the NFL's New England Patriots. The Orange also joined the BIG EAST Football Conference after spending years as an Eastern independent. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 BIG EAST mark, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. Qadry Ismail earned first-team All-America honors as a kick returner and became the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second honor was for track & field.

1992
Paul Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made their second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado 26-22 at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz. It was the fifth straight bowl victory for Syracuse, the second-longest postseason winning streak in the country at the time behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season. The Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall mark. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new standards in almost every passing and total offense category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also etched their names in Syracuse's record book.

1994
In keeping with the tone of the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

1995
A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 record and a victory over Clemson in the Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb and his chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and return men at Syracuse. Harrison was the 19th overall pick in the 1996 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams earned first-team All-America honors.

1996
Despite an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of the BIG EAST title once again and were among the nation's elite. An eight-game winning streak in the middle of the season resulted in another bowl bid. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh consecutive postseason victory, which was the nation's longest bowl winning streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams received first-team All-America plaudits for the second year in a row.

1997
Syracuse won its first outright BIG EAST championship, clinching the crown with a 33-18 triumph at Miami (Fla.). After starting the year 1-3, a 30-19 victory against Tulane ignited an eight-game winning streak. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact the Orange were one of six teams to receive a Bowl Alliance bid. Safety Donovin Darius was a first-team All-America selection.

After a 34-33 loss to eventual national champion Tennessee in the opener, the Orange defeated the previous year's national title winner, Michigan, the following week. From there, Syracuse went 7-3 to win its second outright BIG EAST title and third conference championship in a row. The Orange earned a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) berth in the first season of the BCS and lost to Florida in the Orange Bowl – Donovan McNabb's last game. McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest a Syracuse quarterback has ever been taken. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned first-team All-America honors.

Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in 13 seasons. The Orange were 7-5 in the last year of the millennium and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. All-America linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game versus Temple.

2000
Syracuse ran its streak of consecutive winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was taken with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

2001
Syracuse recorded its 15th straight winning season, posting a 10-3 record and topping Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl. Unanimous All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft, marking the fifth consecutive year that a Syracuse player heard his name called in the opening round.

2002
The Orange's string of winning seasons came to an end as Syracuse finished 4-8. The team played in two triple-overtime games, including a 50-42 victory against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes ended his time on The Hill ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists. Linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer also concluded fine careers. In November, former quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to the University's Board of Trustees.

2003
Running back Walter Reyes established single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) in leading the Orange to a 6-6 record. Receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered Syracuse's NFL Draft fraternity.

2004
Walter Reyes concluded his college career as the program's second-leading rusher with 3,424 yards. The Orange earned a bowl berth for the first time since 2001, losing the Champs Sports Bowl 51-14 to Georgia Tech in Paul Pasqualoni's last game as head coach. Offensive tackle Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2005
Head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as defensive coordinator, took over the program. Syracuse went 1-10, but boasted one of the most improved defenses in the country. The Orange jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings in passing defense (90th to 21st), while the total defense went from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft. Smith was picked in the third round by the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

2006
Freshman Delone Carter emerged as a capable running back during a 4-8 season. Carter ran for 713 yards, the second-best total for a first-year player in school history. Cornerback Tanard Jackson and linebacker Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
The Orange went 2-10, but defeated nationally-ranked Louisville in a shootout, 38-35. Receiver Mike Williams had a touchdown reception in nine straight games, while the kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had a big year. The pair keyed an Orange unit that led the BIG EAST in average yards per kickoff return (24.8). Suter paced the FBS ranks with a nation-best 1,299 kickoff return yards.

2008
The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to the Orange's game against Penn State. On the field, Syracuse was 3-9 in Greg Robinson's final year as head coach. The team's biggest win was a last-minute, 24-23 victory at Notre Dame. Running back Curtis Brinkley established a Syracuse season record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (5) and was one of four Orange players to sign with an NFL team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta earned Pro Football Weekly All-America honors.

2009
Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater to serve as the program's 28th head coach. Marrone brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a stellar four-year basketball career at Duke. Paulus led the Orange to a 4-8 record in his only season. Punter Rob Long and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens after helping the Orange rank sixth nationally in sacks and 13th in rushing defense.

In his second year at the helm, Doug Marrone led Syracuse back to the postseason. The Orange went 8-5 and beat Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Behind linebackers Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith, the Orange ranked seventh nationally in total defense. Running back Delone Carter led the offense, rushing for 1,233 yards in his final season, including 198 yards against Kansas State to win Pinstripe Bowl MVP honors.

2011

The Orange got off to a 5-2 start, but lost its last five games to finish 5-7. Quarterback Ryan Nassib recorded the best statistical passing season in school history to that point, establishing program records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for touchdown passes (22). Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to garner the attention of pro scouts. Jones was the first pick of the New England Patriots (21st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. Jones, Nick Provo, Andrew Tiller, Antwon Bailey and Justin Pugh were named first-team All-BIG EAST.

2012

In its last year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship and finished 8-5 overall. The Orange captured their second Pinstripe Bowl title in three years, beating West Virginia, 38-14. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team-record totals, completing 294-of-471 passes for 3,757 yards and 26 touchdowns. Receiver Alec Lemon, offensive tackle Justin Pugh and safety Shamarko Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors, while Nassib was a Pro Football Weekly All-American. Pugh, Nassib and Thomas were all selected in the 2013 NFL Draft.

2013

Scott Shafer replaced Doug Marrone as head coach after Marrone was hired by the Buffalo Bills. Syracuse was 7-6 in its first year as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference and defeated Minnesota in the Texas Bowl. Six members of the Orange earned All-ACC honors, including Jay Bromley and Marquis Spruill, who were both selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Bromley was a third-round pick by the New York Giants. Spruill went in the fifth round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2014

Syracuse opened the year with victories against Villanova and Central Michigan, but finished the season 3-9 in Scott Shafer's second year as head coach. The Orange were stout defensively, finishing 26th nationally in total defense. Linebacker Cameron Lynch (third team), offensive tackle Sean Hickey (third team) and punter Riley Dixon (honorable mention) received All-ACC plaudits.

2015

The Orange started the year 3-0 for the first time since 1991, but lost their next eight games. A 20-17 victory against Boston College in Scott Shafer's last game as head coach ended the slide, resulting in a 4-8 record. Punter Riley Dixon became the first player in school history to earn All-ACC First Team honors. Dixon was drafted in the seventh round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

2016

Syracuse set or tied more than 40 school records on offense in Dino Babers' first season as head coach. A 31-17 home victory over No. 17 Virginia Tech highlighted a 4-8 season and gave Central New York a glimpse of what Babers' high-octane, spread offense was capable of. Receiver Amba Etta-Tawo had a monster season, catching 94 passes for 1,482 yards and 14 touchdowns. Return man Brisly Estime led the NCAA in punt return average (17.7) and closed his career as the ACC's all-time leader in that category with a four-year mark of 18.0 yards per return. Etta-Tawo earned All-ACC First Team plaudits from both the media and coaches. He also garnered four All-America nods, including second-team honors from Sporting News.

2017

For the second straight season, Syracuse secured a marquee home win, shocking No. 2 Clemson, 27-24. However, injuries at key positions and five losses by nine points or less contributed to another 4-8 finish. Linebacker Zaire Franklin served as a team captain for the third year in row, a first for a Syracuse player in the modern era. Receiver Steve Ishmael caught a school-record 105 passes for 1,347 yards to close his career as the program's all-time leader in receiving yardage (2,891). Position-mate Ervin Philips ended his Orange career with a team-record 223 catches. The 2017 Walter Camp Connecticut Player of the Year, Philips snagged 89 balls, teaming up with Ishmael for an ACC-record 194 combined receptions. Ishmael was a unanimous All-ACC First Team selection and was picked to nine All-America teams. Franklin was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

2018

Syracuse reclaimed its place on college football's national stage, posting a 10-3 record and finishing No. 15 in the country in both polls. The Orange were unbeaten (6-0) at home went 6-2 versus conference opponents to finish second in the ACC Atlantic Division behind eventual national champion Clemson. Syracuse earned its first bowl berth since 2013, capping the year with a 34-18 Camping World Bowl triumph against West Virginia. The Orange set school records for points scored (528), rushing touchdowns (38) and sacks (43). Eleven players earned All-ACC honors, including first-team selections safety Andre Cisco, punter Sterling Hofrichter and placekicker Andre Szmyt. Cisco and Szmyt were named All-Americans, with Szmyt earning unanimous first-team distinction. Szmyt also won the Lou Groza Award as the nation's best kicker. Quarterback Eric Dungey closed his spectacular career with 25 school records to his name. In addition, the Orange had a player selected in the NFL Draft for the second year in a row. Defensive tackle Chris Slayton was picked in the seventh round by the New York Giants.

Founded in 1951 by the National Football Foundation, the College Football Hall of Fame immortalizes the greatest of the amateur gridiron.

With 18 inductees, Syracuse is one of the most well-represented schools in the Hall. The Orange rank second behind Pittsburgh (25) for the most honorees among ACC programs.

Originally slated to be built on the Rutgers University campus – home of the first college football game in 1869 – the Hall ultimately found its first home in Kings Mill, Ohio in 1978. The Ohio location closed in 1992 and the Hall relocated to South Bend, Ind. where it resided from 1995 to 2012. In 2014, the College Football Hall of Fame opened in Atlanta where it is home to approximately 1,200 enshrinees.

Syracuse coaches Frank O'Neill and Howard Jones were members of the first induction class in 1951. Three years later, in 1954, three-time All-American Joe Alexander became the first Orange player inducted. Receiver Art Monk is the program's most recent honoree. Monk was enshrined in 2012.

Art Monk was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012 in recognition of a standout career that included leading the Orange to a victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl.

Don McPherson enjoyed a return to the Dome to celebrate his 2008 College Football Hall of Fame induction with friends and former teammates.

Syracuse University's All-Century Football Team featured a Heisman Trophy winner and nine College Football Hall of Famers. The team was comprised of players from eight different decades, including several Orange standouts who showcased their talents in the NFL. Donovan McNabb, Marvin Harrison and Daryl Johnston were just a few of many All-Century honorees who went on to professional football stardom.

The team was announced on Oct. 27, 1999 following a selection process that included more than 6,000 fan votes. The criteria for selecting the team included all players who significantly impacted Syracuse football with special consideration for those who were members of the College Football Hall of Fame, All-Americans or who played in the NFL. Nominees were selected by three prominent figures associated with the Orange football program: Sports Information Director Emeritus Larry Kimball, former Syracuse Newspapers Sports Editor Arnie Burdick and former player, coach and administrator Joe Szombathy.

"Being selected to this elite team typifies the tremendous success that Syracuse football achieved throughout the 20th century. Some of these athletes are among the greatest to ever play college football. It was an honor for us to recognize their talents and contributions at our final home game of the century," former Syracuse Director of Athletics Jake Crouthamel said.

Members of the All-Century Team were honored at halftime against Temple on Nov. 6, 1999.

LEGEND OF 44

Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that excellence has revolved around one jersey number – 44.

On Nov. 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is the only retired number in the history of the Syracuse football program. A No. 44 jersey is displayed in the Dome rafters, honoring the legends who wore it.

Beginning with Gifford Zimmerman in 1921, 25 players who wore the number. Rob Konrad was the last in 1998. Three of the most famous to don the digits – Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little – rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

How much does the No. 44 mean to Syracuse University and the local community? For starters, the University zip code was changed from 13210 to 13244 several years ago. In 1988, when the University switched phone systems, the exchange was changed from 423 to 443. Number 44 not only has come to represent greatness on the football field, it has become part of the University's and the community's identity.

A committee has been established to oversee the number. Under very special circumstances, the committee can permit a current student-athlete to wear it.

39 • LARRY CSONKA, FB

Years: 1965-67 • Jersey Retired: 2007

Csonka led the Orange in rushing twice. He was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year and ranks fifth on Syracuse's all-time rushing list (2,934 yards). Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

88 • JOHN MACKEY, TE

Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He led the Orange in receiving yardage in 1961 and 1962. Mackey went on to become an All-Pro for the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992. Mackey died in 2011 at the age of 69. Each year since 2000, the John Mackey Award has been presented to the nation's top collegiate tight end.

5 • DONOVAN McNABB, QB

Years: 1995-98 • Jersey Retired: 2013

McNabb led the Orange to three straight BIG EAST titles from 1996-98. He was fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and holds the school records for most career touchdown passes (77) and most touchdowns responsible for (96). A four-time All-BIG EAST First Team selection, McNabb was taken second overall by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft. He was a six-time Pro Bowler in his 11 years with the franchise and played a total of 13 NFL seasons.

9 • DON McPHERSON, QB

Years: 1983-87 • Jersey Retired: 2013

McPherson authored one of the best seasons in school history in 1987. The Heisman Trophy runner-up, McPherson won the Maxwell (Most Outstanding Player) and Davey O'Brien (Most Outstanding Quarterback) awards after guiding the Orange to an 11-0-1 record. His 164.3 passer rating led the NCAA and stands as the Syracuse single-season record. McPherson played seven professional seasons in the NFL and CFL. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

47 • JOE MORRIS, RB

Morris holds or shares 15 school records, including the single-game (252 yards), single-season (1,372 yards in 1979) and career (4,299 yards) rushing records. He posted three 1,000-yard rushing seasons and earned All-America honors in 1979 and 1981. Morris was drafted by the New York Giants in 1982 and played eight seasons in the NFL. He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and helped the 1986 Giants win the franchise's first Super Bowl.

MARQUIS (BILL) HORR

Tackle • 1908

The first All-American in the history of Syracuse football, Horr anchored a young offensive line on a team that opened newly-built Archbold Stadium with a win against Hobart in 1907. The next year, Horr led the Orange to a 6-3-1 record and the first victory in school history against a team from the Western Conference (now Big Ten) when Syracuse topped Michigan 28-4 in the season finale. At the 1908 Summer Olympics in London, Horr won a silver medal in the Greek-style discus throw and a bronze in the free-style discus throw. Horr served as the head football coach at Northwestern in 1909 and the head coach at Purdue from 1910 to 1912, compiling a career record of 9-14-2.

HAROLD WHITE

Guard • 1915

White and fellow All-American Christopher Schlacter were the guards on a line that helped Syracuse's offense overpower its opponents by the combined score of 331-16 in 1915. The Orange scored more than 30 points on five occasions and topped the 70-point mark in victories against Mount Union (73-0) and Rochester (82-0). The team finished with an impressive 9-1-2 record and was invited to play Washington in the Rose Bowl, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the travel budget. Standing 6 feet 6 inches tall and weighing more than 270 pounds, White was one of the largest players of his era and captained the Orange in 1916.

ALFRED COBB

Tackle • 1917

A 1917 team captain, Cobb was the anchor for an offensive line that propelled the Orange to an 8-1-1 record, including six straight wins to end the season. Cobb played in the early days of the NFL, when it was still known as the American Professional Football Association (APFA). He suited up for the Akron Pros and the Cleveland Bulldogs. In 1920 with Akron, Cobb was a member of the very first NFL championship team. Over three APFA/NFL seasons, Cobb played in 21 games as a lineman, starting 16 of them.

J.A. (JOE) ALEXANDER

Guard/Center • 1918, 1919

Alexander and Ernie Davis are the only two players in Orange history to earn multiple consensus All-America honors. Alexander starred for Coach Frank O'Neill's teams from 1918-20. He also captained the lacrosse team for one season. Nicknamed "Doc," Alexander graduated from medical school and began practicing in New York City. He specialized in lung treatment and helped found one of the first tuberculosis centers in New York. For seven seasons (1921-27), he played in the National Football League on weekends while practicing medicine. A center in the NFL's early days for the Rochester Jeffersons (1921-22), Milwaukee Badgers (1922) and New York Giants (1925-27), Alexander was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

LOUIS USHER

Tackle • 1918

Usher and fellow offensive lineman Joe Alexander anchored the line for the 5-1 Orange in 1918. Usher went on to play professional football for five years for the Rochester Jeffersons, Chicago Stanleys, Chicago Bears, Hammond Pros and Kenosha Maroons. He was tragically killed on Jan. 1, 1927 in an automobile accident near Calumet City, Ill.

EVANDER (PETE) MacRAE

End • 1923

MacRae led the Orange to an 8-1 overall record in 1923, including seven straight shutouts. The three-year football letterwinner was also the starting center for the Syracuse basketball team. After playing professional basketball for the Syracuse All-Stars, he returned to the University as an assistant basketball coach.

VIC HANSON

End • 1926

A three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball, Hanson was a consensus All-American on the gridiron in 1926 after leading the Orange to a 7-2-1 record. That winter, Hanson powered the Orange basketball team to a 19-1 mark. Following his college career, Hanson played briefly with the Cleveland Rosenblums in the American Basketball League and then formed the Syracuse All-Americans basketball team. The New York Yankees also signed Hanson upon his graduation from Syracuse in 1927 and he played one year in their farm system. Hanson served as head football coach of the Orange from 1930 to 1936, compiling a record of 33-21-5. He is the only player enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

JIM BROWN

Halfback • 1956 *

Brown set the Orange record for highest average yards per carry (6.2) in 1956 and broke the single-season rushing record with 986 yards. Against Colgate that season, he established school marks for the most rushing touchdowns (6) and most points scored in a game (43). After leaving Syracuse, he played for the NFL's Cleveland Browns from 1957 to 1965 and scored 106 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971 and College Football Hall of Fame in 1995. In addition to football, Brown excelled at basketball, lacrosse and track. He is a member of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame and was an All-American midfielder on the Orange's undefeated 1957 team. Brown is considered by many to be the greatest athlete of all-time. In 2002, he was tabbed by Sporting News as the greatest professional football player ever.

ROGER DAVIS

Guard • 1959 *

Nicknamed "Hound Dog" because of his love for training hunting dogs, Davis helped fellow All-American Ernie Davis rush for 883 yards in 1959. He was a member of a Syracuse unit that led the country in total offense (451.5 ypg) on its way to winning the national championship. Davis played pro football for the Chicago Bears, Los Angeles Rams and New York Giants. He was a starter at right guard for the Bears in 1963 when they won the NFL championship.

Halfback • 1960, 1961 *

Nicknamed the "Elmira Express" by sportswriter Al Mallette, Davis led Syracuse to a 26-5 record from 1959-61. As a sophomore in 1959, Davis scored two touchdowns against Texas in the Cotton Bowl to help the Orange complete a perfect season and capture the program's only national championship. Two years later, Davis became the first African-American and only Syracuse player to win the Heisman Trophy. He was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in the 1962 NFL Draft and traded to Cleveland. Davis was diagnosed with leukemia the following summer and died in 1963 at the age of 23 without ever playing a professional game. The Browns retired his No. 45 jersey shortly after his death, and Davis was posthumously inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1979. In 2008, he was the subject of the Universal Pictures film "The Express," starring Dennis Quaid, Rob Brown and Charles S. Dutton. The film was based on the non-fiction book "Ernie Davis: The Elmira Express" by Robert C. Gallagher.

LARRY CSONKA

Fullback • 1967 *

Csonka led the Orange in rushing twice and was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year as a senior. He teamed with halfback Floyd Little to form the most potent rushing duo in school history. Csonka holds the Orange record for most carries in a game (43 vs. Maryland in 1967) and ranks fifth on Syracuse's career rushing list (2,934 yards). He recorded two 200-yard rushing games for the Orange, including 204 yards against Cal in 1967. Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 2007, Syracuse retired Csonka's No. 39 jersey.

TIM GREEN

Defensive Tackle • 1985 *

Green was named the ECAC co-Player of the Year in 1985 and ranks first on Syracuse's career sacks list with 45.5. He remains the program's top tackler among down linemen with 341 career stops. Green played for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. After his playing career ended, Green became a commentator for the NFL on FOX. A best-selling author and lawyer, Green won the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, given annually to six former student-athletes for distinguished career accomplishments on the 25th anniversary of their college graduation, in December 2011.

TED GREGORY

Nose Guard • 1987

Gregory was a force during Syracuse's 11-0-1 season in 1987. He captained a defense that allowed more than 21 points just once in 12 games. He was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, which at the time recognized the most outstanding lineman or linebacker in major college football. Gregory completed his four-year career with 242 tackles, third all-time among Orange defensive linemen, and 17 sacks. He went on to play in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints.

DON McPHERSON

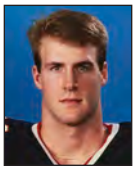
Quarterback • 1987 *

The Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1987, McPherson won the Maxwell (Most Outstanding Player), Davey O'Brien (Most Outstanding Quarterback) and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm (Most Outstanding Senior Quarterback) awards. His 164.3 passer rating that season led the NCAA and stands as an Orange record. He also set the school single-season marks for most yards per pass attempt (10.2) and most yards per completion (18.1). Upon graduating from Syracuse, McPherson spent seven seasons in the NFL and CFL. After retiring from football in 1994, he joined the staff of Northeastern University's Center for the Study of Sport in Society before becoming the first executive director of the Sports Leadership Institute at Adelphi University. McPherson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. Syracuse retired McPherson's No. 9 jersey in 2013.

JOHN FLANNERY

Center • 1990

With Flannery as the anchor of the offensive line from 1987-90, Syracuse posted a four-year record of 36-10-3, including a 3-0-1 record in bowl games. A native of Pottsville, Pa., Flannery started at left guard for Syracuse in 1987 before shifting to center. He was a three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in both 1989 and 1990. He was drafted in the second round by the Houston Oilers and made the NFL All-Rookie Team in 1991. He later made professional stops with the Dallas Cowboys and St. Louis Rams, winning a Super Bowl title as a member of the Rams in 1999. That same year, Flannery was named to Syracuse's All-Century Team.



CHRIS GEDNEY

Tight End • 1992 *

A native of nearby Liverpool, N.Y., Gedney set the standard for Orange tight ends. He held the school records for most receptions by a tight end in a season (34) and career (91) until 2011. His 34 catches and five touchdowns during the 1992 season helped propel Syracuse to a 10-2 record and a victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Gedney played seven seasons in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and Arizona Cardinals. In 2008, he returned to his alma mater as the Orange Club's assistant athletics director for major gifts. He was appointed senior associate athletics director for the Orange Club in 2011, a position he held until his passing in 2018. A member of Syracuse's All-Century Team, Gedney was named a 2015 ACC Football Legend. He also served as the color analyst for Syracuse IMG Sports Network football broadcasts from 2007-2017.

DWIGHT FREENEY

Defensive End • 2001 *

Freeney terrorized opposing quarterbacks from 1998-2001. He holds the Orange records for most sacks in a game (4.5 vs. Virginia Tech in 2000) and season (17.5 in 2001). He finished his career with 34 quarterback takedowns, second only to Tim Green on the Syracuse all-time list. Freeney was team MVP his junior year. As a senior in 2001, he was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection and shared BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year honors. He was also a finalist for the 2001 Lombardi, Bednarik and Nagurski awards. The Indianapolis Colts made Freeney the 11th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft. In 2004, Freeney led the NFL with 16 sacks. Two years later, he won a world championship when Indianapolis defeated the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI. Freeney also played for the San Diego Chargers, Arizona Cardinals, Atlanta Falcons, Seattle Seahawks and Detroit Lions during his pro career. He retired in 2018 with 125.5 career sacks.

ANDRE SZMYT

Placekicker • 2018 *

Originally a walk-on, Szmyt authored the best season on record for an Orange specialist as a freshman in 2018. Szmyt became the first player in team history to win the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker, connecting on 30-of-34 (.882) field goals and making all 61 of his extra-point attempts. He led the NCAA in almost every kicking category, including most made field goals. Additionally, Szmyt became the second placekicker in FBS history to lead the country in scoring average with 11.6 points per game. Szmyt was a 2018 All-ACC First Team selection and received All-America honors from 14 different selectors, including 12 first-team citations.

* - Unanimous selection

Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann (76) was an All-American in 1969, 1970 and 1972. He went on to play 10 seasons in the NFL, including eight with the Baltimore Colts.

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

ERNIE DAVIS • 1961

In 1961, running back Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State, in what was at the time the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771), to become the first African American and only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. Davis rushed for 823 yards and 12 touchdowns to lead the Orange to an 8-3 record and the No. 14 ranking in the final Associated Press college football poll. Davis was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in 1962 and traded to the Cleveland Browns. While preparing for the AFCA All-American Game in Buffalo, Davis was diagnosed with leukemia. He died in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming with former Syracuse great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns backfield. Davis' Heisman Trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex for all to enjoy.

SOLADAY AWARD

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange. The Syracuse Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

THE ZUNIC AWARD

Presented by Syracuse Football Club, the Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic, who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy gave up their seats in first class to sit at one of the exit doors. They both died in the crash and those in the Zunics' original seats survived.

Mike was a four-year starter at linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and master's ('82) degree from Syracuse University in speech communication.

KEY

 # - BIG EAST Conference (1991-2012), Atlantic Coast Conference (2013-present)

^ - The BIG EAST did not award a conference title in 1991 or 1992. Highest-ranked team in USA Today Coaches Poll was considered league champion.

 - Wins vacated by NCAA*

+ - Record includes 11 wins from 2004-06 vacated by NCAA

Game-by-game results for every Syracuse football season since 1889. Home games were played on campus at The Oval from 1895-1906 and at Archbold Stadium from 1907-1978. Home games in 1979 were played at various sites due to the construction of the Dome, which has served as the team's home venue since 1980.

Syracuse was a member of the BIG EAST Conference from 1991-2012. There were no BIG EAST standings for 1991 and 1992. The highest-ranked team in the USA Today Coaches Poll those seasons was declared conference champion. In 2013, Syracuse joined the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Rankings at the time the game was played are listed with Syracuse first (AP/Coaches) followed by its opponent (AP/Coaches). The AP poll began in 1936. From 1961-67, the AP ranked only the nation's top 10 teams. The coaches poll was a service of United Press (UP) and United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. In 1991, the coaches poll was taken over and released by USA Today.

Available game attendance figures are also listed.

NCAA STATISTICAL CHAMPIONS

The NCAA began producing its annual statistical rankings in 1937. From 1937 through 1969, all individual rankings were by season totals. Beginning in 1970, most season individual rankings were by per game averages. Punting always has been by average.

Beginning in 1970, passers were ranked on completions per game. Starting in 1979, they were ranked on efficiency rating points. The all-purpose running rankings have been compiled since 1970. Field-goal rankings began when the goal posts were widened in 1959.

Before 2002, bowl games were not included in NCAA final football statistics or records. Beginning with the 2002 season, all postseason games were included.

The NCAA retroactively determined the leaders in average yards per kickoff return and punt return from 1937 to 1969 and includes them in the official record book.

This list includes national leaders in additional statistical categories if known.

Return man Quinton Spotwood electrified Syracuse fans in 1997. He ran back an NCAA-best four punts for touchdowns.

In 2001, Dwight Freeney authored the best season of any Orange defender, leading the nation in both sacks and forced fumbles.

ORANGE IN OVERTIME (10-8)

Syracuse has played 18 extra-session games since the NCAA instituted overtime in 1996. In 2002, Syracuse became the first team in NCAA history to have two games settled in triple overtime in the same season.

The Associated Press college football poll was introduced in 1936. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1961 when it was revamped to include just the top 10 teams. The top-20 format returned in 1968 and was expanded to include the top 25 in 1989.

The coaches poll was a service of the United Press (UP) and United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. In 1991, the coaches poll was taken over and released by USA Today.

Bowl Championship Series (BCS) rankings were released from 1998-2013. The College Footbal Playoff (CFP) rankings debuted in 2014.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL

ORANGE IN THE PROS

2019

JIM BROWN

Jim Brown is the player all running backs are measured against. He is the only person enshrined in the College Football, Pro Football and National Lacrosse Halls of Fame. He was a unanimous collegiate All-American in both sports. The 6-2, 232-pound Brown was the top draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1957. He is considered by many to be the finest runner to ever play the game. He led the NFL in rushing in eight of his nine professional seasons. When Brown retired in July of 1966, he held the NFL records for single-season (1,863 in 1963) and career (12,312) rushing yardage, rushing touchdowns (106), total touchdowns (126) and career all-purpose yardage (15,549). He was voted to the Pro Bowl every season he played and was named the greatest professional football player of all-time by Sporting News in 2002.

JIM RINGO

One of the greatest linemen in pro football history, Jim Ringo was the center for Vince Lombardi's great Green Bay Packers teams, and also for the Philadelphia Eagles. Ringo earned All-NFL honors six times. He played in 10 Pro Bowls and three NFL championship games. Ringo was a member of Ben Schwartzwalder's 7-2 1952 squad that earned a trip to the Orange Bowl, Syracuse's first-ever bowl appearance.

LARRY CSONKA

Still considered the prototype for NFL fullbacks, Larry Csonka led the Miami Dolphins to an undefeated season and the Super Bowl title in 1972. He was the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns, as Miami defeated Minnesota, 24-7. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three straight 1,000-yard campaigns from 1971-73, leading the Dolphins to the Super Bowl each season.

AL DAVIS

A 1950 Syracuse University graduate, Al Davis was the owner of the Oakland Raiders from 1972 to 2011. He served as commissioner of the AFL in 1966 and was the driving force behind the AFL-NFL merger. From 1967-85, Davis' Raiders won an AFL championship, three Super Bowl titles and 13 division championships.

Syracuse's legacy in the Pro Football Hall of Fame ranks among the finest of any college football program. The Orange boast eight inductees, tied for the fIfth-most of any school. Jim Brown (1971) was the Orange's first representative enshrined in Canton. Marvin Harrison (2016) is Syracuse's most recent honoree. Three players (Art Monk, Floyd Little and Harrison) earned induction during the nine-year period from 2008 to 2016.

JOHN MACKEY

John Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He played 10 seasons in the NFL from 1963-72, including nine with the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler and All-Pro selection, Mackey caught 331 career passes for 5,236 yards and scored 38 touchdowns. He was a member of the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team and was named to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969. Mackey served as president of the NFL Players Association toward the end of his career and helped fight to establish free agency.

ART MONK

Considered one of football's most reliable receivers, Art Monk played for the Washington Redskins, New York Jets and Philadelphia Eagles during his 16-year NFL career that spanned from 1980 to 1995. Monk was selected by the Redskins in the 1980 NFL Draft and helped the franchise win three Super Bowl titles. He was voted to the Pro Bowl after the 1984, 1985 and 1986 seasons. Monk was the first receiver in league history to amass 900 career receptions. He made at least one reception in 183 straight games and finished his career with 940 catches.

FLOYD LITTLE

A multi-dimensional player, Floyd Little combined his rushing talents with great hands and elusiveness in the return game to become a superstar for the Denver Broncos. A five-time Pro Bowler, Little recorded more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during his career, which lasted from 1967 to 1975. He led the AFC in rushing in 1970 and posted the first 1,000-yard season in Denver history the next year, gaining a league-best 1,133 yards. At the time of his retirement, Little ranked seventh on the NFL's career rushing list (6,323 yards). He was a charter member of the Broncos Ring of Fame in 1984.

MARVIN HARRISON

An All-American for the Orange in 1995, Marvin Harrison played 13 seasons for the Indianapolis Colts and earned eight Pro Bowl invitations. As Peyton Manning's favorite target, Harrison posted eight 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including 1,366 yards in 2006 to help the Colts win their first Super Bowl in 36 years. Harrison holds the NFL single-season record for most catches (143 in 2002). At the time of his retirement, Harrison ranked second in league history with 1,102 catches for 14,580 yards and 128 touchdowns.

KENT SYVERUD

Chancellor & President

Kent Syverud is the 12th Chancellor and President of Syracuse University. A legal scholar and educator, Chancellor Syverud has earned distinction as a strategic thinker and visionary leader who has put forward a bold strategic plan to position the University for growth and recognition as a thriving global research university.

At Syracuse, Chancellor Syverud identified four key institutional priorities:

- providing an outstanding undergraduate experience;
- empowering research excellence;
- fostering and supporting change and innovation;
- positioning Syracuse as the best university in the world for veterans.

The Chancellor also launched a three-pronged initiative, Fast Forward Syracuse, to achieve these ambitious goals. It is an academic strategic planning process that:

- builds on historic institutional strengths;
- positions the University to anticipate and quickly respond to emerging challenges and opportunities;
- aligns the academic goals with a new framework for the physical transformation of the main campus.

A native of Irondequoit in Upstate New York, Chancellor Syverud came to Syracuse from Washington University in St. Louis, where he served as dean and the Ethan A.H. Shepley Distinguished University Professor at the School of Law. Prior to that, he served as dean at Vanderbilt Law School and as associate dean for academic affairs and a professor at the University of Michigan Law School. At Syracuse, he continues to teach each semester as a member of the College of Law and School of Education faculties. An elected member of the American Law Institute, Syverud's scholarship has addressed negotiation, civil litigation, dispute resolution and higher education.

Chancellor Syverud has a bachelor's degree from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service and a law degree and master's in economics from the University of Michigan. He counts among his closest mentors retired U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, for whom he clerked shortly after she became the first woman named to the Supreme Court bench.

In addition to his higher education leadership, Chancellor Syverud was appointed in October 2016 to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Academic Advisory Council, where he, and other academic leaders, advises DHS on homeland security, career opportunities for graduates, campus resilience and academic research. In January 2017, Chancellor Syverud began a two-year term as Commissioner for the Middle States Commission on Higher Education. In this role, Chancellor Syverud worked with his colleagues to refine and implement accreditation standards and define the strategic direction and processes of the Commission. In 2016, he completed six years of service as one of the two trustees of the $20 billion Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Trust.

Chancellor Syverud is married to Dr. Ruth Chen, an accomplished environmental toxicologist and professor of practice at Syracuse University's College of Engineering and Computer Science. They are the parents of three grown sons, Steven, Brian, and David; and they have one granddaughter.

"Our department is defined by integrity and a passion for all things Syracuse – the University, the student-athletes, all students, the community and the region. We will be known as a group that collaborates amongst one another in all facets and with all branches of the University. We want our program to be a point of pride for the entire University – our students, our alumni, the community and Orange fans worldwide."

– JOHN WILDHACK – DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

John Wildhack with head football coach Dino Babers. Wildhack was an executive at ESPN before taking the reins of Syracuse Athletics in 2016.

JOHN WILDHACK

Director of Athletics

A uniquely qualified leader with a vast knowledge of and passion for Syracuse University Athletics, former ESPN executive John Wildhack was named Syracuse's 11th director of athletics in July 2016.

At Syracuse, Wildhack leads the daily operations of a 20-sport athletics department with more than 600 student-athletes. During his tenure, he has worked diligently to create an environment that fosters academic and athletic excellence which prepares student-athletes to be leaders in our global society. Those efforts have resulted in tremendous success both on and off the field.

In Wildhack's first three years, 39 teams have represented Syracuse at national championship events, including 36 NCAA competitions. In 2018-19, a total of 14 programs qualified for their national championship. In addition, the football team returned to the postseason and captured its 16th bowl victory by defeating West Virginia in the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

The Orange have won 22 conference championships (three team, 19 individual) in that span and two national championships. Both national titles were courtesy of Justyn Knight, who won the NCAA Cross Country Championship and the NCAA Indoor Championship in the 5,000 meter-run during the 2017-18 academic year.

Syracuse student-athletes are succeeding at a high rate in the classroom, as well. The Orange had a record seven teams post perfect four-year scores in the 2019 release of the Academic Progress Rate (APR), and the University's four-year average of 987 is the highest since APR tracking began in 2006. As a group, the Orange student-athlete body achieved better than a 3.0 cumulative GPA in 2018-19, the third year in a row they surpassed that benchmark.

Since his arrival on campus, Wildhack has overseen multiple strategic initiatives to ensure the future success of the department. Among the most impactful have been securing a $118 million investment from the University for enhancements to the Dome and the formation of an in-house production unit.

Authorized by the Board of Trustees in May 2018, the $118 million in funds enables the University to move forward with improvements to the Dome, which include a new fixed roof, vertically-hung scoreboard, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems.

The Syracuse Athletics Production team formed in the fall of 2017. In its first two years, the group broadcast 205 live events and was responsible for more than 700 hours of content for the ACC's digital platform – ACC Network Extra.

During his distinguished career at ESPN, which spanned more than 30 years, Wildhack held a number of leadership roles and was responsible for several firsts at the network. Those firsts included producing ESPN's first live regular-season college football game in September 1984 and its first live NFL game in August 1987.

Before joining the Orange, Wildhack most recently served as the network's executive vice president for programming and production. He was responsible for oversight of all ESPN and ABC game, event and studio production work for domestic and international television and radio, as well as programming acquisitions, rights-holder relationship management and scheduling. He managed all league and conference relationships, negotiated all live sports television rights and was responsible for 50,000 hours of on-air content annually.

From 2007 to 2012, Wildhack was ESPN's executive vice president for programming and acquisitions. In that role, he oversaw all rights negotiations and managed relationships with rights holders for all ESPN entities. These included ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Classic, ESPNews, ESPN Deportes, ESPNU, ESPN International, ESPN Radio, ESPN.com, ESPN3, ESPN Mobile Properties, print and more. In 2009, he began leading strategic program planning for all ESPN television networks, ESPN on ABC and ESPN's digital platforms.

Wildhack's managerial role at the company began in 1990 when he was named director of event productions. In 1991, he was promoted to vice president for remote production, a position he held through 1993 when he became senior vice president for remote production. In September 1994, he moved to the programming department as senior vice president for programming, and in 2005 he became senior vice president for programming acquisitions & strategy. Wildhack was directly involved in the renewal and expansion of many ESPN and ESPN2 programming agreements for the NFL, MLB, NBA, Bowl Championship Series, NCAA, tennis' four Grand Slam events and a variety of major college conferences. His efforts were integral to the increase of live and original programming on ESPN and ESPN2. Under his direction, the evolution of ESPN2's programming lineup included an extensive commitment to auto racing and college football and basketball, leading to ESPN2 becoming the fastest growing network of the 1990s.

Wildhack first joined ESPN as a production assistant in 1980. He served in a number of production positions prior to his move to the management track, including production assistant, associate producer, senior associate producer, producer, coordinating producer and director of event productions. Among the sports he worked on were college football, NCAA basketball, boxing, golf and auto racing. He served as coordinating producer for ESPN's "Sunday Night Football" and NFL Draft telecasts in 1988 and 1989 and produced NFL games for the network – the first NFL games on cable – from 1987-89.

A native of Buffalo, New York and a 1980 alumnus of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications with a degree in telecommunications, Wildhack joined ESPN in its first year of operation immediately following his graduation. An active alumnus of the University, he sits on the Advisory Board for the David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics and was an honoree at the "Newhouse at 40" Gala.

He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Tommy and James. John is also the father of a son, M.J.

HERMAN FRAZIER

Senior Deputy Director of Athletics

Veteran athletics administrator Herman Frazier was promoted to senior deputy director of athletics in May 2016. Frazier joined the Syracuse staff as deputy athletics director/chief of staff in 2011.

A native of Philadelphia, Frazier boasts more than 40 years of experience in athletics administration, including eight years as an athletics director. He has overseen the participation of the Syracuse football team in three bowl games, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl. In 2012, Frazier received the NACDA Pioneer Award for his position as Chef de Mission for the 2004 Olympic Games.

Before coming to Syracuse, Frazier was the senior associate athletics director for sports administration at Temple. Prior to joining the Owls, Frazier served six years as the director of athletics at Hawaii. He was also the director of athletics at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB).

At Temple, Frazier supervised the football, basketball, baseball, soccer and crew programs, and was the administrative liaison for budget, compliance, financial aid, coaching searches, scheduling, academic support, facility issues, event management, media relations and marketing. He was also responsible for administrative supervision of the equipment operation, facilities, event management, sports medicine and strength and conditioning. Frazier handled the administrative logistics for Temple's appearance in the 2009 Eagle Bank Bowl and the men's basketball team's 2010 and 2011 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Frazier was the athletics director at Hawaii from 2002 through 2008, where he guided the Warriors to unparalleled success. Under Frazier's direction, the football team earned a spot in the 2008 Sugar Bowl following an unbeaten regular season and garnered four consecutive bowl bids, while the volleyball program advanced to back-to-back Final Fours. During his tenure, Frazier created premium seat donations, established a five-year financial plan, negotiated head coaching contracts for football and women's basketball, and was instrumental in bringing an Olympic trials event to Honolulu.

Frazier's first athletics director post was at UAB in 2000. As the second director of athletics in the history of the school, Frazier started a $30 million facility improvement plan and was responsible for instituting new management concepts and a strategic master plan for athletics.

Frazier began his career in administration immediately upon graduation from Arizona State, joining the Sun Devils staff as a graduate assistant for the track & field program in 1977. In 1979, he was appointed assistant director of events and facilities. During his 23-year tenure at ASU, Frazier moved up the ranks to the position of senior associate athletics director for business operations. He was the administrator for 10 Olympic sports that won numerous national championships, and the football program, which earned two Rose Bowl berths. He also directed business affairs, operations and stadium management.

An eight-time All-America track performer at ASU, Frazier was the leadoff runner for the 1976 Olympic gold medal-winning 4x400 relay team. From 1980 through 2004, Frazier served on various United States Olympic committees, including two stints as the U.S. Olympic Committee vice president from 1996 through 2004. In 2004, he was named Chef de Mission for the U.S. delegation at the Athens Olympics and presided over the most successful U.S. Olympic team in history, as the Americans won 103 medals.

Frazier is a current member of the NCAA Division I Track & Field Committee, representing both Syracuse University and the Atlantic Coast Conference. It's Frazier's second time serving on the committee, including a term as chairman from 1994-95 while he was at Arizona State.

ANDREW T. GOODRICH

Deputy AD/Chief Marketing Officer

Dr. Andrew T. Goodrich joined the Syracuse Athletics senior leadership team as the deputy athletics director/chief marketing officer in November 2018 after serving as the senior associate athletics director for external relations at the University of South Florida since 2014. Goodrich has also worked at the University of Miami and Notre Dame.

In his short time at Syracuse, Goodrich has already made an impact. He and his external relations team directed the effort that resulted in more than 7,000 new football season tickets sold for 2019. In men's basketball, Syracuse led the nation in average home attendance (21,992) during the 2018-19 season and drew an NCAA on-campus record crowd of 35,642 for the Duke game on Feb.23, 2019. Goodrich was also integral to extending the department's relationship with Nike as the official apparel provider of Syracuse Athletics, a deal that was announced in June 2019.

At USF, Goodrich was responsible for leading the Bulls' business strategy, revenue generation, ticket operations, ticket sales, corporate sponsorship, merchandising and USF Athletics licensing (CLC) initiatives. Additionally, Goodrich supervised marketing and strategic communications, which included digital and social media strategy, Bulls Vision audio/video production, branding, as well as in-game presentation and fan experience enterprises.

Goodrich played a key role in several revenue-generating contracts, including multi-year deals with Adidas, Fanatics, the Aspire Group and Follett. He signed a multi-media rights agreement with Tampa Bay Entertainment Properties and secured naming rights for the Yuengling Center.

Goodrich worked as USF's assistant athletics director of administration from 2005 to 2010.

At Miami, Goodrich served as the associate athletics director for marketing and sales, where he established innovative advertising, promotional and sales strategies via e-commerce, digital, mobile and social media platforms. His forward-thinking approach helped the Hurricanes set attendance records in many sports, including football, men's basketball and volleyball.

A native of Owego, N.Y., Goodrich was the director of athletics at Owego Free Academy before working with the Hurricanes. His previous work experience also includes serving as a financial analyst at IBM, where he managed the IBM Global Accounts Payable Business Data Warehouse.

A speaker at numerous college athletics conventions and events, Goodrich earned his doctorate in higher education administration from USF in 2015. He also holds an MBA in marketing management from Notre Dame, where he served as a marketing graduate assistant, and a bachelor's degree in business from Cumberland University.

At Cumberland, Goodrich earned academic all-conference honors in baseball and was a member of the 1998 team that reached the NAIA College World Series. Goodrich has previously taught business communications, sports marketing, fundraising and athletic administration courses during his career. He currently serves on the Collegiate Steering Committee for the Sports & Entertainment Alliance with Technology (SEAT) consortium and the InStadium Collegiate Team Advisory Council.

KRISTEN JONES KOLOD

Deputy AD/Chief Financial Officer

Kristen Jones Kolod moved to the Department of Athletics from Syracuse University's Division of Student Affairs in December 2016 to serve as deputy athletics director and chief financial officer.

Jones Kolod's primary responsibility is to manage the department's budget to ensure fiscal responsibility. Additionally, she works with multiple University departments that impact Syracuse Athletics financially, including Budget and Planning, Human Resources, Campus Planning, Design and Construction, and the Office of Advancement and External Affairs.

Prior to her current appointment, Jones Kolod was the executive director of budget and administrative operations for Student Affairs for eight years. Before that, she was the director of budget and operations for Student Affairs.

Jones Kolod has extensive experience in financial management and analysis, business process improvements and efficiencies, the development and implementation of policies and procedures, and project management.

Before joining the University, Jones Kolod was the manager of financial planning and analysis for the Division of Commercial Systems and Services at United Technologies Corporation. Her previous positions include manager of finance and accounting services at Carrier Corporation – North American Operations, and manager of corporate payroll for the Penn Traffic Company.

Jones Kolod holds a bachelor's degree in accounting and a master's degree in business administration – both from Le Moyne College. She resides in Pompey with her husband, Alex, and daughter, Sierra.

KIMBERLY KEENAN-KIRKPATRICK

Deputy AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Kimberly Keenan-Kirkpatrick joined the Syracuse Department of Athletics as the deputy athletics director/senior woman administrator in August 2015. She came to Syracuse from Seton Hall, where she worked as a member of the school's athletics administration since 2006.

At Syracuse, Keenan-Kirkpatrick is the sport supervisor for women's basketball, women's lacrosse, men's soccer and cross country/track & field. Additionally, she oversees Syracuse Student-Athlete Development and serves as liaison with the University's Office of Equal Opportunity, Inclusion and Resolution Services.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick was associate director of athletics for compliance at Seton Hall for five years before her promotion to senior associate director of athletics in 2011. Her responsibilities included directing Seton Hall's compliance program and serving as the sport administrator for multiple programs. She also chaired the BIG EAST Track & Field and Cross Country Seeding committees during her time there.

Before working at Seton Hall, Keenan-Kirkpatrick was the associate athletics director and senior woman administrator at Lafayette College for four years. She served in the same capacities at Kutztown University from 1996-2002. Keenan-Kirkpatrick got her start in athletics administration as Drew University's business manager and head cross country coach.

A track & field standout at Kent State, Keenan-Kirkpatrick earned the Mid-American Conference's (MAC) Bob James Memorial Postgraduate Scholarship and placed second in the 5,000-meter run at the MAC Indoor Championship her senior year.

An accomplished coach, Keenan-Kirkpatrick has demonstrated her instructional acumen multiple times on the world stage. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. Track & Field team at the 2005 World Championship and 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China. In both instances, she worked with America's distance runners.

In 2011, Keenan-Kirkpatrick transitioned to a management role for USA Track & Field, serving as the head women's manager for the Pan American Games in Guadalajara, Mexico. Most recently, she was the track & field event manager for the U.S. men and women at the 2015 Pan Am Games in Toronto.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick earned her law degree from Seton Hall in 1993. She also holds an undergraduate degree in psychology from Kent State. She and her husband, Brian, live in Manlius with their two daughters, Libbie and Madison. Libbie Kirkpatrick is a student at Syracuse University.

ANTHONY DI FINO

Associate AD/Business Development

Syracuse native Anthony Di Fino joined the Orange staff as associate athletics director for business development in March 2016.

Di Fino is responsible for developing strategic marketing campaigns intended to cultivate community relationships and build support for Syracuse Athletics. He is a member of the external relations team that steers decisions on marketing, fundraising, ticketing, sponsorship and communications initiatives. Upon his arrival, Di Fino implemented a new data-driven approach to revenue production and he is responsible for Syracuse's first dynamic pricing model.

During his first three years, Di Fino and his sales staff reached several milestones. Leading up to the 2019 season, more than 7,000 new football season tickets had been sold, the second-most all-time at Syracuse. In 2017, the sales team was responsible for more than 4,200 new season tickets, third-most all-time. Additionally, their efforts were the driving force behind Syracuse winning the 2018-19 men's basketball attendance crown, which included an NCAA on-campus record crowd of 35,642 for the Duke game. In 2017, the Orange women's basketball team set the school attendance record, drawing 11,021 fans for its game against Notre Dame.

Di Fino's previous experience includes positions at IMG Learfield (IMGL) Ticket Solutions and in the athletics departments at Army West Point, Columbia and Fordham.

The 2013 IMGL General Manager of the Year and 2014 IMGL Executive of the Year, Di Fino rose quickly through the company's ranks. He served as the IMGL general manager at Akron from 2011 to 2013, and worked as the general manager at Penn State from May 2013 to August 2014.

In August 2014, Di Fino was promoted to IMGL Northeast Regional Manager. In that capacity, he directed the sales efforts for 13 IMGL properties. Di Fino instituted pricing strategy, developed sales schedules and campaigns, directed overall marketing strategies and supervised the general managers at each property.

During his Akron tenure, Di Fino led a sales team that increased new revenues by 72 percent, highlighted by an 860 percent increase in partial plans and a 91 percent growth rate in group sales. At Penn State, he directed a sales force that sold more than 5,000 new seasons tickets for two consecutive years and oversaw a growth in group sales of more than 200 percent.

Prior to joining IMG Learfield, Di Fino served as the assistant athletics director for ticket sales and client services for Army West Point. He oversaw all ticket sales efforts, as well as tailgating and marketing strategies, for the Black Knights. Di Fino's previous experience also includes working as the ticket manager at Columbia and as a marketing assistant at Fordham.

An active member of the Syracuse community, Di Fino currently serves on the board of Young Leaders United. Part of the United Way of CNY, the group is comprised of young Central New York professionals whose mission is to promote and encourage the spirit of philanthropy and volunteerism among young people in the area.

Di Fino was a member of the Fordham football team and graduated from the school in 2006. He earned his master's degree from Columbia in 2009.

SUE EDSON

Executive Senior Associate AD/ Chief Communications Officer

As the chief communications officer for Syracuse Athletics, Sue Edson is responsible for all public relations and media relations functions for the department.

Edson serves as a member of the department's senior leadership group and external relations team, which includes communications, marketing, tickets, fundraising, corporate sales, digital media and athletics production. She supervises the Athletic Communications Department and works closely with University Marketing and Communications on athletics-related matters.

The athletics communications staff is responsible for the dissemination of information for Syracuse's 20 intercollegiate sports teams to appropriate organizations. The unit manages the department's website (Cuse.com) and social media channels, acts as a liaison with external media, and educates administrators, coaches and student-athletes with regard to public speaking and interviewing skills.

A 30-year veteran of Syracuse Athletics, Edson was promoted to her current role in the spring of 2015. Previously, she served as associate director of athletics for communications from 2006-14 after working as assistant director of athletics for communications (2004-06) and director of athletic communications (1997-2004). Edson was inducted into the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame in 2012.

Prior to her appointment as director of athletic communications in 1997, Edson was an assistant director for seven years, including four years as the department's publications coordinator. As publications coordinator, she was responsible for the production of 16 media guides. In addition, she handled the day-to-day public relations duties for women's basketball.

Edson began her career at Syracuse in 1990 as an assistant sports information director where she was responsible for handling the public relations efforts for the Orange's 17 Olympic sports.

In 2006, Edson was honored with the Eastern College Athletic Conference-Sports Information Directors Association's (ECAC-SIDA) Irving T. Marsh Award for excellence in the field of sports information. The following year, she was recognized with the Greater Syracuse '40 Under 40' award for her contributions to the workplace and local community.

Edson has been the media coordinator for the NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional in Syracuse five times and served as the media coordinator for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship at the Dome in 2016 and 2019. She served on the ECAC-SIDA Board of Directors for eight years and was the organization's president in 2002-03.

Previously an adjunct professor in Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, Edson taught a class in sports public relations from 1994 through 2013.

Edson graduated from Syracuse in 1990 with a dual degree in broadcast journalism and policy studies.

Edson resides in Jamesville. She has two children. Her son, Thomas, is a junior at Ithaca College. Her daughter, Tracey, attends Jamesville-DeWitt High School. Edson's late husband, Rob, was an athletics administrator at Syracuse and the director of athletics at Onondaga Community College before his passing in 2013.

Edson is a member of the Greater Syracuse Sports Hall of Fame Board of Directors and the Women's Fund of Central New York Leadership Council. Previously, she was co-president of the Jamesville-DeWitt Youth Athletic Association Board of Directors and served as co-coordinator of the basketball program.

ANDREW HURLEY

Executive Director/Athletics Development

A seasoned major-gift fundraiser with more than 25 years of experience at the Division I level, Andrew Hurley joined the Athletics Development staff in October of 2017. He was promoted to executive director in March 2019.

In his role, Hurley is responsible for the creation and implementation of all athletics fundraising efforts for the 20 men's and women's sports programs, including facilities. He oversees the day-to-day athletics development operations and staff, and was the driving force behind the launch of the Orange's Club's new Donor Rank system.

Hurley's previous work experience includes closing multiple major gifts for schools like Cal State Fullerton, Cincinnati and Buffalo. In addition to his background in major gifts, Hurley possesses skills in strategic planning, budgeting, operations, personnel, compliance, academic affairs, student-athlete welfare, sport supervision and facility planning.

As the senior associate athletic director for external relations at Cincinnati from 2006 to 2014, Hurley was a member of the senior staff. His focus was on external relations functions and revenue generation to support 18 teams and 547 student-athletes in a department with an approximate annual budget of $50 million.

Hurley served as the assistant athletic director for development at Buffalo from 1997 to 2006, managing all fund-development efforts within the department. He also spent several years as the director of development for Special Olympics New York.

Hurley holds an undergraduate degree from Buffalo and a master's degree in sport administration from UMass Amherst.

JORDAN KLIGERMAN

Assistant AD/Creative Services

Jordan Kligerman joined Syracuse Athletics as the department's creative media specialist in August 2016. He was promoted to assistant director of athletics for creative services in 2017.

Kligerman supervises the department's video production and design teams, which create assets for the Orange's social media platforms, as well as for commercial, fundraising and public service purposes. Additionally, he plays an integral role in the planning and execution of the gameday experience for football and men's basketball. Kligerman's other duties include producing special events such as the 'Cuse Awards, Letterwinner of Distinction Banquet and Hardwood Club Banquet.

Prior to joining the department full-time, Kligerman produced events, commercials and other content for Syracuse Athletics as the principal owner and operator of fireKmedia. Kligerman managed his own firm for 10 years with a client base that included NFL Films, the National Basketball Players Association and Aspen Dental.

In 2015-16, Kligerman was appointed a visiting assistant professor for broadcast production at SUNY Oswego.

A three-year lacrosse letterwinner, Kligerman graduated from the University of Delaware in 1996. He spent eight years working with NFL Films as a production manager, coordinator and assistant. During that time, Kligerman helped produce content for ABC, FOX, NBC, ESPN and NFL Network.

In 2004, Kligerman enrolled in The City College of New York's graduate program in media arts. He was awarded a master's degree in media arts and documentary directing in 2006.

MOREY MOSSOVITZ

Associate AD/Facilities & Event Operations

Associate Athletics Director Morey Mossovitz was elevated to his current position in July 2018 after serving as assistant athletics director of facilities and event operations since August 2011. Mossovitz began his career in administration at Syracuse in the specialized role of facilities coordinator with academic support responsibilities.

Mossovitz oversees the daily operations, facility upkeep and renovation projects for the Lampe Athletics Complex. He is the supervisor for Manley Field House, the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, Iocolano-Petty Football Complex, Ensley Athletic Center, SU Soccer Stadium, J.S. Coyne Stadium, Wohl Field, Hookway Fields, the Skytop Softball Stadium and select Dome events.

Mossovitz provides administrative support to University Vice President and Chief Facilities Officer Pete Sala and serves as the department's liaison with University Parking Services, the Department of Public Safety, EMS, Visit Syracuse, the Office of Government and Community Relations, and Recreation Services.

As game manager for all Olympic sporting events, and tournament manager for select Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA events, Mossovitz works with nearly every program on campus. He was the tournament manager for the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional. In 2016, he was appointed the administrator in charge of overseeing Syracuse's camps and clinics.

Mossovitz earned his bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in educational studies from Syracuse University in 2008. Two years later, he received his master's degree in student affairs counseling from the University. In May 2019, Mossovitz completed Drexel University's educational leadership and management doctoral program.

During his undergraduate and postgraduate career, Mossovitz served as team manager, graduate assistant and assistant director of camps for the Orange men's lacrosse program.

A native of Baltimore, Maryland, Mossovitz is an alumnus of St. Paul's School for Boys. He currently lives in Fayetteville with his wife, Elizabeth, their daughter, Lucy, and their dog, Penny.

JAMIE MULLIN

Senior Associate AD/Administration

Jamie Mullin was promoted to senior associate athletics director for administration in July 2013 after serving in multiple roles during his time at Syracuse.

Mullin was hired as the Orange's director of compliance in July 2003. He was promoted to associate director of athletics for team services in 2006, and served as associate director of athletics for administration prior to his current appointment.

Mullin is the department's liaison to Syracuse's Office of University Counsel, Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Admissions, and Financial Aid. In addition, he is responsible for athletics policy development and strategic planning. Mullin also provides managerial support to the equipment staff, sports nutrition staff and video support services. He is the sport administrator for men's lacrosse, women's ice hockey, field hockey and men's and women's rowing.

Before coming to Syracuse, Mullin worked at Fresno State for two years. He was named Fresno State's director of compliance in June 2001 and was promoted to assistant athletics director for compliance a year later. Mullin also previously worked in the compliance office at Central Michigan as an assistant from August 1999 through May 2001.

Mullin received his bachelor's degree in history from Northern Michigan. He also holds a master's degree in sport administration from Central Michigan.

Jamie and his wife, Sara, reside in Jamesville with their sons, Tate and Quinn.

BRAD PIKE

Associate AD/Sports Medicine

A veteran sports medicine professional, Brad Pike was appointed associate athletics director for sports medicine in October 2016. Pike oversees all aspects of Syracuse's Sports Medicine Department and serves as the health care administrator for Syracuse Athletics.

Since 2000, Pike has worked with the men's basketball program and directed injury rehabilitation for all sports. In 2005, Pike was named head athletic trainer and director of sports medicine after serving as an associate athletic trainer for the Orange for five years. Pike previously worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Syracuse from 1989-91. Before returning to the University in 2000, Pike spent nine years working in outpatient physical therapy centers.

A 1989 graduate of Marietta College in Ohio, Pike majored in sports medicine as an undergraduate and received his master's degree in education from Syracuse University in 1991. He was awarded a bachelor's degree in physical therapy from the SUNY Health Science Center in 1994.

Pike is proficient in full-body active release techniques (ART), sound-assisted soft tissue mobilization (SASTM), and is a certified National Academy of Sports Medicine Performance Specialist (PES) and Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES). His special interests include exercise recovery and strength training.

A certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), the College Athletic Trainers Society, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association, and the New York State Athletic Trainers Association, Pike has presented at numerous symposiums and workshops.

Brad and his wife, Lynne, have two children – Ryan and Emily. Ryan Pike graduated from Syracuse University in 2018. The Pikes reside in Jamesville.

TOMMY POWELL

Assistant Provost/
Student-Athlete Academic Development

Tommy Powell came to Syracuse University as assistant provost for student-athlete academic development in August 2013. Powell has a strong history in guiding student-athletes to success in the classroom and in the community.

Under Powell's leadership, Syracuse had a record seven teams receive perfect four-year scores in the 2019 Academic Progress Rate (APR), the fourth-most among Power-Five schools. Additionally, 11 individuals have combined for 16 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards since Powell arrived on campus.

Powell joined the Orange staff from Iowa State, where he had served as the associate athletics director for academic services since 2008. While with the Cyclones, Powell implemented a standard comprehensive academic support program for all student-athletes. The program helped student-athletes attain a higher cumulative GPA than the general student population from 2011 to 2013. Iowa State's 79 percent federal graduation rate in 2010 was the highest in the Big 12 and seventh-best among FBS schools. In 2009, Iowa State's CHAMPS/Life Skills program earned the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association National Program of Excellence Award.

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Powell was the associate director of the LSU Academic Center for Student-Athletes from 2001 to 2008. In addition to serving as the academic coordinator for several teams, including football and basketball, Powell monitored the progress toward degree and eligibility requirements for at-risk student-athletes.

Powell began his academic support career at LSU, where he worked as an academic counselor for the College of Arts and Sciences for two years. He was the director of counseling services at River Parishes Community College from 1998 to 2000 before serving as director of the TRIO Dissemination Partnership Program at Southeastern Louisiana University in 2000 and 2001. The program trained and supervised college faculty on the implementation of supplemental instruction.

Powell earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992 and his master's degree in counseling in 1995 from Southeastern Louisiana. He and his wife, Deborah, have two sons, Tyler and Ethan.

PETE SALA

University Vice President/Chief Facilities Officer

Pete Sala is the University's vice president and chief facilities officer. In addition to managing the operations of Syracuse's athletic facilities, Sala is responsible for all University building projects. He oversees multiple departments on campus, including Campus Planning, Design and Construction, Business and Facilities Maintenance Services, Physical Plant, Housing and Food Services Maintenance and Energy Systems & Sustainability Management.

A member of Chancellor Kent Syverud's Executive Team, Sala is the construction manager for the West Campus Project, which includes a $118 million investment by the University for enhancements to the Dome.

Sala started his career at the Dome in 1982 as a production assistant and advanced through the ranks to production manager in 1988 and operations manager in 1991. He served as assistant director of facility operations for the building from 1991 through June 2005 when he was promoted to associate director of athletics for facilities. In 2010, Sala assumed the role of managing director of the Dome. He previously served as Syracuse's interim director of athletics from mid-March to July 6, 2015.

At the Dome, Sala is responsible for all day-to-day operations of the facility, including coordinating and scheduling events, managing the box office, maintaining the budget and overseeing building maintenance. He supervises a full-time staff of 35, a part-time staff of more than 400, and nearly 100 students who assist in Dome operations and facility changeovers.

Along with his Dome responsibilities, Sala is the construction manager for all athletics facility upgrades and new building projects, including additions like the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center and Ensley Athletic Center.

A 1979 graduate of Jamesville-DeWitt High School, Sala attended Morrisville College before transferring to the University of Massachusetts, where he completed the school's turf management program.

Pete and his wife, Laurie, have a son, Jake. The Salas reside in Jamesville.

BRETT WALLACE

Assistant AD/Marketing & Sales

Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Sales Brett Wallace joined the Orange staff in February 2017.

Wallace came to Syracuse after working in premium ticket sales for the Cleveland Browns for two years. He boasts an additional year of experience in NFL ticket sales, having worked for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2013 to 2014.

Wallace, who began his ticket sales career with the Lake Erie Monsters of the American Hockey League in 2010, also has two years of NBA experience. He worked as a business development specialist and premium sales consultant/night sales manager for the Cleveland Cavaliers.

At Syracuse, Wallace is responsible for training, developing and supervising an athletics department ticket sales staff that focuses on football, men's and women's basketball, and men's lacrosse. He is involved in coordinating community events and collaborates with marketing, fundraising and the ticket operations teams.

The Orange have reached several sales and attendance milestones since Wallace came on board. Leading up to the 2019 season, more than 7,000 new football season tickets had been sold, the second-highest total on record at Syracuse. Additionally, the sales staff's efforts were the driving force behind the men's basketball team winning the NCAA attendance crown in 2018-19. The achievement included an NCAA on-campus record crowd of 35,642 for the Duke game. In 2017, the Orange women's basketball team set the school attendance record, drawing 11,021 fans for its game against Notre Dame.

In his role with the Browns, Wallace sold a vast array of premium inventory for suites, contracted club seats and all-inclusive clubs. He renewed Browns members annually and helped train and mentor the inside sales team.

During his year-long stint in Philadelphia, Wallace sold suite leases, contracted club seats and other premium inventory. With the Cavaliers, Wallace worked with the corporate sales staff on premium sales elements, renewed season tickets, sold suite leases, floor seats, clubs seats and premium group packages. As Cleveland's business development specialist, he was responsible for the Cavaliers' hospitality and business programs, and sold season-ticket and partial season-ticket plans.

A native of Upstate New York, Wallace earned his bachelor's degree from SUNY Cortland in 2008 and his master's degree from Newcastle University in 2009.

MARK WHEELER

Associate AD/Compliance

Mark Wheeler was named Syracuse's director of compliance in October 2015 after previously serving in the same position at Boise State for two years. In April 2017, Wheeler was promoted to associate director of athletics for compliance.

Wheeler reports directly to the Office of University Counsel and works closely with Director of Athletics John Wildhack. He is responsible for managing all aspects of the University's compliance program, including educating coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff and other University officials about NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference, College Hockey America and Intercollegiate Rowing Association rules and regulations. He oversees all compliance processes and procedures dealing with the University's monitoring of recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and certification.

While at Boise State, Wheeler led the Broncos' compliance department. He created and delivered a comprehensive education curriculum for coaches, non-coaching staff, student-athletes, boosters and other constituents. Additionally, he provided NCAA and Mountain West Conference rules interpretations for coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Before joining the Broncos, Wheeler was the assistant director of compliance at Ohio State for one year, managing all areas of compliance for the men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's track & field programs.

Wheeler's previous experience includes serving as an athletic compliance coordinator/graduate assistant at Pepperdine from August 2011 to May 2012. While there, Wheeler was integral to rebuilding compliance processes and procedures. He drafted compliance manuals for coaches, new hires and interns. Wheeler also completed internships at Brigham Young University and Paradigm Sports Management during his career.

In 2012, Wheeler passed the bar exam in California. He received his Juris Doctorate from Pepperdine the same year. He earned his undergraduate degree in management from BYU in 2009.

Wheeler and his wife, Kaela, have three sons – Bennett, Anders and Theo.

RICK BURTON

Faculty Athletics Representative

Rick Burton is the David B. Falk Endowed Professor of Sport Management in Syracuse University's David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics. He has served as the Orange's faculty athletics representative to the NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference since 2014. In addition to his duties as faculty athletics representative, Burton teaches in Syracuse's Renee Crown Honors Program. He's served as a visiting professor at Kufstein Tirol University in Austria, as well as the International Olympic Academy in Olympia, Greece. He was selected as the Falk College Faculty Member of the Year for Teaching in 2011 and 2013.

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse in August 2009, Burton was the chief marketing officer for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC) at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, directing the USOC's partnerships for International Olympic Committee (IOC) and USOC sponsorship activation.

From 2003-07, Burton was the commissioner of Australia's Sydney-based National Basketball League (NBL) and was responsible for every aspect of the NBL's development and growth. This included securing lucrative broadcast rights fees, naming rights sponsorships, player and referee collective bargaining agreements, and league profitability.

From 1995-2003, Burton led the University of Oregon's Warsaw Sports Marketing Center to international prominence. He served as both its director and executive director (1998-03). During his tenure, Burton initiated Oregon's engagement with Fudan University in Shanghai, China, and worked closely with Nike as they developed their business efforts there. While at Oregon, he also created the Burton Marketing Group, working almost exclusively in league management and sponsorship for entities such as IMG, the U.S. Basketball Academy, Philippine Basketball Association (PBA), Japanese Pro Soccer league (J-League), National Football League (NFL), National Hockey League (NHL), Australian NBL, Visa, multiple NFL teams, Professional Bull Riders, FedEx, TSE and Sport Accord.

In the mid-1990s, Burton supervised numerous clients ranging from the NFL to Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Gillette, Sprint and Universal Studios, while serving as a vice president for the sports and entertainment marketing agency Clarion Performance Properties in Greenwich, Conn.

During the last 20 years, Burton's scholarly research and commentary has been published in Sport Marketing Quarterly, International Journal of Sports Marketing and Sponsorship, Journal of Applied Sport Management, Journal of Sport, Nine, SAIS Review, Marketing Management, Journal of Brand Strategy, Journal of Marketing Communications, Industrial Marketing Management, International Marketing Review, Football Studies and Journal of Sponsorship, among others.

Burton began his career as a sportswriter in Syracuse before moving on to the Miller Brewing Company in Milwaukee. He worked there for 12 years in brand management and sports public relations. He served as national advertising manager for Miller Lite's award-winning "Less Filling – Tastes Great" advertising campaign and also worked as a brand manager for Sharp's and Lowenbrau.

Burton has written two books on sports marketing and is co-author of the book "20 Secrets to Success for NCAA Student-Athletes Who Won't Go Pro." In addition, he is co-author of the textbook "Global Sport Marketing: Sponsorship, Ambush Marketing and the Olympic Games." In 2016, Burton finished a book for Syracuse University Press on his collected opinion columns from Sports Business Journal titled "Sports Business Unplugged: Leadership Challenges from the World of Sports."

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 67th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 160 national championships, including 79 in men's competition, 79 in women's and two in men's and women's fencing. Additionally, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 185 times in men's competition and 140 times in women's action.

Last season, Clemson won the league's eighth football national championship with a 44-16 win over previously unbeaten Alabama. The 28-point margin of victory was the largest over a No. 1 ranked team in ACC history. It was the Tigers' third overall title and second in the last three years.

With the Tigers' victory, the ACC has now won three of the last six football national championships (Clemson 2016, 2018; Florida State 2013), which leads all leagues.

In addition to its success in the College Football Playoff, the ACC matched its league record with 11 bowl teams last year: Clemson (15-0), NC State (9-4), Syracuse (10-3), Boston College (7-5), Duke (8-5), Georgia Tech (7-6), Miami (7-6), Virginia (8-5), Pitt (7-7), Wake Forest (7-6) and Virginia Tech (6-7). The 11 bowls teams tied for the most among any conference.

Over the last three years, the ACC has had a nation's best 32 teams in bowl games and it is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl. At least six ACC teams have made bowl appearances in 17 consecutive seasons. The ACC finished the bowl season with a 6-5 record, which does not include Boston College's bowl game versus Boise State that was canceled due to weather. The six postseason wins tied for the most among all conferences, and the ACC's 19 postseason wins over the last three seasons (2016-18) are the most of any conference.

The ACC has five active coaches with 100 or more victories – by far the most of any conference. Mack Brown, who returns to North Carolina for a second stint with the Tar Heels, has the most wins of any active coach with 244. He is joined by Wake Forest's Dave Clawson (118), Clemson's Dabo Swinney (116), Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall (115) and Duke's David Cutcliffe (111).

The ACC continues to make its mark in the annual NFL Draft, as the league had seven players selected in the first round of this year's draft, the second-highest total by any conference. The ACC has had 86 first-round draft picks in the last 15 years, beginning with the 2005 draft.

Eleven of the 14 teams had at least one draft selection, including Clemson with a league-best six. Miami had five draftees, followed by Boston College and NC State with four. Florida State and Virginia each had two. Duke, North Carolina, Pitt, Syracuse and Wake Forest had one each.

Last season saw three ACC players take home major individual awards. NC State's Garrett Bradbury was named the 2018 Rimington Trophy winner as the nation's most outstanding center. Syracuse kicker Andre Szmyt won the Lou Groza Award, which honors the country's best placekicker, and Clemson's Clelin Ferrell, the ACC Defensive Player of the Year, was named the Ted Hendricks Award winner as the nation's top defensive end.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competitions in 27 sports during the 2019-20 academic year – 13 for men and 14 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis at Wake Forest. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play.

HISTORY

The ACC was founded on May 8, 1953 at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C. with seven charter members – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, NC State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of by-laws was adopted and the name officially became the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline. Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978 when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1,1991 with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami (Fla.) and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting on July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pitt and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC that day after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.
